The card was a strong one, as the 250%, class and the 245 class for trotters and the 269 to 15 pace, had fields of high quality. For the 200%, trot the black gelding's record was a hit favorite at 25 to 26 for the field, while in the 216 pace the field sold for $20, while the grey stallon 0 M C sold for $10 and the hay mare Hale at the same figure. The buy gelding, Chines, started off to win the 224 in short order, landed the first with ease and in the second a desperate finish with Pustoral, who was only a nose behind him. In the next heat Glenmore by a length.

state official ballot. Justice Herrick of the supreme court last from the ruling of Secretary of State Pal-mer that the united democracy petitions for nominations should be recognized, despite affiliavits to the effect that the bulk of the igners were republicans. He lays particular stress, first, upon the necessity of the subcribers to petitions for nomination being bona fide electors and asserts that, in his opinion, Paimer erred in refusing to accept the evidence offered. Justice Herrick also decided that the objection to receiving affi-davits submitted to prove that certain sign-ers were not qualified electors was not valid and that several names should be eliminated ments against their genuineness.

THE PAGE THAT KILLS!

A distinguished German physician declares this to be the age of Nervousness. and thinks the civilized race is deteriorating under it. Our lunstle asylums are filling up at a frightful rate, women who should be plump and rosy are pale and emaciated; school children, instead of being toyous, active, vigorous, are debilitated, overworked and unhappy; business men are engines of perpetual worry and victims of insomnia; social life is a nervedestroying whirl of excitement; cities are clamorous with distraction of railroads, traffic, manufacture and all hustling af-fairs that destroy repose and murder quiet. Everything is at high pressure, Headlong, mad activity is the law of cir-cumstances. cumstances.
