PROMISES TO PROSECUTE.

County Attorney Saunders Says He Will See Gamblers Punished.

WILL NOT ALLOW CASES TO GO BY DEFAULT.

Wakes Up to the Fact that Gambling is Wrong and Denounces the Slot Machines Most Vehemently.

The wholesale arrests of the gamblers on Monday has aroused a good deal of interest in the city and bids fair to be the beginning of a campaign against all kinds of gambling and gambling devices, including the slot machines, which are thicker than the lamp posts all over the city.

County Attorney Saunders yesterday spoke with great indignation about the intentions in regard to the prosecution of the cases now in court. "There will be none of them dismissed," said he, "and none of the men indicted will be permitted to escape all of the punishment the law provides. Any other statement would, of course, be inconsistent with my position as public prosecutor and my duty, but I want it understood by this that I mean all I say. There have been other attempts to prosecute the gamblers of the city, but this is the first time that the grand jury has spread its net wide enough to catch all of the proprietors and attaches of the houses in this city, and I am confident that I may not have to bring the cases to trial at this time of the district court, for I have an extraordinary heavy criminal docket at Avoca, but will see again that none of these cases will be permitted to go by default.

"In my opinion the slot machines are infinitely worse than the gambling houses and are doing an incalculably greater amount of injury to the youth of the city. They are educating the American boys and the American people to become a race of gamblers. The evil is great and the remedy must be found for the reason that the machines are in hundreds of public places and every opportunity is given the boys to play them. This fact is brought to my mind on the last Sunday evening when returning home. Within the distance of two or three blocks on the corner of Broadway and Pierce street I passed three groves of boys, and the boys, I should judge, to be under 18 years of age, and as I passed them I noted the fact that all of them were talking about their losses or their winnings on the slot machines. This is only one instance, but it brought perhaps more forcibly to mind the danger that we are permitting our children to be subjected to. If there were no slot machines on gambling the slot machines should be the first to go."

The sheriff's department was notified yesterday of the fact that a negro woman, the wagon belonging to E. M. Loveng, a farmer living a few miles south of the city.

Council Bluffs people can obtain copies of the International art series "Island in Pictures," by calling at the Council Bluffs office of The Bee, No. 10 Pearl street.

W. C. Ross returned yesterday from Rockwell City, where he won a 100-yard foot race from Kimmel in a little better than ten seconds, flying start. The stakes were $100 a side.

T. A. Harris of Charter Oak and R. A. Romans of Denison are stopping in the city. They will leave soon for Idaho, where they will close up a large number of land deals at a large land sale.

Franklin and Saxon, the two glove thieves, were arraigned before Judge Green in the district court yesterday and entered a plea of guilty. They were sentenced to the county jail for a term of thirty days.

Laura A., wife of J. A. Patrick, died at her home on North Tenth street yesterday of consumption. She was 37 years of age. Her body was buried in the city.

Deputy County Clerk Gil Baird received word yesterday of the death of his sister, Mrs. Sarah C. Simpkins, at Valley Mills, O. Death was due to apoplexy and occurred within two hours from the beginning of the attack.

Jonathan Stanbury was struck by a falling tree while at Monday's Standbury saw mill, about five miles northwest of Council Bluffs. He saw the tree falling in time to get almost out of its reach, but was badly injured.

E. B. Van Wormer died at his home at 814 Broadway avenue yesterday, after an illness of eight weeks from typhoid fever. He was a married man, 84 years of age, and worked as a watchman on the Burlington road. The announcement of the funeral will be given later.

H. H. Martin, charged with assault and battery in the case of the "Island in Pictures," was discharged yesterday by Judge Justice Burke, who found him guilty of the charge and fined him $10. He gave notice of appeal to the district court and filed the necessary bond.

A portion of the retaining wall and the embankment in front of the Harrison Street school was discovered yesterday to be in danger of giving way and workmen were sent to repair the break before greater damage was inflicted. The trouble is caused by a defective drain pipe.

Rev. Henry DeLong reports that last Friday night a tramp took possession of his barn and neglected to close the door. His horse came out and has not been seen since. Mr. DeLong is so sure that the horse and horse went away together or not, but thinks it barely possible. He reported the matter to the police yesterday.

