HAS NOT HEARD FROM MORGAN

Governor Holcomb Not Yet Asked to Stop Prospective Hanging.

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY A LAST RESORT

Friends of the Condemned Man Work for a New Trial and Have a Motion to that End Before the Supreme Court.

LINCOLN, Sept. 22.—(Special Telegram)—Governor Holcomb was interviewed this afternoon as to whether he would interfere in the execution of George Morgan, the Omaha murderer. The governor said the matter had not yet been referred to him and he hoped it would not be. He thought Morgan's friends would first exhaust all means to get the supreme court to grant a new trial, the motion for which is now pending.

S. T. Burns, sheriff of Monona county, is here with a requisition to take Frank Kearns back with him to answer for the crime of larceny, committed in March of last year. Kearns is serving a term in the Nebraska penitentiary, and tomorrow is the time for his release. He will immediately be taken in charge by Sheriff Burns, the governor having honored the requisition.

Peter Burgo, a sheet iron worker, was convicted in Douglas county for assault with intent to kill, and on July 11, 1888, was sent to the penitentiary to serve a term of fifteen years. On June 12, 1888, he was paroled out with Harry E. Briggs of Omaha. Today governor Holcomb commuted Burgo's sentence to thirteen years, three months and nine days. He was emitted to four years and two days, good time, which makes his sentence end today, and papers to that effect have been made out.

Governor Holcomb has appointed the following delegates to the state irrigation convention, which meets at Lincoln September 25: T. C. Patterson, North Platte; M. F. Harrison, O'Neill; H. J. Hendry, Monroe; L. C. Lloyd, Gothenberg; C. M. Skiles, Ulysses; E. P. Stephens, Crete; Carson Hill-dreth, Bloomington; A. O. Taylor, Minot; Anton Abel, Lexington; John Salling, Cozad; W. A. Paxton, Omaha; W. N. Babcock, South Omaha; J. W. Stevenson, North Bend; B. A. Jones, Sidney; B. G. Hoover, Big Springs; W. G. Taylor, Culbertson; James K. Lane, Pleasant Hill; O. Nelson, Richland; H. M. Mathew, Loup City; T. M. Morrow, Gering.

State were submitted to the supreme court this morning, Ed P. Smith appearing for the state in each of them. In the cattle stealing case, brought up by Edwin Catron, who was convicted in the district court of Holt county, the errors charged were in regard to the conduct of Prosecutor M. E. Harrington during the trial. On this account Mr. Harrington was here today and made the argument in behalf of the state. This was done on request of the attorney general.

Chancellor MacLean says that at the end of last week the registration at the State university was per cent greater than at the same time last year.

LINCOLN NOTES.

Dean A. C. Cook of Denver spoke at the bible conference last night on the coming of the antichrist, which he maintained would take place soon. He will talk on the same topic again tonight. This forenoon Rev. Addison Blanchard preached on the judgments. A platform meeting, addressed by several of the ministers, was held this afternoon.

The back yards and alleys of the city are undergoing a thorough cleaning this week in response to Mayor Graham's proclamation, issued a few days ago. Lincoln will present a tidy appearance to the irrigation people who visit next week.

A call has been issued for the annual meeting of the Nebraska Woman Suffrage association, to be held in Lincoln, September 30.

Asbury O. Perry was tried before Judge Cochran in county court today, on a charge of operating a gambling device at the reunion grounds. He was fined $100 and the sum of $500 to appear at this term of district court to answer the charge.

Some unknown man committed a criminal assault on Miss Livingstone last night. The case was not reported to the police until several hours after its occurrence. Miss Livingstone is a fragile girl, and is recovering from the ill treatment and excitement.

Rev. C. M. Shepherd and wife were surprised by the Epworth league of Grace church last night, who, before leaving, presented them with an elegant silver toilet. Rev. Mr. Shepherd and family will remove to Nebraska City.

Dr. McChesney Leaves Town.

NEBRASKA CITY, Sept. 22.—(Special)—Dr. H. A. McChesney, who has been practicing medicine here for the last six weeks, left town today. He resorted to newspaper advertising to gain practice in such manner as to arouse the disfavor of several physicians of the city, who appeared before the State board at Lincoln and asked that his license to practice in the state be annulled. Rather than face the opposition to him, the doctor seems to have decided to leave.

WEST POINT BREVITIES.

The republican county convention is called to meet Tuesday, October 5, at West Point. The 6-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kuester died Sunday and the remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery Monday afternoon.

Polk County Republican Ticket.

OSCEOLA, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special)—The republicans held their county convention here today. Every precinct was represented. A strong republican ticket was put in the field. Following are the nominees: Clerk, S. L. Anell; treasurer, A. C. Donohoon; sheriff, E. R. More; judge, J. B. Mitchell; superintendent, Prof. G. N. Crozier; coroner, E. D. Buckner, M. D.; surveyor, F. M. Stone.

Gets a Three Years Sentence.

NEBRASKA CITY, Sept. 22.—(Special)—Sam Davis, who was tried and convicted of larceny as a hatter, today received a sentence of three years at hard labor in the penitentiary. Davis attempted to leave town with a team and buggy which had been loaned to him by Levi Bros. He was overtaken at Shenandoah, Ia., and brought back to this city for trial.

Expert's Report Submitted.

