

THE CURSE OF THE GEYSERS

ARE ITS GLORIES WANNING?

The Geysers of Yellowstone National Park Decreasing in Grandeur.

SOME NOTED SPOUTERS SPOUT NO MORE

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Captain Anderson, who was superintendent of the Yellowstone park from 1883 to 1896, pointed out in his last report to the secretary of the interior that the total number of persons who visited the park in 1896 was only 2,588. He attributed this to financial depression...

No one desires to make a Conroy island of the Yellowstone park, yet there is no reason why it should be made by 50,000 or even 100,000 tourists every summer...

When an educated person hears the name Yellowstone he thinks of the grandest of all parks. The picture of a geyser in every case. True, the park is famed also for its beautifully colored Grand Canyon...

FOUR ARRANGEMENTS FOR NIGHTS. In the upper basin there are about twenty geyser basins...

CAPRICIOUSNESS OF THE GEYSERS. The prevailing opinion of the geysers may be inferred from the fact that the geysers in the Grand Canyon...

OPINION OF THE GEOLOGISTS. Geologists use centuries as yardsticks where we use years, and they discountenance the idea that the Yellowstone geysers will cease to erupt in the very distant future...

NEW SETTLEMENTS IN WASHINGTON. The NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 22 (Special).—During the past summer a large number of families of Hollanders have come to Yakima from Iowa and Michigan...

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES. Hay sold for $12.00 per ton on board the cars in Ellensburg last week.

COLONY PLANS IN COLORADO. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (Special).—At a meeting of the Denver colony located in Montrose county encouraging reports were received of the progress of work there.

LONG DISTANCES BETWEEN SIGHTS. It must be distinctly understood that the great sights of the park are separated by wide stretches of comparatively uninteresting country...

MOB ADMINISTRATORS PUNISHMENT. Severely Chastises a Man the Law Could Not Reach.

ELK POINT, S. D., Nov. 22.—A lynching was narrowly avoided this evening. Ed Sprout, who eloped with a 16-year-old girl, leaving his family in destitute circumstances, was discharged by Justice Smythe, owing to lack of evidence...

Telephone in Black Hills. RAPID CITY, S. D., Nov. 22 (Special).—The Harrison Telephone company has just completed its line between this city and Deadwood and all the intervening points...

Attorney Kirby Disbarred. PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 22 (Special Telegram).—The supreme court this morning handed down a decision written by Judge Henry in the matter of proceeding against Kirby as attorney and counselor at law...

Four Counties Are Late. PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 22 (Special Telegram).—Today is the last day for counties to get returns to the state canvassing board and the counties of Campbell, Buffalo, Brule and Hyde are not yet in.

Losers a Mine. SARATOGA, Wyo., Nov. 22 (Special).—Sir H. Seton Kirk of London has secured a bond and lease of the Golden Eagle mine in the Grand Encampment district...

Investigating the Sinks of Wyoming. LARAMIE, Wyo., Nov. 22 (Special).—Prof. Ridgeway of the State university is engaged in preparing for publication a bulletin on the work of sink analysis of the six sink basins in this state...

The Famous Collection Taken from the Cable Mine in Montana. BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 22 (Special).—While much has recently been written about the collections of gold nuggets long owned by the First National and Merchants National of Helena...

Elk Leaving Yellowstone Park. BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 22 (Special).—Colonel Young's expedition to Yellowstone National park and in command at Fort Yellowstone, declares that there can be no possible excuse for the rumored raid of hunters on Yellowstone park to secure the elk there...

Washington News Notes. Hay sold for $12.00 per ton on board the cars in Ellensburg last week.

Colony Plans in Colorado. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (Special).—At a meeting of the Denver colony located in Montrose county encouraging reports were received of the progress of work there.

Long Distances Between Sights. It must be distinctly understood that the great sights of the park are separated by wide stretches of comparatively uninteresting country...

THE CURSE OF THE GEYSERS

ARE ITS GLORIES WANNING?

SOME NOTED SPOUTERS SPOUT NO MORE

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Captain Anderson, who was superintendent of the Yellowstone park from 1883 to 1896, pointed out in his last report to the secretary of the interior that the total number of persons who visited the park in 1896 was only 2,588. He attributed this to financial depression...

No one desires to make a Conroy island of the Yellowstone park, yet there is no reason why it should be made by 50,000 or even 100,000 tourists every summer...

When an educated person hears the name Yellowstone he thinks of the grandest of all parks. The picture of a geyser in every case. True, the park is famed also for its beautifully colored Grand Canyon...

