Haughton's Punt So Wearles the Methodists that Their Line Goes All to Pieces When Bouve Bucks It.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 3 .- Harvard made easy work of Wesleyan on Soldiers' field today, scoring five touchdowns in the first half of twenty minutes and two more in the second half of eight minutes, which with three goals kicked, made the final score 34 to 0. The Crimson was aided by the wind in the first half, when Haughton's punt so tired the Methodists that their line went to pieces on Bouve's heavy plunge. Only once did Wesleyan make its resistance on rushes, and on the defensive its line almost invariably yielded.

CONGRESSMAN MERCER PLEASED.

> Thinks Republicans Should Be Proud of Result in Nebraska Congressman David H. Mercer was feeling very happy yesterday over the magnificent victory of the republicans in Douglas county and over the republican gains in the state. Though pretty well tired out he was enthusiastically felicitating with the republicans who called upon him.
> Commenting upon the result, Mr. Mercer said: "The republicans of Omaha and Douglas county should be proud of this magnificent victory. To begin with they showed wisdom by nominating a splendid ticket in the county convention, while the opposition attempted to strengthen its cause by combining several discordant elements into one ticket, a step which occasioned division and discord in the fusion ranks. If the rest of the state has done as well as Douglas county Post's election is assured beyond a doubt. "Our great victory has been contributed by the citizens of Douglas county belonging to other parties, who have become disgusted other parties, who have become disgusted with fusion, and we appreciate the assistance given the republican party by them. The victory in Douglas county is all the more remarkable when one compares the result here with that in the other large cities of the country, most of which have suffered a falling off in the republican vote from that of one year, ago.

"The result in the state is also a splendid republican victory, as we were compelled to face a plurility of nearly 22,000, obtained by Holcomb in 1896. Whittling down the plurality to any perceptible extent is a great victory for the resulting and the property of the resulting and the resulting for the resulting results. victory for the republican party."

orming the ceremony. Tries the Morphine Route. Stella Green took a large dose of mor-phine last night in a fit of indecision between two lovers. She resides with Kittle Owens in the Third ward. The latter states that the Green woman borrowed a dime from her and invested in the drug. Later she confessed what she had done and said that what with being in jall so much and being persecuted with over-many lovers she had no desire to continue on earth. The city physician was summoned and relieved the girl of the drug without incident.

is far ahead of any blood remedy on the market, for it does so much more. Besides removing impurities, and toning up the run-down system, it cures any blood disease, it matters not how deep-seated or obstinate, which other so-called blood remedies fail to reach. It is a real blood remedy for real blood diseases.

Mr. Asa Smith, of Greencastle, Ind., writes: "I had such a bad case of Sciatic Rheumatism that I became absolutely belpless—unable to take my food or handle myself in any way. I took many patent stedicines, but they did not reach my trouble. One dozen bottles of S. S. S. cured me sound and well, and I now weigh 170."

A NEW SERIAL STORY

OMAHA SUNDAY BEE Anthony Hope

"The Prisoner of Zenda" Has completed a New Story of Love, Intrigue, and Devoted Gallantry, entitled-Simon Dale"

A ROMANCE OF THE STIR-

RING TIMES OF CHARLES II For serial publication in Fif teen Installments, in the Sunday Bee, Commenced October 17.

THE STORY.

Anthony Hope's mastery of witty and inimitably graceful dialogue, as well as his wonderful skill in the weaving of a dra-matic tale, is admirably displayed in this new story of ingenious construction and sustained interest. Few stories, even of Mr. Hope's, are more replete with incident, more rapid in movement, or deal more picturesquely with a group of histori-cal characters than this of "Si-mon Dale."

The period is one peculiarly suitable to the author's genius. The here moves in the remantic days of Charles 11, and his fortunes are entangled with those of the dissolute Stuart, and of Louis XIV of France. A witch's prophecy at his birth has foretold that "he will love what the King loves, know what the King hides, and drink from the King's cup." How Simon is bewitched with saucy Nell Gwyn, but is at heart faithful to his first love; how he bears himself like an honest gentleman through all the court intrigues: how he defends his lady with a wit and with a sword point equally keen, to win her to himself at last, Mr. Hope tells in a brilliant series of vividly picturesque scenes.
