ORDER OF THE COURT.

Until the further order of this court a restraining order is allowed, restraining the said defendants, Pennk E. Moores,

Robert E. L. Herdman, D. D.

Gregory, J. H. Penbody, W. C.

Bullard, W. J. Welshans, and the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners of the city of Omaha.

and each of them, their agents, servants and employes, from soliciting, advising or instructing any person, partnership or corporation that the said World-

Herald newspapers are the proper newspapers in which to insert the liquor notices, or from doing any act or thing to prevent, hinder or delay any person, partnership or corporation from advertising in the plaintiff's newspaper (The Omaha Evening Bee), as by the terms of said resolution is contemplated, or from in any manner carrying out the said reso-

NOTICE OF WARNING.

The law under which liquor licenses and druggists' permits are granted requires applicants for the same to publish notices of their applications for

Omaha Evening Bee is the paper baying the largest circulation in Douglas county, and that to comply with the law they must publish their notices in that paper. No resolution adopted deprive it of its rights or be binding upon any liquor dealer or druggist.

Evening Bee will insist upon its legal rights as the paper having the largest circulation in Douglas county by and that persons who disregard the tion for liquor licenses or druggists'

Omaha Evening Bee do so at their PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Millard

are in Omaha,

at the Parker.

Sunday at the Barker.

of Lincoln is a Barker guest.

Chicago, can be found at the Barker.

ompany are quartered at the Batker.

brough the east on Sunday morning.

At the Millard: S. Grauswan, New York:

William Bach, Hastings; A. Lumbach, Hastings; R. F. Van Kueren, Fort Dodge; A. J. Sherrard, New York; J. C. Work, Aurora;

f. S. Louisberg, Loomis, Nob.: E. W. Archer, Phiologi, S. P. Tho p. New York, M. P. Green,

Sioux City; M. Storer, Des Moines; T. W. Holmes, E. D. Procter, John D. Stewart,

R. M. Seeley, Des Moines; J. J. Richardson Davenport; W. H. Hamilton, Creston, Ia.

Nebraskans at the hotels: C. C. Boyle

Beatrice: C. E. Middlekauff, Wausa: D. O.

Griffin Tekamah: J. H. Robinson, Litchfield; E. H. Robinson, Hazard; Perry Moss,

Charles Frazier, Madison; G. W. Fox, E. A look, Lexington.

gent of the Union Pacific, is a city visitor.

the Millard.

Sam

lution in the letter or spirit.

SONGS AND EULOGIES FOR THE DEPARTED

Eloquent Speakers and Sweet Singers Lay the Tribute of Their Gifts on the Shrine of Those They Mourn.

With wreaths of exquisite music and bouquent culogium and pearls of remembrance the Elks of Omaha yesterday afternoon decorated and adorned the memory of the brethren who in past years have departed from was caught under the wheel and the earthly lodge room to live forever bethe earthly lodge room to live forever bethe earthly lodge room to live forever bethe earthly lodge room to live forever betrushed. He was also injured in the chest and close to Sherman avenue will be trushed. He was also injured in the chest clustered its picturesque group of domes, second wheel reached him and was taken to the Clarkson Memorial hospital. He lived and streamers. The first of its buildings is a they assembled, as Elks all over the country

The memorial services were held in Boyd's theater and that capacious auditorium was none too large to hold the attendance. Alto the right and left, and behind them were assembled hundreds of the people of the city who had accepted the invitation to join in

The program was commenced with the usual impressive opening ceremonies of the ledge of sorrow. Interspersed with there ceremonies and following them came the musical relections and the two eulogiums. Both were delivered by nonresider ts—one by Zack Phelps of the Louisville (Ky.) todge and the other by Rev. John Wesley Geiger of the Cedar Rapids (Ia.) lodge.