FOUR ARRANGEMENTS FOR NIGHTS. In the upper basin there are about twenty geyser basins...

CAPRICIOUSNESS OF THE GEYSERS. The prevailing opinion of the geysers may be inferred from the fact that the geysers in the Grand Canyon...

OPINION OF THE GEOLOGISTS. Geologists use centuries as yardsticks where we use years, and they discountenance the idea that the Yellowstone geysers will cease to erupt in the very distant future...

NEW SETTLEMENTS IN WASHINGTON. The NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 22 (Special).—During the past summer a large number of families of Hollanders have come to Yakima from Iowa and Michigan...

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES. Hay sold for $12.00 per ton on board the cars in Ellensburg last week.

Colony Plans in Colorado. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (Special).—At a meeting of the Denver colony located in Montrose county encouraging reports were received of the progress of work there.

Long Distances Between Sights. It must be distinctly understood that the great sights of the park are separated by wide stretches of comparatively uninteresting country...

THE CURSE OF THE GEYSERS

ARE ITS GLORIES WANNING?

SOME NOTED SPOUTERS SPOUT NO MORE

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Captain Anderson, who was superintendent of the Yellowstone park from 1883 to 1896, pointed out in his last report to the secretary of the interior that the total number of persons who visited the park in 1896 was only 2,588. He attributed this to financial depression...

No one desires to make a Conroy island of the Yellowstone park, yet there is no reason why it should be made by 50,000 or even 100,000 tourists every summer...

When an educated person hears the name Yellowstone he thinks of the grandest of all parks. The picture of a geyser in every case. True, the park is famed also for its beautifully colored Grand Canyon...

FOUR ARRANGEMENTS FOR NIGHTS. In the upper basin there are about twenty geyser basins...

CAPRICIOUSNESS OF THE GEYSERS. The prevailing opinion of the geysers may be inferred from the fact that the geysers in the Grand Canyon...

OPINION OF THE GEOLOGISTS. Geologists use centuries as yardsticks where we use years, and they discountenance the idea that the Yellowstone geysers will cease to erupt in the very distant future...

NEW SETTLEMENTS IN WASHINGTON. The NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 22 (Special).—During the past summer a large number of families of Hollanders have come to Yakima from Iowa and Michigan...

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES. Hay sold for $12.00 per ton on board the cars in Ellensburg last week.

Colony Plans in Colorado. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (Special).—At a meeting of the Denver colony located in Montrose county encouraging reports were received of the progress of work there.

Long Distances Between Sights. It must be distinctly understood that the great sights of the park are separated by wide stretches of comparatively uninteresting country...

THE CURSE OF THE GEYSERS

ARE ITS GLORIES WANNING?

SOME NOTED SPOUTERS SPOUT NO MORE

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Captain Anderson, who was superintendent of the Yellowstone park from 1883 to 1896, pointed out in his last report to the secretary of the interior that the total number of persons who visited the park in 1896 was only 2,588. He attributed this to financial depression...

No one desires to make a Conroy island of the Yellowstone park, yet there is no reason why it should be made by 50,000 or even 100,000 tourists every summer...

When an educated person hears the name Yellowstone he thinks of the grandest of all parks. The picture of a geyser in every case. True, the park is famed also for its beautifully colored Grand Canyon...

FOUR ARRANGEMENTS FOR NIGHTS. In the upper basin there are about twenty geyser basins...

CAPRICIOUSNESS OF THE GEYSERS. The prevailing opinion of the geysers may be inferred from the fact that the geysers in the Grand Canyon...

OPINION OF THE GEOLOGISTS. Geologists use centuries as yardsticks where we use years, and they discountenance the idea that the Yellowstone geysers will cease to erupt in the very distant future...

NEW SETTLEMENTS IN WASHINGTON. The NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 22 (Special).—During the past summer a large number of families of Hollanders have come to Yakima from Iowa and Michigan...

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES. Hay sold for $12.00 per ton on board the cars in Ellensburg last week.

Colony Plans in Colorado. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (Special).—At a meeting of the Denver colony located in Montrose county encouraging reports were received of the progress of work there.

Long Distances Between Sights. It must be distinctly understood that the great sights of the park are separated by wide stretches of comparatively uninteresting country...

THE CURSE OF THE GEYSERS

ARE ITS GLORIES WANNING?

SOME NOTED SPOUTERS SPOUT NO MORE

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Captain Anderson, who was superintendent of the Yellowstone park from 1883 to 1896, pointed out in his last report to the secretary of the interior that the total number of persons who visited the park in 1896 was only 2,588. He attributed this to financial depression...

