The only strong men in the cabinet are Puigercervoer, finances; Capdebon, interior. and Moret, colonies. The latter accepted the colonial office with a view to playing the chief part in reversing the policy of the late government in Cuba and the Philippines, and with his knowledge of English Moret will naturally be in the position of assistant minister of foreign relations.

On the whole the composition of the new exbinet has caused surprise and disappoint ment, both in the general public and the liberal party. I telegraph early because the delays in transmission of press cablegrams telly have been shocking.

Names of Men Who Make Up Ministry Chosen by Sagasta. MADRID, Oct. 4.- The new ministry is constituted as follows: Senor Sagasta, president of the counci of ministers. Senor Gallon, minister for foreign affairs. Senor Groizard, minister for justice. General Correa, minister of war.

Admiral Bermejo, minister of marine, Senor Puigercervoer, minister of finance. Senor Capdepon, minister of the interior. Count Xiguena, minister of public works. Senor Moret, minister for the colonies. The ministers, after an informal meeting, proceeded to the palace and took the oath although some disappointment is felt that Senor Gamizo, Senor Maura, Senor Armijo and others who had been looked upon as probable members are not included.

It is understood that Senor Maura, who was the author of the first Cuban home rule bill, felt that he could not act satisfactorily with Senor Moret, while Senor Gamazo who is a relative of Senator Maura, icared that his presence might imply a leanlog toward the Maura scheme of reforms Consequently Senor Sagasta was compelled to take less prominent men.

At a cabinet council this evening it was decided to appoint Senor Amos Salvador minister of finance in the Sagasta cabinet of 1895, director of the Bank of Spain. Count Romonanes has been appointed mayor of Madrid and Senor Aguillera prefect of police the substance of an interview between a newspaper correspondent and an unnamed member of the new Spanish cabinet. The latter is quoted as saying that Senor Sagasta will carry out the Cuban reforms proposed by Marshal Martinez de Campos ten years ago. Continuing, the new exbinet minister is said to have declared that Premier Sagasta would not consent to a customs between the United States and Cuba and that if the former was not satisfied, Spain was prepared to fight, as the Spanish navy was regarded equal in strength to the navy of the United States.

In conclusion the new minister is alleged to have said it was improbable that Spain would consent to recognize the insurgent debt, but Premier Sagasta would not prevent the new Cuban government dealing The Evening Standard, commenting up-

WILL HELP AMERICAN PRISONERS

Sagasta Cabinet Likely to Result in Granting Amnesty. WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 .- One result of the formation of a Sagasta cabinet in Spain, i is believed, will be the granting of amnesty to most, if not all, of the American priscovers held in Cuba, and the pardon of many Cubaus condemned to imprisonment in the island of Ceuta. Pending the completion of the Sagasta cabinet there has been no inti-mation that such action would be taken, but it is said to be naturally a part of the new Spanish policy, involving the withdrawal of General Weyler and the adoption of more conclliatory plans. comed by the administration. The statements attributed to the newspa pers that Sagasta would favor the largest measure of autonomy have directed attention to the past efforts toward autonomy. Those offered by the conservative cabinet and made own through the Spanish minister, Dupuy De Lome, contemplated a council of admin istration, elected in part by the Cubani which was to have an advisory power in shaping the affairs of the island. which has already been gazetted, though it has never been put into effect in Cuba, owing to the disturbed conditions. The objection found to this plan was that while it was in name autonomy, it did not give real home rule, as the Cuban council was not to be a legislative body with final powers of making laws, but merely an advisory council. In contrast with this it is said that the liberal plan of autonomy, as desired by the autonomist party of Cuba, contemplates a colonial parliament, or legislature, with final powers of lawmaking, save the usual power of veto preserved in all forms of constitutional gov-ernment. This would be on the lines of the home rule operating in Australia and Canada, and the latter countries were cited as ex-amples of complete autonomy by the Spanish statesman, Castellar, when autonomy was first suggested for the island. Such a measure of autonomy, it is said, would com-mand much support in Cuba among the substrutial elements there, including the autonomist party. In this connection it is understood that the newly-chosen president of the insurgents, Mendez Capote, conservative tendencies and during a visit to Washington some months ago is said to have expressed views favorable to a close of hestilities on some fair basis of compro-

