Cedar Rapids Republican: Iowa has all ways been poor soll for populism. Time and again have the cheap money men lined up in this state, but always to meet defrat. Once in a while they carried a congressional district or two; but that was all. If White, Waish, Stuart & Co. want to try it again, well and good. Let them come on. With the cheap money the issue in 1898, every congressional district in Iowa will be safe for the republicans, and more counties will be carried by the sound money people than upon any other issue that could be presented.
