Thursday was the day officially desig-rated as Library day in the public schools of its observance in the Omaha schools were the flags that were hoisied over the various school buildings. The occasion is an outgrowth of the Columbian exposition, which gave birth to the idea of making the Columbias day cele rati in a p r naish feature. The name of the holiday was changed to Library day and it was made the occasion for raising funds in the schools for addingnew books to the school libraries. In the large cities where the public libraries are within the reach of the pupils no effort in this direction is necessary and the intended observance is largely confined to the schools in the smaller towns and villages. of its observance in the Omaha schools were