Mr. Phelps eulogized the principles of his order-s exemplified in the lives of the members of the herd who had been stricken by the dark huntsman, "even as they roamed in the grean meadows of charity, justice and brotherly love, with hearts overflowing with

The unobtrusive help of the Elks wounds the pride of no man," he said. "It is less conspicuous than the gentle shower which paints a rainbow of beauty is it falls. It is the benevolence which droppeth like the gertle dew from heaven in the stillners the night. It makes no proclamation of kindly deeds on the street corres, nor does the noisy trumpet of appliance berald the fire that a wound has been healed or some neal, brother relieved. Every true Elk is move with sympathy for that misfortune wal ho recognizes as the common lot of ma against which no talent, no rank, no west no goodness insures immunity. But wh is death? It is said in holy writ that bright hereafter the grand exalted rul of the universe will wipe away all tears a surely heal all wounds. But what of the pain, the suffering and the misery while comes to the widows and orphans in this life? We cannot cure, but can comfort and cheer and can scatter along the roadw which they travel some flowers to bright can brush aside some thorns o thistles from their path and make it cost

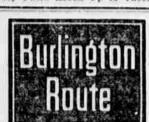

HOPE NOW AND LOVE HEREAFTER. "Well may we lament the loss of ou companions, but with reverence we my paraphrase the words of inspiration and say: Blessed are the dead who loved their fellowing, for the warks shall follow thein Dear departed friends, we will not say face well. Shall we not rather 'in some brighter clime bid you good morning?' When we see about us acts of love, can we but be-lieve that our lives without a future would be but an unfinished tragedy? Love, even in this life, is immortal, and thus are we consoled with the hope that it will en dure until it is merged in a nobler life to come. Oh, you vacant chairs, dearly beloved and honored were those whose forms you once held and whose absence we lament today. How much brighter shall they appear when they greet their old companions on the Elysian meadows; and who of us, I worder will so live that we may meet and gree

"Need I hold up to you your memorial tablet and let you look with tearful eyes upon the names of those you have lost? Had they faults? If so, write them upon the sands, that they may soon be washed away and never seen again. Had they virtues Write them upon the everlasting tablets of love and memory and learn from them th lesson that any virtues you may have will live in the hearts of your brothers forever. But the memorial tablet upon your lodge room wall is not yet full. Whose name will go there next? Will it be yours? Truly, brothers, 'in the midst of life we are in We are doing deeds each day which a record is kept. We are making for ourselves history and heaven grant that may all fearlessly and hopefully look to th history which shall be written for us by the recording angel above. Rev. Mr. Geiger said those who had departed were but an addition to the royal ones who have run their course and wrapped their robes about them and lay low in al-God is not an angry father in pursuit of his children and those who have died are simply gathered back into their home. Neither is death a horrid beast stalking up and down ready to grasp all, but rather a mother who is craping her children to her arms and putting them into their cradles. No one cares to die, but since die we must, men ould die like heroes and death should be made no more conspicuous than laughing or eating. If one's record can bear the inspec-tion of one's conscience no one need have any terror.

HOW TO DIE. "There is room for all to smile and to reach out and touch the hand of his fellow-man," he said. "When one falls out the ranks should be closed again and go on and do good as opportunity offered. Live so that it can be said. This man was not much of this world's goods, but as much as he was to was of good and full measurement and of good stuff. In spite of his cloth he was

'Departed brethren, bless you," continued peaker. "You cannot come to us and once want to go to you sooner than we But when we must go, don't let us like slaves, but like men. Thus living us live; dead, may we not cease to exbut let our memory be cherished as psake to guide the living to the end. quartette consisting of Miss Terry, Mrs. Edwards, Mr. Wilbur and Mr. Tucker ren-dered Buck's "Rock of Ages" and Marston's "I'm a Pilgrim, I'm a Stranger." Miss Terry and Mrs. Edwards sang a duet, Lachmer's "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." Miss

In a Tourist Sleeping Car

Personally conducted-via the Burlington Route. That's the way to go to California. Cheap, quick. comfortable.

