A DANGEROUS TIME

Just Now is When You Must Be Especially Careful.

"There is no season of the year which has more real dangers than the present." This remark was made by an eminent scientist who had been a close observer for many years. This continuing he said: "People who have passed through the summer, even if they have taken a vacation, are more or less in a run-down and exhausted condition at the opening of the fall season. The muscles have become relaxed, the pores of the skin are open, the heat of the body causes exposure to drafts which are none the less dangerous because they are not felt. Every man or woman who feels any sudden change which causes a cough, cold, tightening of the nostrils, a chill or muscular pain, should take a good, pure, restorative. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People is the best in the market. It has been before the public for years, and has done more to counteract pneumonia than any other preparation known to the world. Do not let any druggist or grocer persuade you to take anything else that he may say is 'just as good'."

Daley's Wonderful Sewer.

OMAHA, Oct. 24.—To the Editor of the Bee: I notice that a Sewer Contractor Daley has a very amusing story to tell about the cause of the break in the sewer that passes under the lagoon at the exposition grounds. Contractor Daley wants us to believe that the break was caused by the twelve-foot roller used to roll over the bottom of the lagoon. That is a good story to tell the horse man. Those who were on the ground when the roller was used remember that it was a very heavy roller. The roller was very carefully used to avoid the sewer, as they knew it would not stand that pressure. The roller would have crushed the sewer pipe had it not been so carefully used.