No one desires to make a Conroy island of the Yellowstone park, yet there is no reason why it should be made by 50,000 or even 100,000 tourists every summer...

When an educated person hears the name Yellowstone he thinks of the grandest of all parks. The picture of a geyser in every case. True, the park is famed also for its beautifully colored Grand Canyon...

FOUR ARRANGEMENTS FOR NIGHTS. In the upper basin there are about twenty geyser basins...

CAPRICIOUSNESS OF THE GEYSERS. The prevailing opinion of the geysers may be inferred from the fact that the geysers in the Grand Canyon...

OPINION OF THE GEOLOGISTS. Geologists use centuries as yardsticks where we use years, and they discountenance the idea that the Yellowstone geysers will cease to erupt in the very distant future...

NEW SETTLEMENTS IN WASHINGTON. The NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 22 (Special).—During the past summer a large number of families of Hollanders have come to Yakima from Iowa and Michigan...

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES. Hay sold for $12.00 per ton on board the cars in Ellensburg last week.

Colony Plans in Colorado. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (Special).—At a meeting of the Denver colony located in Montrose county encouraging reports were received of the progress of work there.

Long Distances Between Sights. It must be distinctly understood that the great sights of the park are separated by wide stretches of comparatively uninteresting country...

In the doorway Hunter turned up the next card, which happened to be the king of hearts, and shouted rapturously.

"Hearts are trump, boys, and you'll have to play better cards if you want to stay my run of luck. Where's the chalk? Ah, here it is; picking up a piece of chalk which had been used in a previous game of pinochle.

"This is the morning the sergeant of police looked on, while his men stood behind him. Then he said: 'I thought you fellows were playing poker.'

"Well, I don't know," replied the officer. "He was sitting around to round up a poker game, but I guess I know the difference between that and euchre. You'd better quit, though."

"All right, old man, we'll quit," said Hunter, but it meant a box of cigars to me, because I've got seven times here, throwing down the two hovers, one queen and nine spades. You'll folks have a smoke? "

"They were at odds on many questions," he wrote. "John Swinton, the editor of the New York Sun, reviews many anecdotes of his relations with the late Charles A. Dana."

"Poker is a great educator," remarked an old timer to the Brooklyn Eagle. "It teaches great nerve and presence of mind, and that reminds me of an exhibition of both that came under my observation some time ago."

"It was my deal, and as was the custom, I put up my money for each player in order to avoid trouble with the ante. Hunter had first say and passed the next man opening for a quarter."

"But before you begin work," said the chief, "you must go back to Scotland, where your boyhood was spent, and stay till you have secured your strength."

"You can have it, if you win it," said Hunter, quietly raising again. "Do you think I can't do it? "

"That's another of your bluffs, I guess," said Hunter, looking over his hand again and said: "Go ahead." The crowd which surrounded the table became interested at this point.

"I've got another proposition to make just to show I can't be beaten," said Stone. "I'll take $10 worth of that," replied Hunter, and the $10 were placed in Charles's hands."

"So you quit at last," said Stone. "Well, I've got to quit from one thing. He had a king high straight flush of spades."

"Of course everybody had something to say about the two hands, the like of which had never occurred before in that place. The crowd was so excited that the dealer of the pot, Hunter, picked up the coin and put it in his pocket."

"Cheese it, the hurry up," shouted one of the boys, but before anybody could recover the police were at the back door, and the crowd dispersed.

"It is stated by the newspapers of Gardfield that there are scores of farmers in that neighborhood who have cleared from $3,000 to $5,000 this year on their crops."

As ready as ever to say cynical things, but he never speaks ill of Mr. Dana, and he never fails to read and tear with his most fervent English any one who has a word to say in criticism of the late friend and chief.

The sale of a California mine the other day to an English syndicate for the substantial price of $400,000 is one of many curious instances of a renewed foreign interest in our gold-bearing properties.

Every one cannot go to the Klondike with the transportation charges and the living expenses as they stand, but the vertical tramp who has been to the Klondike to explore for hidden riches.

When he was asked why he had done this Mr. Swinton said:

"That is what Mr. Dana would have said, and when I am in this office I am his first vice."

"It was some time after this that Swinton left the Sun to start 'John Swinton's Paper,' Dana tried to prevent him from going, alike out of regard to Swinton and for the Sun's sake."

"When he was asked why he had done this Mr. Swinton said:

"That is what Mr. Dana would have said, and when I am in this office I am his first vice."

"It was some time after this that Swinton left the Sun to start 'John Swinton's Paper,' Dana tried to prevent him from going, alike out of regard to Swinton and for the Sun's sake."

