Death is thought to have been due to over-exhaustion. Mr. George arrived at the hotel about 1 o'clock this morning. He had just come from several large mass meetings in the boroughs of Queens and Brooklyn. The work of the night seemed to have told on him. He complained of being tired, but his friends and relatives who awaited him thought it only the natural fatigue that follows such hard campaign work as Mr. George had been doing.

SUSPENSION IS STILL IN FORCE

Hearing Results in Only a Partial Victory for Dr. Brown.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—The hearing on the conference suspending Rev. C. O. Brown for unministerial conduct, was today sustained by the mutual council of the Congregational church, which has been reviewing the case. The council acquits Dr. Brown of the charge of adultery, but approves the action of the lay conference. Nearly three hours were taken up with a secret session before the members of the council decided upon their action. The finding is as follows: 1. We find that the result of the San Francisco council does not sustain the charge of adultery. 2. We find that while the conference in its action fell into some irregularities, it is still held to justify upon the whole said action of the conference in suspending Dr. C. O. Brown from the office of pastor, seriously affecting his ministerial conduct. 3. But we hope and advise that in view of the excellent ministerial service of Rev. C. O. Brown and the suffering endured by him, that the conference should consider the relief by council or otherwise of the disabilities resting upon him by the action of the conference. 4. Dr. Brown met defeat without a wink. He sat alone in the rear of the assembly room when Secretary Bradley announced the verdict. Dr. Brown expressed his disappointment when the council had dispersed. He did not demand relief of the charge of adultery, he said, as the Bay conference had done itself. The result of the council's action will likely lead to the rejection of his application for membership in the Chicago Congregational Ministerial association and a breach in the membership of the church of which Dr. Brown is now pastor.

The correspondent here of the Associated Press reports that his majesty's decision in regard to the chancellorship and resignation of Prince Hohenzollern, understood to have been several times tendered, will be reached there.
