HOLYOKE COLLEGE ANNIVERSARY Four New Bulldings Dedicated with

Appropriate Ceremonies. SOUTH HADLEY, Mass., Nov. 18 .- Mount Holyoke college observed this afternoon its sixth anniversary as an institution for the higher education of women. The new chapel was dedicated and four new dormitories. The four new dormitories were named as follows; Stafford hall and Porter hall, in memory of Deacon Daniel Stifford of Boston and Deacon Andrew A. Porter of Monson, who were Miss Lycus' faithful and efficient helpers in the early years of the institution; Pearson's hall, from the generous benefactor, D. K. Peatson, M. D., of Chicago, and Rockefeller hall, from John D. Rockefeller of New York, who, in addition to previous gifts furnished means to erect the fourth of these halls. An address of welcome was delivered by the president, Mrs. E. S. Mrad. "College Training in Relation to the Problems of Life' was the theme considered by Mrs. Zella Allen Dixon, A. M., librarian of the University of Chicago, at the dedication of Pear-son's hall. Judson Smith delivered an address on the "Services of Mary Lyon in the Cause of the Higher Education of Woman." You can't cure consumption but you can avoid it and cure every other form of throat

They Attempt to Arrest, EMPORIA, Kan., Nov. 18.-A deputy sheriff, a Santa Fc detective and a policeman while attempting to arrest a cattle thief in the postoffice late last evening were all three disarmed by the single man, who es caped. Sheriff Gaughan had received a telegram asking that a man named Kooken be arrested. Deputy Sheriff Fred Wagner, Santa Fe Decective Laws and Policeman Al Ran-dolph went to the postoffice and placed Kooken under arrest while he was reading a letter. "All right," said Kooken, "I'll go with you in a minute, and commenced placing his letter in his pocket. Like a flash, he pulled out a revolver in each hand shoved one into the face of Wagner and coolly said: "Cough up your gun," and almost in the same breath covered the other officers. In almost a moment the three men we're dis-armed. Shoving the pistols into his overcoat pockets, he rushed for the door and disap-

Imparted. NEW YORK, Nov. 18.-The Journal and Advertiser says that J. R. McMurran, formerly of St. Paul, Minn., has filed a suit for $30, 000 damages against Edwin Barbour, formerly of Virginia, and now a Wall street broker. It is alleged that McMurran arranged with Barbour that in return for ad-vance information of the supreme court's decision in the Bell telephone case last May Barbour should buy or sell 1,000 shares of Bell telephone stock, and in the event of a profit give McMurran two-thirds and retin one-third for himself. McMurran alleges that on May 8, 1897, he gave Mr. Barbour the promised information, which, he says, he obtained from one of the clerks of the supreme court. On May 10 the decision was handed down and Bell telephone stock went up. Barbour, McMurran alleges, refused to pany for the "tip," saying he did not use it, Hence the sult. James R. Keene, McMurran says, got the same tip and paid him $10,000
