ENTITLED TO RE-ELECTION. Albert M. Post, who for the past six years has filled a position on the supreme bench of Nebraska, is by rights entitled to re-election.

ALGERNON SIDNEY PADDOCK. The announcement of the sudden death of ex-United States Senator Algernon Sidney Paddock will cause profound sorrow among Nebraskans everywhere.

ALLISON ON THE CURRENCY. In his speech at Cleveland, O., on Saturday, Senator Allison made it plain that he does not expect any currency legislation by the present congress.

THE MARYLAND CAMPAIGN. The campaign in Maryland is by no means the least interesting or important of the political contests of this year.

CONFRONTED BY A SERIOUS PROBLEM. Two weeks from Tuesday the proposition to issue $100,000 of county bonds in aid of the exposition will be voted on.

GERMANY AND RECIPROcity. The announcement that the German government is seriously considering the matter of entering into negotiations with the United States looking to reciprocity arrangements is somewhat surprising.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. A large corporation doing business on business principles would retain in its employ at the head of an important branch of its service a man who seeks to beat his creditors by making himself garnishee-proof.

GOV. HOLCOMB'S RESPONSIBILITY. Lincoln News: It is now claimed that the one man out of the eighty at the statehouse who would accept the road passes is Samuel Lighty.

SPAIN IS AGAIN LEARNING THE FORCE OF THE ADVICE TO DELAY BEING DANGEROUS. Cuba might have been eager to jump at a proposition for autonomy a year or so ago.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE. Gladstone weighs only 117 pounds. His words carry more than that in any country.
