The Macon Telegraph has been attending the recent sessions of the Woman's club of that city and has heard many of the good vomen "speak their riece." In describing their cratory the Telegraph says: "Their oratory is remarkable because of its close cargoes of American cereais, which recently arrived here, could not be sold, and will be taken to Europe. The steamship Sardinian Prince, which arrived here last week with a cargo of wheat, will sail without unloading it. This refusal of American cereais is due to the fact that Argentina's crop is more than sufficient for home use. Millers refuse to receive foreign grain.