LINCOLN, Sept. 22.—(Special)—The report of the accountant who examined the books at the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb at Omaha for the legislative investigating committee was shown to the newspaper reporters here today. It is a voluminous document and goes into the minutest details of transactions on which the allegations of shortage are made. In many respects it is so involved that an expert may have to be called to unravel the mysteries of the report. The shortages reported consist mainly of "unauthorized expenditures," items in which school expenses were settled by Superintendent Gilchrist under the report shows expenditures of $11,416.37; cash, May 30, 1897, $278.56; shortage in accounts $1,539.72; due children's accounts, $298.87.

Moves to a Larger Town.

COLUMBIA, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special)—William Huff of Clarke, Neb., has moved his newspaper plant to this city and will commence the publication of a strictly red-hot, aggressive republican newspaper, the first issue appearing Friday of this week. This last acquisition makes a total of seven weekly papers in this little city. It is said that A. G. Gerrard will also move his outfit, the Monroe Looking Glass, to this city in the near future.

How's Ready for Market.

COLUMBIA, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special)—Henry M. Winslow, a prominent stock feeder of Columbus township, has 2,400 head of hog ready for the market and which is shipping at the rate of five cars a week. He also has several hundred head of cattle which will soon be put on the market.

South Omaha News.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held yesterday afternoon. A new funding bond ordinance was passed to take the place of the one passed a short time ago, some slight errors having been discovered when the first was gone over by attorneys for the purchasers of the bonds.

Vansant's Hard Luck.

Councilman Vansant is in hard luck. A short time ago a sneak thief entered his barn and carried away a fine saddle. Yesterday afternoon the councilman had occasion to stop at one of the stores and tied his horse to the post outside of the building. The animal became frightened, pulled its bridle off, started down the street with his owner after it. Before Vansant returned with his horse some one had stolen one bridle from him. A hitching post and disappeared. Vansant thinks the thief was the same that carried away his saddle and expects him to return for the blanket and the rest of the trappings.

Made It Pleasant for Collins.

L. R. Collins, a Bellevue Islander, went out to the fair grounds yesterday afternoon looking for friends. He found it all right and when he got home even his dogs won't know him. Collins got into an altercation with a couple of peddlers and when they finished with him his head was cut in a number of places and he won't be able to see out of one of his eyes for a week. As soon as able Collins made his way to this city, where his injuries were dressed. His entire head, including one eye, was bandaged and he was about as tame an islander as has been seen around these parts for a long time.

Wood-McGee.

BEATRICE, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special Telegram)—Mr. Frank L. Wood and Miss Minnie McGee were married at the home of the bride's parents in this city today at noon. The bride is prominent in social and musical circles in Beatrice, and the groom is a member of the well known commission firm of Wood Brothers of Chicago. They departed this afternoon for New York and other eastern points and will make their home in Chicago.

Wanted in Omaha.

SUTTON, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special Telegram)—Mr. Carl Held, a leading Sutton druggist, and Miss Etta Roland were united in marriage this morning at 9 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Jackson. They took the B. & M. flyer for Omaha, amid congratulations of many friends. The wedding was strictly private.

Crawford-Tulleys.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special)—At the beautiful home of Fred Tulleys, northwest of town, yesterday his eldest daughter, Bernice, was married to Lyman Crawford of this place. They took the train for Omaha.

PLANS FOR THE NEBRASKA BUILDING.

Work Upon Structure to Commence Next Monday.

The Nebraska Exposition commission held a short meeting yesterday morning and disposed of a few minor details in connection with the Nebraska building, after which the commission adjourned until next Tuesday evening, when a regular meeting will be held.

The architects presented a full set of plans of the State building as changed, and reported that a like set had been filed with the exposition management. It was found that the State building would occupy 14,241 square feet of ground and a voucher in payment for this much space was ordered drawn. President Neville was instructed to close up the details in connection with securing the space.

Superintendent Blake announced that he would be ready to commence work on the building next Monday morning, and he was instructed to employ the necessary men and start the construction.

President Neville and Commissioners Foster and Boydston were appointed as a committee to see that nothing was left undone to secure the grain and other products necessary for making the state exhibit, and they were empowered to buy the material now on exhibition at the State fair if they considered such course necessary in order to make sure of a fine collection of material.

SUES GERMAN BANK STOCKHOLDERS.

Douglas County Brings Suit to Recover on Bond.

County Attorney Baldrige has commenced suit in the name of the county of Douglas against the German Savings bank and the sureties on the bond given the county for the safe keeping of county funds, to recover the sum of $29,699.47 of county funds on deposit in the bank when it closed its doors June 9, 1896. The sureties on this bond are Le J. Fowler, C. J. Karbach, William Seckie and William Krug. The amount for which the county sues is alleged to have belonged to the following funds:

Hospital judgment $55.23
 Insane judgment 34.02
 General fund 21,362.65
 Douglas addition judgment 6,718.34
 Road fund 6,663.83
 Treasurer's current account 2,523.35

Total $39,699.47

Suit is brought against the bank and the sureties for the full amount and interest since the date the bank closed its doors.

THE CURSE

Of mankind—contagious blood poison—claimed as its victim Mr. Frank B. Martin, 938 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., and the usual physician's treatment did him not the slightest good. His condition reached that deplorable stage which only this terrible disease can produce.

THE CURE

After all else failed, was at last found in S. S. S.—the greatest of all blood remedies. Eighteen bottles removed the disease permanently, and left his skin without a blemish.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and the only known cure for this most terrible disease. Books free. Sources, Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.