"When he was asked why he had done this Mr. Swinton said:

"That is what Mr. Dana would have said, and when I am in this office I am his first vice."

"It was some time after this that Swinton left the Sun to start 'John Swinton's Paper,' Dana tried to prevent him from going, alike out of regard to Swinton and for the Sun's sake."

"When he was asked why he had done this Mr. Swinton said:

"That is what Mr. Dana would have said, and when I am in this office I am his first vice."

"It was some time after this that Swinton left the Sun to start 'John Swinton's Paper,' Dana tried to prevent him from going, alike out of regard to Swinton and for the Sun's sake."

"When he was asked why he had done this Mr. Swinton said:

Of mankind—contagious blood poison—claimed as its victim Mr. Frank B. Martin, 926 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., and the usual physician's treatment did him not the slightest good.

After all else failed, was at last found in S. S. S.—the greatest of all blood remedies. Eighteen bottles removed the disease permanently, and left his skin without a blemish.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and is the only blood purifier for the most terrible disease. It is sold by the Searles & Searies Company, Agents, Omaha, Neb.

THE CURSE OF THE GEYSERS

ARE ITS GLORIES WANNING?

SOME NOTED SPOUTERS SPOUT NO MORE

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Captain Anderson, who was superintendent of the Yellowstone park from 1883 to 1896, pointed out in his last report to the secretary of the interior that the total number of persons who visited the park in 1896 was only 2,588. He attributed this to financial depression...

No one desires to make a Conroy island of the Yellowstone park, yet there is no reason why it should be made by 50,000 or even 100,000 tourists every summer...

When an educated person hears the name Yellowstone he thinks of the grandest of all parks. The picture of a geyser in every case. True, the park is famed also for its beautifully colored Grand Canyon...

FOUR ARRANGEMENTS FOR NIGHTS. In the upper basin there are about twenty geyser basins...

CAPRICIOUSNESS OF THE GEYSERS. The prevailing opinion of the geysers may be inferred from the fact that the geysers in the Grand Canyon...

OPINION OF THE GEOLOGISTS. Geologists use centuries as yardsticks where we use years, and they discountenance the idea that the Yellowstone geysers will cease to erupt in the very distant future...

NEW SETTLEMENTS IN WASHINGTON. The NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 22 (Special).—During the past summer a large number of families of Hollanders have come to Yakima from Iowa and Michigan...

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES. Hay sold for $12.00 per ton on board the cars in Ellensburg last week.

Colony Plans in Colorado. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (Special).—At a meeting of the Denver colony located in Montrose county encouraging reports were received of the progress of work there.

In the doorway Hunter turned up the next card, which happened to be the king of hearts, and shouted rapturously.

"Hearts are trump, boys, and you'll have to play better cards if you want to stay my run of luck. Where's the chalk? Ah, here it is; picking up a piece of chalk which had been used in a previous game of pinochle.

"This is the morning the sergeant of police looked on, while his men stood behind him. Then he said: 'I thought you fellows were playing poker.'

"Well, I don't know," replied the officer. "He was sitting around to round up a poker game, but I guess I know the difference between that and euchre. You'd better quit, though."

"All right, old man, we'll quit," said Hunter, but it meant a box of cigars to me, because I've got seven times here, throwing down the two hovers, one queen and nine spades. You'll folks have a smoke? "

"They were at odds on many questions," he wrote. "John Swinton, the editor of the New York Sun, reviews many anecdotes of his relations with the late Charles A. Dana."

"Poker is a great educator," remarked an old timer to the Brooklyn Eagle. "It teaches great nerve and presence of mind, and that reminds me of an exhibition of both that came under my observation some time ago."

"It was my deal, and as was the custom, I put up my money for each player in order to avoid trouble with the ante. Hunter had first say and passed the next man opening for a quarter."

"But before you begin work," said the chief, "you must go back to Scotland, where your boyhood was spent, and stay till you have secured your strength."

"You can have it, if you win it," said Hunter, quietly raising again. "Do you think I can't do it? "

"That's another of your bluffs, I guess," said Hunter, looking over his hand again and said: "Go ahead." The crowd which surrounded the table became interested at this point.

"I've got another proposition to make just to show I can't be beaten," said Stone. "I'll take $10 worth of that," replied Hunter, and the $10 were placed in Charles's hands."

"So you quit at last," said Stone. "Well, I've got to quit from one thing. He had a king high straight flush of spades."

