BLISS APPROVES THE PLAN

ton's Driveway Scheme.

GOES BACK TO INDIANS FOR CONSENT

Councils Will Be Convened at Once to Secure Support for the New Proposition.One Man Rendy to Drive.

WASHINGTON, Scot. 22 .- (Special Telegram.)-Secretary Bilss of the Interior department has approved the suggestions of the Indian office relative to the trail for cattle across the Great Sloux reservation, and Commissioner Jones will issue instructions tomorrow to Agent McChesney at Pine Ridge and Agent Clapp at Rosebud to convene the Indians in council. Safeguards will be thrown around the issuance of permits and the office here must be notified either in writing or by telegraph of applications on the part of cattle owners to use the drive from north to south. In a long letter to the secretary wherein request is made to permit the In dian office to issue permits, Commissioner Jones says that where no treaty provision exists for the establishment of cattle trails across the reservation and where the Indians will consent to the same it has been the policy of the Indian office to grant concessions to cattlemen as prayed for by owners of herds in South Dakota. He explicitly states that there is no desire to create a permanent trail, the permits asked for to run but one year. In order, however, to relieve the Indians of the necessity of passing upon every permit, Jones suggests that at a council to be called the Indians are to be asked to grant a year's leave to drive. The question of payment for the use of the reservation and the suggestion of 5 cents per head, is discussed by the com-"The price mentioned missioner, who says: in Major McLaughlin's report, is not too much, and would seem to the Indian office most reasonable, but in order to avoid the suggestion of undue influence it is thought best to allow the Indians and the agents to agree upon the fee to be charged."

The regulations as adopted require tha only small herds are to be driven, and in continuous and most expeditious manner po sible. The agent, on receiving the order from the Indian office to issue the permit will provide the cattlemen with an escort of Indian police, and if these are not available, then suitable persons are to be em ployed at the expense of the owners of the cattle. Small herds must not be driven so frequently as to destroy the grass or per-manently injure the land.

Senator Thurston and Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn were informed of the action of Secretary Bliss, and expressed themselves greatly pleased over the situation. Senator Allen has advised Commissioner Jones that Fred Holcomb, a large cattle owner in South Dakota, desires permission to drive a herthrough the Rosebud agency from Pierre to ome point on the Elkhorn railroad for ship ment to market. In view of the action of the Indian office taken today, and should the Indians consent to the drive, it is thought this will be the first herd through the reservation.

A picture of the "enchanted forest" was employed to set off the royal green upon the following float, which was led by Franck's band of South Omaha. As the preceding float was an ensemble in red, this furnished a like effect in green. The scene was a wooded gien from the enchanted land, in which the animal sprites romped and danced without the fear of mortal interference. Huge plants, shedding a green light about them, sprang up in the little vale, while to the front and the rear great rocks jutted out. Resting in the shade of the big leaves of the vegetation were animals, while others found shelter in nocks in the cliffs or clambered upon the great stones and looked in wonder upon the multitude that was gazing upon them. Rabbits, frogs, squirrels and other forest denizens were represented in rich colors. I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts,

ODELL, ILL., May 29th.

I am married and have one child, and have not been well since the child was born. Have suffered for two years with irregularity of menses. Had dull headache all the time, and a very weak back.

I also had a womb disease. Our doctor attended me all the time, but I got no better. My husband bought a bottle of McElree's Wine of Cardui and a package of Thedford's Black-Draught. After taking them according to directions, I am cured of all my troubles, and feel very grateful for this wonder-

Prom J. B. Meriderin, of Lanier, Tex.
After confinement my wife was attacked with a female trouble and was treated for a month by her physican, but got no relief. She abandoned the doctor and commenced to use Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and before she had taken one bettle she was entirely well. I want the world to know the value of this wonderful medicine.

strength and tone for a speedy recovery.

Nothing ever made equals Wine of Cardui for this purpose. This great medicine is sold and recommended by nearly every druggist in the country. $1.00 per bottle.
