SEEKS A CONVENTION CITY

Executive Committee of the National Educational Association Visits Omaha.

SELECTING PLACE FOR NEXT CONVENTION

Facilities for Entertaining the Delegates are Explained to the Committee and Hurdless Men Figure on It.

Three of the five members of the executive committee of the National Educational Association arrived in Omaha yesterday for the purpose of investigating Omaha's claims to the privilege of being selected as the meeting place of the association in 1898.

James M. Greenwood, president of the association, and superintendent of the public schools of Kansas City, Albert G. Lane, chairman of the board of trustees, and also superintendent of the public schools of Chicago, and I. C. McNeill, treasurer of the association and also president of the State Normal school at West Superior, Minn., constituted the delegation which will examine into Omaha's facilities for caring for the great gathering which accompanies the meetings of the great association of school teachers and others interested in education.

These five men will pass upon the relative merits of the four cities which are competing energetically for the honor of entertaining the educational association next year. These four cities are Omaha, Washington, Salt Lake City and Los Angeles.

At noon the party reached the Commercial club, where lunch was served and the facilities for providing for the entertainment of a large crowd of people in course of erection. From there the route led south on Twentieth street to the den of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, where it is proposed to hold the meeting of the association. Leaving this place the party drove about the city, visiting the city hall, the Bee building and other neighboring buildings, and the public parks.

It was assumed that the association would be given as favorable rates as had ever been granted it, and that every protection would be thrown around these rates. This latter clause had particular reference to a practice of the Educational association of having $2 added to the railroad rate, which amount is collected by the railroads and turned over to the association, forming a fund which goes to cover the running expenses of the association. In order to make sure that this source of revenue would not be cut off the committee desired to be assured that rates would not be made which would enable members of the association to purchase tickets and avoid paying this $2. It was seen that the committee expressed itself as entirely satisfied with the result of the conference.

BREAK IN THE EXPOSITION SEWER.

The cause of the break in the lagoon has been found and it is now settled that the two-inch roller used by the grading contractor to compact the bottom of the lagoon is directly chargeable with the leak.

John P. Daley, who superintended the construction of the sewer as an inspector of the Department of Buildings and Grounds, had a force of men at work yesterday uncovering the pipe inside the lagoon, the water in the lagoon having run out during Friday and Friday night. When the fifteen or eighteen inches of closely compacted clay and gumbo were removed from the sewer and the pipe uncovered it was seen that two joints had given way very slightly, but sufficiently to crack the cement in the joints and make a way for the escape of the water from the bottom of the lake into the sewer.

In looking for the cause of this condition it was found that the two distinct joints were directly in the track of the heavy roller which had passed over the sewer at this point. The track of the roller was plainly visible in the bottom of the lagoon, and no doubt as to the cause of the trouble, and Mr. Daley was greatly relieved to find that the proof was at hand that the fault was not caused by poor workmanship.

Mr. Daley has been a resident of Omaha for the past twenty years and has built many Omaha sewers. It is said that he is highly commended by the present city engineer as a contractor whose work will be depended upon, and is regarded among city officials and others coming in contact with his work as a thoroughly reliable and competent contractor. He felt aggrieved that any suspicion should have rested on him in connection with this particular sewer, and said he had taken especial pains to see that the work was most carefully done.

The manhole which stood in the center of the basin has been raised to the ground level and the overflow pipe and valve for draining the lagoon will be located at the edge of the bank where it will be out of sight. This work will be done at once, and the lagoon will be filled before freezing weather. It has been determined that the lake shall be kept full by means of an eight-inch pipe, which will be placed in the bottom of the lagoon just east of the island at Twentieth street. The twenty-inch main in Twentieth street is being laid under difficulty, owing to the presence of water from the artesian well, but the work is well along. The pipe for supplying the lagoon will extend east from the middle of the island, and will form a main to the eastward. The main will carry off water which will fill the canal and basin in short order.

INDICATES A LIGHT NOTE

Result of Second Day's Registration is Not Entirely Satisfactory.

ONLY ABOUT HALF THE VOTE REGISTERED

Deficiency is Largely Due to Dissatisfaction on the Part of Populists with Their Political Conditions.

The returns that have been received from Friday's registration indicate that scarcely half the qualified voters of the city have yet registered. Only one day of registration remains and unless there is a tremendous rush on that occasion only a very small vote can be recorded at the election on the following Tuesday.

PELLED MEL REDFIELD'S TEETH.

Forced to Produce More Figures on Claims of Frank E. Moore.

In response to the demand of the board, which was made as a result of a communication forwarded by Frank E. Moore, ex-clerk of the district court, several weeks ago, County Auditor Tate presented an official statement to the Board of County Commissioners yesterday, which purported to give the result of the auditing of the claims that the ex-clerk of the district court holds against the county.

When this statement was introduced the board did not seem to be satisfied with taking it at its face value. The members desired to see just how and why $12,000 of Moore's claims had been thrown out. Consequently Chairman Stenberg instructed the auditor to place the evidence that led him to disallow the portion of the claim in the hands of the finance committee that that body might examine for itself.

By resolution of Commissioner Stenberg the county clerk was authorized to receive bids for 100 ball box, 2 1/2x1 1/2 inches in size, the contract to be let to the lowest bidder, who will agree to deliver the boxes at the court house not later than Saturday, October 30.

George McBride, candidate for county surveyor was introduced, but this formality was hardly needed, as nearly every one in South Omaha knows him, he having lived here for years. Mr. McBride was very brief, but to the point. He wanted all those present to vote the straight republican ticket, which would of course include a vote for himself.

A PECULIAR REMEDY.

Something About the New Discovery for Curing Dyspepsia.

The Rev. P. I. Bell, a highly esteemed minister residing in Westport, Cayuga county, N. Y., in a recent letter writes as follows: "There has never been anything that I have taken that has relieved the Dyspepsia from which I have suffered for ten years except the new remedy called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Since taking them I have had no distress at all after eating and again after long years can sleep well." Rev. P. I. Bell, Westport, N. Y., formerly Idaho, Colo.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a remarkable remedy, not only because it is a certain cure for all forms of indigestion, but because it seems to act as thoroughly in old chronic cases of Dyspepsia as well as in mild attacks of indigestion or heartburn. A person has dyspepsia simply because the stomach is overworked, all it wants is a harmless, vegetable remedy to digest the food and thus give it the much needed rest.

This is the secret of the success of this peculiar remedy. No matter how weak or how much disordered the digestion may be, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, whether the stomach works or not. New life and energy is given not only to the stomach, but to every organ and nerve in the body. A trial of this splendid medicine will convince the most skeptical that Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles can be cured. The tablets are prepared by the Stuart Chemical Co. of Marshall, Mich., but so popular has the remedy become that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can now be obtained at any drug store at 50 cents per package. Send for book on stomach disease free.
