ATTACKS CHARGE FOR FRANCHISE,

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—President C. C. Bonney of the Chicago General Railway company; acting in the interests of the Yerkes lines and the City Railway company, has filed a brief in the supreme court of Illinois in which he attacks the right of a city or other municipal corporation to demand any compensation, more than a license on the cars run, from a street car company in consideration of being allowed the use of the public streets. The brief was filed in the appeal of the Chicago General company from the suit of the city, in which the latter seeks to collect the $500 a mile compensation which is agreed on in the former's franchise ordinance. Its scope is much wider than this, however, as the principle set up is that the city cannot demand such compensation in any case. If the supreme court should sustain Mr. Bonney's position, its decision would apply to the ordinances extending the existing street car franchise under the Allen law when they are introduced in the city council, as they soon will be. Mr. Bonney's argument applies to gas, telephone and other