Rev. J. G. Leonard, manager of the Christian Home, located four little boys in good permanent homes yesterday. Three of them were aged 6 to 10, were placed in a home in Melrose, Kansas, and another boy was sent to a home in Nebraska. Mr. Leonard is proud of the fact that brothers and sisters are never separated at his institution. If he cannot find a home for them together he will not let them leave his care.

The catalogue and premium list of the Western Iowa Poultry, Farm and Garden association was issued yesterday. It is a pamphlet containing nearly 100 pages and shows a large list of valuable prizes offered by the association for the best achievements in fine poultry breeding. In addition there are over 100 special prizes covering a large range of valuable prizes among them an offer by The Bee Publishing company of one year's subscription to The Daily Bee to the woman exhibiting the largest number of birds of any one variety. The annual exhibit of the association will be held in this city, beginning November 29 and continuing until December 4.

PROF. GATES IS LOADED.

Has Plenty of Ammunition to Fire at American Book Company.

LABEL SUIT AGAINST HIM POSTPONED.

If the Complainers Insist Upon Pressing the Matter More Sensational Charges Will Be Made Public.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The libel suit of the American Book company against Professor G. A. Gates of Iowa college will not be disposed of at the present term of federal court, which opened today. President Gates published a pamphlet accusing the book company of corrupting legislators, school officials, etc., and was promptly sued for libel. A motion will be made tomorrow by the attorneys for the defense to dismiss the action, and if it is overruled, a demurrer will be filed by the defense. If this fails, the defense will file a long and highly sensational answer, which is said to involve multitudes of charges much worse than those made in the original pamphlet, supported by affidavits of educators and other people from all over the country.

The mullet law and the pharmacy law of Iowa are said to be the subject of every drugist in the state who sells liquor is liable for payment of the mullet tax. The pharmacy law provides for the issuance of district judges of permits to pharmacists to sell liquor. The law provides a form of permit, and it is charged that the present form of the law requires that a permit be issued for a specific term, whereas the present form of the law requires that a permit be issued for a general term.

Killed by a Car.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—F. C. Randall was struck by an electric street car and instantly killed at 5:15 this evening in front of his residence. The car was driven by one of the city employees. He was a retired pharmacist and prominent citizen. His age was 75.

Iowa News Notes.

There is not a vacant house in the town of Moultrie.
The residence of Ben Butts, at Woodbine, was destroyed by fire last week, loss $1,000.
Anna Hanner, the Red Oak school teacher charged with passing a forged check at a bank, was on second trial, convicted.

Association Formed in Eastern Iowa to Hunt Down the Thieves.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—For some years horse stealing has been almost unknown in Iowa because of the comparative low prices of horses and the impossibility of marketing stolen animals, but within the past year a number of cases of horse stealing have been reported in this county. A number of men have organized an association to hunt down the thieves and to prosecute those who are guilty of the crime.

Defenses Held on the Boards with Its CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Nov. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The defense in the Novak murder trial at Vinton this afternoon sprung at least one surprise when John Stusak, an old employee of Novak's, testified that he and John Dusil went into the ruins on the night following the fire and turned off the valves in the boiler room. The witness testified that he and Dusil were the only ones who saw the fire and that they were the only ones who turned off the valves.

Severe Sentence for Welch.

C. Welch, arrested on East Washington avenue on Monday afternoon, was arraigned before Judge McGee yesterday and fined $50 and ordered confined in the city jail until the fine was paid or the equivalent time was served. While in jail the man will be served with two meals a day of bread and water. Welch is a veteran tramp, who served a sentence here about a year ago and who was cared for by the jail authorities. Toward the end of his sentence he was sent to St. Bernard's hospital for medical treatment. The doctor's report showed that Welch had contracted a severe attack of rheumatism.

Stop! Women!

And Consider the All-Important Fact, That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience in treating women's diseases is greater than that of any living physician—male or female.

When it is revolving to relate your private troubles to a man—besides, a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman, whose knowledge from actual experience is greater than any local physician in the world. The following invitation is freely offered; accept it in the same spirit.

MRS. PINKHAM'S STANDING INVITATION.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the utmost confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America, which has never been broken.

Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has the remedy for your ailment. She has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