"Of course everybody had something to say about the two hands, the like of which had never occurred before in that place. The crowd was so excited that the dealer of the pot, Hunter, picked up the coin and put it in his pocket."

"Cheese it, the hurry up," shouted one of the boys, but before anybody could recover the police were at the back door, and the crowd dispersed.

"It is stated by the newspapers of Gardfield that there are scores of farmers in that neighborhood who have cleared from $3,000 to $5,000 this year on their crops."

Of mankind—contagious blood poison—claimed as its victim Mr. Frank B. Martin, 926 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., and the usual physician's treatment did him not the slightest good.

After all else failed, was at last found in S. S. S.—the greatest of all blood remedies. Eighteen bottles removed the disease permanently, and left his skin without a blemish.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and is the only blood purifier for the most terrible disease. It is sold by the Searles & Searies Company, Agents, Omaha, Neb.

THE CURSE OF THE GEYSERS

ARE ITS GLORIES WANNING?

SOME NOTED SPOUTERS SPOUT NO MORE

Only Kept Inns and Beer Accommodations Keep Nightmares Away—Beers Common as Dogs—Wild Game.

Captain Anderson, who was superintendent of the Yellowstone park from 1883 to 1896, pointed out in his last report to the secretary of the interior that the total number of persons who visited the park in 1896 was only 2,588. He attributed this to financial depression...

No one desires to make a Conroy island of the Yellowstone park, yet there is no reason why it should be made by 50,000 or even 100,000 tourists every summer...

When an educated person hears the name Yellowstone he thinks of the grandest of all parks. The picture of a geyser in every case. True, the park is famed also for its beautifully colored Grand Canyon...

FOUR ARRANGEMENTS FOR NIGHTS. In the upper basin there are about twenty geyser basins...

CAPRICIOUSNESS OF THE GEYSERS. The prevailing opinion of the geysers may be inferred from the fact that the geysers in the Grand Canyon...

OPINION OF THE GEOLOGISTS. Geologists use centuries as yardsticks where we use years, and they discountenance the idea that the Yellowstone geysers will cease to erupt in the very distant future...

NEW SETTLEMENTS IN WASHINGTON. The NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Nov. 22 (Special).—During the past summer a large number of families of Hollanders have come to Yakima from Iowa and Michigan...

WASHINGTON NEWS NOTES. Hay sold for $12.00 per ton on board the cars in Ellensburg last week.

Colony Plans in Colorado. DENVER, Colo., Nov. 22 (Special).—At a meeting of the Denver colony located in Montrose county encouraging reports were received of the progress of work there.

In the doorway Hunter turned up the next card, which happened to be the king of hearts, and shouted rapturously.

"Hearts are trump, boys, and you'll have to play better cards if you want to stay my run of luck. Where's the chalk? Ah, here it is; picking up a piece of chalk which had been used in a previous game of pinochle.

"This is the morning the sergeant of police looked on, while his men stood behind him. Then he said: 'I thought you fellows were playing poker.'

"Well, I don't know," replied the officer. "He was sitting around to round up a poker game, but I guess I know the difference between that and euchre. You'd better quit, though."

"All right, old man, we'll quit," said Hunter, but it meant a box of cigars to me, because I've got seven times here, throwing down the two hovers, one queen and nine spades. You'll folks have a smoke? "

"They were at odds on many questions," he wrote. "John Swinton, the editor of the New York Sun, reviews many anecdotes of his relations with the late Charles A. Dana."

"Poker is a great educator," remarked an old timer to the Brooklyn Eagle. "It teaches great nerve and presence of mind, and that reminds me of an exhibition of both that came under my observation some time ago."

"It was my deal, and as was the custom, I put up my money for each player in order to avoid trouble with the ante. Hunter had first say and passed the next man opening for a quarter."

"But before you begin work," said the chief, "you must go back to Scotland, where your boyhood was spent, and stay till you have secured your strength."

"You can have it, if you win it," said Hunter, quietly raising again. "Do you think I can't do it? "

"That's another of your bluffs, I guess," said Hunter, looking over his hand again and said: "Go ahead." The crowd which surrounded the table became interested at this point.

"I've got another proposition to make just to show I can't be beaten," said Stone. "I'll take $10 worth of that," replied Hunter, and the $10 were placed in Charles's hands."

"So you quit at last," said Stone. "Well, I've got to quit from one thing. He had a king high straight flush of spades."

"Of course everybody had something to say about the two hands, the like of which had never occurred before in that place. The crowd was so excited that the dealer of the pot, Hunter, picked up the coin and put it in his pocket."

"Cheese it, the hurry up," shouted one of the boys, but