For Jumping on Moving Trains. Three boys, A. F. Sickler, R. M. Tollman and H. Schneider, were arrested yesterday for jumping on and off moving trains. The boys were stealing rides on freight trains. Officer Barbyte took them in charge. A fourth boy was in the crowd at the time, but managed to slip away from the officer. e boys were locked up. Later the rallway were communicated with and ex pressed their determination to prosecute the boys vigorously under both the city and the state laws. They will have a hearing before Judge McGee this morning.

Physicians Discuss Headaches. The Council Bluffs Medical society held its regular meeting last evening in the office of Dr. Macrae. Dr. Jennings read a very interesting paper on "Headache" and a general discussion followed. The opinion of the ajority of the physicians present was that if the cause of the headache could be ascertained there were few cases which could not be permanently cured if the patient would follow the instructions of the physician a sufficient length of time.

Newspapers as Text Books. KANSAS CITY, Oct. 13.—Newspapers may soon be used in the Kansas City public schools as text books. At the regular meeting of the local school board J. M. Green-wood, superintendent of schools, instructed the principals to keep up an interest in current events and to encourage the read-ing of good newspapers. "I will introduce a system whereby newspapers may be used as text books a little later," said Mr. Greenwood to a reporter, "I am getting the teachers prepared for it now."

SAYS HE'S A PROFESSIONAL PICKPOCKET

Tells the Jary that His Real Name Charles Matthews McHugh, but that He Has Many Alinses.

"Buzzy" McHugh was on the stand him self yesterday and told his story. He ac James Hardy of Kansas City, but formerly counted for every day of his time during February and March, 1895, and was very specific concerning the days Saturday, Sun day and Monday. He explained his portion of the conversation with O'Brien at the Allentown Jail and his remark that he would be able to show where he was on February 25 by saying that Detective Anderson had told him O'Brien was coming to get him for trying to kill him on that day. The remainder of the conversation that was held in the presence of Donaghy and Anderson he flatly denied. He entered a general denial o all of the testimony concerning his identification by various people at the fall here. He said he was a professional pickpocket and hlef, and was known as "Buzzy" McHugh, limmy Buzzy, Jimmie Caine, Jim Patterson, James Botes, James Baker, James Moore and numerous other names, but that his right name was Charles Matthews McHugh. On cross-examination he did not deviate from his story and tried to make a favorable impression upon the jury by his frankness.

The trial began for the day with ex-Jailer C. G. Peterson on the stand under cross-examination by the state. He there got a good look at the men, and from bis best judgment the third party, who got away, was not the defendant. Additional inerest was lent to his testimony when the prosecution insisted upon Peterson telling what his present business was. He grew red in the face, stammered and finally said he declined to answer the question.
"Do you rely upon your constitutional ex-emotion from answering a question that night involve you in trouble with the law? he county attorney asked.

"Yes, it might," replied the witness.

The depositions of the people in Philadel-thia, where McHugh claimed to have been living at the time of the trouble here, were offered and read. The first was that of Edward M. Davis. He said he kept a lodging or rooming house. He said the man who did the shooting was known as Riley and that he had known him for several pears. Both of the men admitted that they also knew McHugh and that they frequently met him in the "House of David" in Chicago. In answer to a question concern-ing the business he followed mostly during life he replied that it was "that of a fool" and explained that he meant by that that he had prostituted his talents and made a fool of himself by choosing a criminal career in-stead of an honest one.

The defense called Albert Morgan, son of the present sheriff and at the present time county jailer, to impeach the testimony of Dick Holst, who testified on the previous day for the prosecution that McHugh had instantly recognized him when he first called at the jail after the prisoner had been re-turned from Pennsylvania and referred to him as the Kiel hotel man. BURLESQUE OF THE NEW WOMAN.

Represented as United States Senator in a Church Entertainment. One of the most unique and enjoyable en tertainments given in the city during the season was that provided by the members of the Unity guild in Hughes' hall last night. It was called "The New Woman," and was a burlesque representation of a session of the United States senate as run exclusively by women in the year 1996. The cast of characters represented only the present states that have granted some sort of concessions to women in the way of the ballot. The as-sembly was made up entirely of women, each dressed to represent the state she bailed from. All of the regular officers of the sen-ate were in their places and the senators from Iowa, Kentucky, New Jersey, Minne sota, Connecticut, Nebraska, Texas, Ver mont, Pennsylvania (Dutch), California (Chinese), Alabama, Utah, New York (Irish), South Carolina (colored), Colorado, Michigan, Rhode Island and Massachusetts occupied the seats in the chamber. Here's how I have alway: understood it: Prof. Morse, having returned from Europe, went at once to Washington where he renewed his efforts to get his bill passed appropriating $30,000 for the purpos of his new telegraph. Toward the close of the session of 1844, the house took up and passed it by a large majority, and it only remained for the action of the senate. It rogress as might be imagined, was awaited by Prof. Morse with the most intense inter est and anxiety. There were only two days before the close of the session, and it was found, on examination of the calendar, that no less than 143 bills had precedence of it The inventor had nearly reached the botton of his purse; his hard-earned savings were almost spent, and, although he had struggled on with undying hope for many years, i is hardly to be wondered at that he felt dis

MARYVILLE, Mo., Oct. 13 .- (Special.) -- Inlications are that for the next few days there will be hot fighting over the Maryville postoffice. It was announced yesterday by the friends of John G. Grems, the only avowed republican candidate for the office, that he s expecting to be appointed some time this week and the announcement has created juite a furore in political circles.

In Maryville the lines between the Filley-To Maryville the lines between the Filtey-Crowther and Kerens-Bittinger factions of the republican party are very fightly drawn and have been for the past year. Mr. Grems is the most trusted lieutenant in Nodaway county of Colonel Kerens and Mr. Bittinger. He was chairman of the republican county committee during the campaign of 1894 and veral preceding it and was delegate with Major Bittinger from this, the Fourth con-gressional district, to the national convention t St. Louis in 1896. He is recognized as ne of Mr. Filley's and ex-Congressman rowther's most bitter enemies in this part of the state and, as a result, has the endorse-ment of neither his state, congressional nor county committee, all of which are arrayed gainst him. Elmer C. Trueblood, the present incumbent, vas appointed by President Cleveland in De ember, 1895, to fill out the unexpired term f James Todd, who had resigned. Mr. Todd's erm, had he remained in office, would have xpired next month and Mr. Grems expects be appointed in time to be inducted into

As stated above, Mr. Grems is the only republican candidate for the office, but his enemies and the democrats of Maryville will make a strong effort to have Mr. Trueblood etained until his term expires by limitation, December, 1899.

Already the first move in this direction has been made and it is strongly intimated by the Filley-Crowther people that the fight will be carried even to the extent of opposing Mr. Grem's confirmation in the she should receive the appointment. senate if

A rosy, happy, laugh-ing baby brings the great-est happiness in all this wide, wide world to the wife and mother, -a baby that does not know illness, a veritable romp-ing rollicking cherub. It rests with woman herself to enjoy this great hap-piness. If she is afflict-ed with the weaknesses and diseases peculiar to her sex and does not properly prepare herself for that great-est event in woman's life, motherhood, she may be sure that baby will suffer for her neglect and be puny and peevish. By tak-ing the proper care of herself during the period preceding motherhood she can insure the health of her baby.