Leave Omaha 4:35 every Thursday afternoon. Arrive in San Francisco following Sunday; Los Angeles Monday. No transfers.

Particulars at TICKET OFFICE,

> 1502 Farnam St., Omaha. J. B. REYNOLDS, C. P. A.

Heilig rendered a solo, "The Good Shepherd," and Miss Terry another, "Shepard's "Lead Kindly Light." The prayers and readings were pronounced by Rev. T. J. Mackay. In conclusion the Doxology was sung, in which the audience Joined.

CRUSHES ALLEN P. MOFFIT'S HEAD.

Traveling Man Falls Directly Under

Car Wheels. Allers P. Moffit met with an accident on a street car jast night that resulted in his death. He was on a South Omaha car going wouth and had reached Thirteenth and California streets. At this point the cars cross the railroad tracks, and when the accident occurred the conductor had gone ahead according to custom to see that the crossing was safe. Moffit was sitting on the rear quets of beautiful prayer, with gems of elo- platform of the front car, when it is thought his hat was blown off and fell to the ground. Moffit was seen to reach suddenly backward as though to regain it, when a lurch of the very gate to the exposition's amusement car threw him between the cars. His head quarter. Just to the left of the main viaonly for a few minutes and died at 6:30

There were eight peop's in the car at the time of the accident, only two of whom saw gold. Towering above this building and the occurrence. One wis C. E. Barnard of forming the further side of an open court most the entire membership of Omaha lodge was scated in the front rows of seats and to the right and left, and behind them were to the right and left, and behind them were client other than Mofilt's own carelessness, voning court, with its frivolous little open-The train was in charge of Conductor Ed- air theater, will be a veritable tropical garward Updike and Motorman J. J. Mead, neither of whom wes arrested. They state that there was no unusual lurch suf-

> Moffit was about 25 years old and unmarried. He was a salesman for the Genesez Pure Food company of Leroy, N. Y., and Pure Food company of Leroy, N. Y., and Mo rish Mecros. Next beyond this will be has lived in Omaha for two years. He bearded a Moorish house, correct in all its details, at the Franklin flat, Eighteenth and C pitol both interior and exterior. Then come groups avenue. His former home was in Eric, Pa. of shops, gay with eastern rugs and metal where his parents now reside. His fother.

Mr. Monabin, a traveling man, who boards shut from his view and to his ears will come at the Millard hotel, says that Mofflit was an intimate friend of his and that he was an intimate friend of his and that he was Streets of Cairo beyond. Two other large licenses or druggists' permits that The held in the highest regard by his acquaint-ances in this city. He says that Moffit spent Saturday evening with him at the hotel and

W. E. Smith, barkeeper at the Dellone hotel, later appeared as in immediate wir-ness of the occurrence. He says that Momit list having been sent abread by the minager

Northwestern Salesmen Will Meet in ard Oil company in the northwest will hold days at the Millard hotel. The first session will be held this morning. The object of the gathering is to discuss a number of business ropositions which have arisen in this secon of the country.

The first comers to the meeting arrived in the city yesterday, but the majority are ex-pected today. It is anticipated that about eighty will be in attendance, They will rep-cesent the interests of the oil company in the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Neraska, Karsus and the Dakotas. While they me primarily on business they will probbly arrange a bacquet to wind up the meet

The meeting will be under the direction of J. Drake, general manager of the oil ompany of the northwest, who is expected this morning. Other munagers already here are Seth Drake of Sioux City, M. A. Stress and unusual nature.

The Pueblo Indians are among the semi-city and R. C. Smith of Aberdeen. Among civilized of the North American tribes. Many Dr. he salesmen who have arrived are the following, M. B. Green, J. A. Gheen and A. V. Weidel of Sioux City; F. W. Holmes, E. D. Proctor, John D. Stewart and R. M. Seeley of Des Meines; J. J. Richardson of Davenport, W. H. Hamilin of Creston, Ia., R. F. Van Keuren of Fort Dodge, P. J. Beale of Eagle Grove, Ia.

