To the old-timers it was a revelation. At least 100 visitors from Nebraska Bob Fitzsimmons Tells How He Was and lowa towns were present. Forty local sports were entered. All the visitors entered and most of them entered every event of country with a theatrical company and reapimportance during the three days session.

This is quite new, at least it has not been the custom for a long time in this vicinity, the added weight heightens the effect of his stalwart shoulders.

Heretofore, if an event had from live to eight men, it was considered to be a suceight men, it was considered to be a sucas thirty entries during the shoot. This was partially due to the fact that the management barred all traveling and professional men. This gave the real amateurs a chance and they availed themselves of it. This fact had been quite generally advertised and to this was due the large crowd. Many of the visitors never before attended a trap shoot at the local grounds. The first day of the to the great interest and the splendid weather. The two following days none of the women ventured out because of the west weather. One of the familiar figures of shooting tournaments of this section for the last quarter of a century is "Uncle" Mose Chandler of Red Oak, Ia. He has not missed a shoot of importance in either of the two states during that time. He was quite a bactor in the meeting lert week. Though "Chele" Mose is 75 years old, his eye is as keen and his nerve as steady as of old when he was trained to shoot big game on the prairies of Iowa and Nebraska. The old gentlemms was entered in some very swift they adjourned to the bar of the hotel. After prairies of lows and Nebraska. The old friendly drink. Even the local waters are beginning to attract attention as a result of the number of ducks in sight. Several parties made some good bags at Cut Off lake and Manawa during the in Philadelphia the other night. week. These two lakes really afforded splendid sport in season, considering their broximity to the populated districts. Honey Creek lake, where in the past thousands of ducks have been barged, will not afford any shooting this fall. There is plenty of water in sight, but a large force of graders are at work on the Northwestern road, which parallels the lake for a long distance. They have several engines and many terms there and the noise, computes and accompanying disturbances will probably keep the usual flocks away. The Platte is as usual attracting the largest share of attention. Small flocks of ducks have been along that stream for a month and now they are said to be coming in very rapidly. At Clarks, the favorice shooting ground for this class of game in the state, a vast number of birds are re-ported and the lakes of the sand hills are unusually well supplied with ducks. Plenty of water is in sight all over Nebraska and the adjacent states and some fine sport predicted before the season closes. The feeding is unusually good for the birds this year, every take being surrounded with fine beds of food. At least that is the only way one can account for the $4.333.33 that she received over and above the market price.

The extremely interesting report of Gov-ruor Brady of Alaska to the secretary of he interior is tinged with romance not often be found in the dry pages of official docu-cents. The mythical marriage of Ken-noogoo and Koot-kay-too-von-du-chin is at last placed on record, but doubtless the campers at Skugua, as the governor lisists upon spelling Skaguay, are painfully aware that the husband's other name was North Wind.

Social circles in Galesburg, III., are all astir over the divorce su? filed by Undertaker I. C. Norton and the application made by his wife for a writ of hubeas corpus to procure her daughter, now in Norton's possession. Mr. Norton alleges that his wife has made life unbearable for him by her abuse, profenity and stingings. He alleges that rofenity and stinginess. He alleges that would not hire a girl and that he had to

That the silly custom of showering rice on newly-married people may be attended with serious results is shown in the case of a young woman who was married a few of a young woman who was married a few days ago in Bridgeport, Conn. Well-meaning but foolish friends threw great quantities of rice at the bride and groom and soon after the train was on its way the bride complained of a pain in one of her cars. It rapidly grew worse and by the time the couple reached New York the woman was almost frantic. A physician was called and soon found a kernel of rice in her car. When it was removed the rice in her ear. When it was removed the pain ceased
