Ensign and Mrs. Carter Come to Tak Charge of the Army in Eastern Part of Nebraska.

At the barracks of the Salvation army lost bight a welcome was extended to Ensign and Mrs. Carter, who have come to assume charge of the army in eastern Nebraska. After an a well filled hall. He said that his summens to this city was sudden, coming to him in Kansas City less than a week ago. The national headquarters, from which the ensign takes his orders, has expressed its wish that Miss Acmette Smiley the work in Omaha should be extended. A new post will in all probability be established within a short time, and the present quar-ters are to undergo renovation. The ensign expressed his approval of Captain Gregory's record, and haped to keep the work on the level of its past standard. The announcement was ther made that Colonel Higgins, second in command in the United States, would spend Sunday, November 14, in this city. The colonel is on a tour of inspection of the posts from New York to the Pacific c ast, and this is the only city in which he will make a public ad-

Some time ago the women of the hospital association requested the city council to remit the taxes on the property now occupied by the hospital for the years 1895, 1896 and 1897. The dispesition of the council was to do all it could for the institution, but as the city attorney held that such action would be learly illegal and would not be countenanced by the county commissioners the petition was placed on file. Since that time the county commissioners have remitted the taxes for 1895 and 1896 upon this property with the understanding that the hospita was to receive the benefit. The city donates to the hospital the sum of $25 a month for to the hospital the sum of $20 a month to the purpose of paying the rent of the building occupied, but it seems that the rent has not been paid since July 1. Now the owner to allow one taxes of the property is willing to allow any taxes which may be remitted to apply on the rent he county tax which has been remitted will of reduce the cent bill more than $25, but in use the city taxes for the years mentioned along with the county and city taxes of 1897 are remitted it will come pretty mear to squaring the accounts. Overcoats.

:: WE CLAIM there isn't a store in this entire country that sells overcoats as The Nebraska does. Not one. Manufacturer's prices have been shaved and shaved and our profits have been shared and shared until the ordinary ten dollar coat of commerce is only $5.75 here. That proposition holds good all along the line. There isn't a day that somebody doesn't come back and tell us that our prices are a quarter to a third less than the prices of other stores. We know this to be true. It would be strange if it wasn't true. We sell the very best Curly Chinchilla Overcoats for $15.00. There are stores where $22.50 is the price. These coats are lined half with Skinner satin and half with worsted serge and it would puzzle your merchant tailor to put any more value into his forty dollar coat. We sell the very finest English Covert Cloth coats for $15.00. A splendid American Covert Cloth for $8.50. A magnificent, dressy, swell looking Covert coat for twelve fifty- We also sell a half satin lined Kersey coat with the other half kersey lined for nine seventy-five and we sell the ten dollar Kerseys of your imagination for six dollars and a half. How do we do it? Oh, bless you, it's easy. Why, we sell a good, handsome coat made of good Kersey for four dollars and a quarter. Less than other stores would have