The managers and salesmen have no regiar organization, but meet usually once a year to talk over business matters. The secting have already been held, but the con-

THE PUZZLE CLUB.

The offer of prizes for the best original uzzles is open to readers of the Puzzle Club wherever it is found. Send in your list, addressed to Puzzle Editor, Omaha 32-RIDDLE. When the yellow jack was raging When the yellow jack was raging About a month or two ago, A stranger fell ill, in a village As sometimes happens, you know, And the people, as foolish as could be, Thought the man had yellow jack; And everyone left the village With as much as he could pack, But the stranger was ill but slightly, And was up and about next day. What famous and much-read poem Was the village like, I pray?

33-ACROSTIC. NOTLIH. 1. A kind of best much used in Venice.

To take out 3. A severe scrutiny, 4. A owing or sailing tournament, 5. A place there plants and vegetables are grown, 6. Inlawful, 7. The dawning of light.

The primals, reading downward, spell one f the United States, while the finals spell a capital.

PANSY BLOSSOM.

34-DIAMOND. 1 A consonant, 2 A popular English drink, 2 Surfaces, 4 In an open and plain nanner, 5, In good season or at an oppor-une time, 6, Crafty and stealthy, 7, A let-

35-DECAPITATION. "You see it wuz dis way, yer honor," said Hungry Hank, in giving his account of the scrap—"me an' him wuz playin' wid de dice, an' when I won he called me a ONE. Ye see, I can't stand dis, an' so I tells him I'll make him THREE dose words, an' FOUR him I goes. We wuz havin' it nin and tuck, yer honor, wen in de TWO uy de argyment 'long comes a big cop an' chases us off to de lockup. I knows I wuz gullty uv fightin' yer honor, but yer knows a gent can't stand no 'sinuations agin his henesty, an' I hopes you'll let me off light dis time,"

36-SQUARE. 1. To flicker or give an unsteady light. Part of a coat, 3. A popular fruit, 4. A keepsake or memento, 5. To choose. 37-ENIGMA.

My first is in "cbime" but not in "bell,"
My second is in "hill" but not in "dell,"
My second is in "hill" but not in "dell,"
My third is in "ore" but not in "dead,"
My fourth is in "kill but not in "dead,"
My fifth is in "sun" but not in "moon,"
My sixth is in "shuttle" but not in "loom;
My seventh is in "money" but not in "gold,
My eighth is in "sell" but not in "sold."
My minth is in "list" but not in "roll."
My WHOLE is coming while the days are My ninth is in "list" but not an analy My WHOLE is coming while the days are PANSY BLOSSOM.

38-MONOPHONE. As Lady Gwendoline Fitzallee gazed on the glaring tournament and saw the men anh horsest ONE, against each other like wild beasts—as she heard the clash of arms and the cries of pain—she TWO the poor knights ewho had fallen and were being trampled under foot. She was more than deligated, however, when Sir Richard De Vaux, who had been loudly proclaimed the victor, named her as the Oueen of Love and Beauty. had been loudly proclaimed the victor named her as the Queen of Love and Beauty

39-CHARADE. "Oh, look at de roosier wit' TWOS on hi Cried little M. y Magee; "How I wish! I wuz mine an' I'd rake h

Down at the ten-cent musee." Wor's dat? Dey ain't TWOS? Only spurs did you say?
"Dey're TWOS!" cried Micky Magee;
"Day's de reason dey calls him a TOTAL,
you jay!
Only spairs! Oh, hully gee!"
ELLSWORTH.

Last we k's answers:

24 - Pa-nora-ma, panorama,

WORST

ORATE

RAVEL

STEAL

TELLS

THELLS

Stable, table, able, Bland, land, and, Blink, link, Splash, plash, lash, as.,

23 - Quarantine,

P

29-Rill, hill, tall, fill,

Exposition Amusement Features Will Have Much of Interest.

