His Long Career of Usefulness in Interest of the City is Marked by Many Permanent. Institutions.

Hon. George A. Holmes, one of the oldest and best known attorneys in the city, died shortly before noon yesterday at the Woman's Christian Association hospital, from consumption, induced by bronchial troubles. He has been able to be about the streets and occasionally spend an afternoon or morning in his office until within the last fortnight, when he began to fall rapidly. On Tuesday morning he was taken to the hospital, still hopeful and making a brave fight for life. Tuesday might be failed rapidly and the end came peacefully and without apparent pain a few hours later. Disagreement between paster and congre-gation on several views in regard to the propriety of dancing, etc., was the cause of the resignation. The climax of the difficulty arose when the women of Unity guild decided to give an entertainment for the benefit of the church and conclude the evening's exer-cises with dancing. Mr. Wells was opposed to any such measures for the maintenance of the church and freely expressed his sentiments before the guild at a meeting held some time ago. The women decided not to advertise the dance, but refused to abandon it, which was as adverse to the rector's views as the dance itscelf, and his resignation was the final result.

"Why are the chances greater for a fast will be in an exhibition than they are in a regular race?" was asked.

"That to simple enough," replied Mr. Murshly. "When the horses are going together will try to disgrace the other, as was liustrated at Springfield the other day. If one should make a break the other would be should make illustrated at Springfield the other day. If one should make a break the other would one should make a treat the care one pull up and wait for him. In a trial there are no such hindrances. In a race one horse might happen to get off slow, and the other would not be pushed out and consequently it would be a comparatively slow mile. The horse that was going right would be laid to for the next heat. But in an exhibition, with or the next beat is the mater of running mater, as we shall have briday, the horses will be forced from start of finish, and if it is within the possibilities hey will both break their records. Woman's Woes. ~~ There are thousands of ladies who are nervous, weak, fretful all the time. They have constant side-ache, backache, headache. They are never really well. Though not confined to their beds, no one knows what an effort it requires for them to keep up. They suffer more and get less sympathy than any other class of invalids.

MYERS-DILLON DRUG CO., S. E. 16TH A

Wine of Cardui comes as a priceless boon to these sufferers. Thousands of such invalids have been restored to perfect health by its use. Nearly always the trouble originally comes from some little menstrual disorder. Wine of Cardui stops that and puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. Then a woman soon has robust health. Suffering women are invited to try Wine of Cardui. It only costs $1.00 per Bottle.

For advice in cases requiring spe-cial directions, address, giving symptoms, Ladics Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Chattanooga, Tenn. MARION, Perry Co., Ala., Feb. 18th. I sent for a bottle of McElree's Wine of
