THE COUNTY CAMPAIGN.

Republicans have every reason to feel encouraged with the progress made in their county campaign.

The people recognize in the republican nominees men of character and ability, each with special fitness for the position to which he aspires.

Republicans are making their campaign on pledges of faithful and efficient performance of duty.

In contrast with their opponents, they are before the people flying their own colors and avoiding sly and deceptive tricks.

BRYAN'S ROGUS BIFURCATION.

What He Really Wants. Joseph Mehl in Chicago Tribune.

It is a curious thing that Bryan, who is so often called a democrat, should be so much opposed to the gold standard.