Although such was the intention the greatest difficulty was experienced in directing the ardor of the party enthusiasts and persuading them to believe in the mercenary advantage of the triune arrangement, for there were those who could not be reconciled to Tom Hoctor for sheriff and who freely charged that he was the agent of the money power and even that he was a pur-

The members of the delegation from South Omaha also had a burning soreness within them regarding the disposition of the tax assessorships in that town and had many sympathizers in their argument for a bolt. When Chairman Wilson cailed the conven tion to order there were barely twenty delegates in the hall. The point of no quorum was made but the chairman gave the original ruling that as there was no special rule on the subject it was his privilege to de-

The question of endorsing Hoctor was then submitted and elicited several fiery speeches. E. J. Miller said he objected to Hoctor be-eause he had come into the democratic convention as a dark horse with the list of his delegation in his pocket for sale to the most generous bidder. "Hoctor belongs to the money power" cried Miller. "With my own eyes I saw chairmen of country delegations taken to the saleon downstairs while men who were not even members of their delegations cast the solid vote of their precinets for Hoctor."

This created a general uproar, and a half dozen men contradicted and upheld Miller in the same breath. The crowd was attracted largely on account of the fight being put up by Joseph Crow, candidate for county judge; George C. Thompson, candidate for register of deeds, and J. E. Van Gilder, who is in the race for county clerk. The hall was packed by the friends of these candidates, each contingent bent upon frustrating any endorsement of the other which might be made. Although the fight on delegations will probably prevent a single set of mer going into the primaries from this ward, i has already been conceded that the Va-Gilder and Crow forces will unite against the delegation belonging to Thompson.

Judge Foster Renders a Decision Against Stock Yards Company.

CONCERN BEATEN ON EVERY LEGAL POINT

Court Upholds the Contention of Kansas Attorney General.

DECISION SWEEPING IN ITS NATURE

Stock Yards People Say They Will Carry the Case Up.

GO TO UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

Meantime They Will Continue to Charge Same Old Rates, at Least Until Saturday_Resume of the Case.

TOPEKA, Oct. 4.-Judge Foster today handed down his opinion in the Kansas City stock yards case in which he decided against the company on every legal question raised. The opinion is very sweeping and is a complete victory for Attorney General Boyle. The stock yards company will appeal to the United States supreme court. There were three points on which the stock yard owners relied. Judge Foster said that none of them could stand. His decision boiled down is: "The law governing stock yards charges was regularly passed by the Kansas legislature; the stock yards company is only an incident of commerce and in the absence of action by congress is subject to the state laws; congress has not acted to fix regulations governing it; the charges fixed by the legislature would give a reasnable return on the capital invested."

The case will probably go direct to the United States supreme court. In the meantime the company will continue to charge the old rates, at least until Saturday, KANSAS CITY, Oct. 4.—The Kansas City stock yards case grew out of the efforts of the stock yards company to prevent the enforcement of the law passed Kinsas legislature, reducing yardage charges. The taking of testimony in the case was begun in this city on April 30 last, George W. Clark, assistant attorney general of Kansas, acting as special master. The pur-pose of the stock yards people was to prove that the present charges were reasonable, that the prices fixed by the Kansas legislature were ruinous, and that in attempting to fix the rates the state interfered with interstate commerce. The yards lie in both Kansas Citys, being situated on the Kansas-Missouri line. To the company, which is the second largest in the country, the result of the case means thousands, if not millions of dollars.

The case was brought in such shape as o make Boyle and not the state defendant, although it was an attack on the state law passed by the last legislature to regulate and reduce charges on live stock at the yards and an application for an injunction to restrain Boyle as a state officer from enforcing the law.