MOORS AND MCQUIS ON THE MIDWAY

Villages Which Will Represent Two Quaint Types of Humanity and Their Peculiar Customs in Detailed Fidelity.

Among the largest and most pretentious of the amusement features of the Midway of the Transmississippi Exposition will be the Moorish village. This concession will be the quarter. Just to the left of the main viaduct and close to Sherman avenue will be low structure with two dome-capped towers in staff, gilded and made to resemble repousse den, masked from the public street by a double colonnade of Moorish arches, roofed with tile. In the palace itself, travelers and ficient to unseat a passenger under ordinary conditions.

with the in the passenger will recognize much students of architecture will recognize much of the beautiful and well known detail from the passenger under ordinary conditions. the Albambra and other familiar monument of Granada, with bits from Cordova and other where his parents now reside. His fother, who is a banker, was notified of his son's death by the coroner, who is in charge of the death by the coroner.

buildings and more shops will complete this interesting ensemble.

The attractions of the Moorish Village aside from its exterior, will be many and varied. In the first building several optical iliusions will be shown, a capable illusion ell in an endeavor to cross from one car to of the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. In the concession to select and secure the latest and best features in this line. STANDARD OIL MEN GET TOGETHER. bistory, art, science, the drama, poetry and fiction, together with a "chamber of hor rors" and a "devil's cave." Beyond the palace oriental merchants will offer the be The marrigers and salesmen of the Stand- products of their countries, and in some the shoes will be seen artisons engaged and Oil company in the northwest will hold magnificaturing the articles with which they a meeting in this city during the next two hope to secure the odd dimes of the curious In the last building will be installed the 'Moorish Mystic Maze," a confusing, intri cate and elaborate arrangement of mirrors, where the bewildered visitor may see himself in all places, on all sides, and in all directions; where, walking in any direction he pleases he will see crowds of himsel walking in any direction approaching, scores of himself going away, and dozens of himself walking with him, t is promised that many entirely novel for-

SNAKE DANCE PROMISED. One of the concessions on the Midway of the Transmississippi Exposition will be an Indian village, which will be inhabited by representatives of four tribes of Pueblo Indians. This concession has been awarded to J. E. Saint of Albuquerque, N. M., who of their rites and ceremonies are performed in the same manner and for the same pur-poses that governed their performance before the white man set foot on this continent. Among the tribes which Mr. Soint says he will have in his village are the Moquis, on: of the mildest and least offensive of all. Some of the ceremonies of this tribe are bloodand none more so than the far-famed snake dance. This is one of the most sacred re-ligious rites of the Moquis Indians and is performed with the greatest pomp and cere-mony. It is a solemn celebration, intended to propitiate the god of roin and induce him to send refreshing showers on the parche ties that he has made arrangements by which his dance will be presented at the exposition. He says he has secured a number of members of the tribe who will go through the performance in all its details.

COMMISSION FROM NEW MEXICO. L. Bradford Prince Elected President at Its Meeting.

Hon. L. Bradford Prince of New Mexico writes to the Department of Publicity that the commission from that te ritory has organized, and last week held a two days wassion at Sante Fe. Organization was ef ected by electing L. Bradford Prince president, T. J. Curran secretary and S. H. Day The matter of making an exhibit was thoroughly discussed, and it was decided that at least 4,000 square feet would be needed. On this topic the following resolution was adopted:

Resolvid, That this commission is desirous of making an exhibit at Omaha, as be beeded. On this topic the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this commission is desirous of making an exhibit at Omaha, as complete and satisfactory as the small means at command wiil permit, and will use every exertion to that end; that an imperfect and incomplete exhibit will be satisfactory neither to the exposition authorities, nor to the people of New Mexica, and in fact will be injurious to the territiry instead of beneficial; that in consideration of the small sum at our disposal, it is necessary to concentrate the territorial exhibit and confine it to the following departments: Mineral, articultural, including the sugar beet, wool and canaigre industries, horticultural, historical and educational; that the smallest possible amount of space required for these exhibits is as follows: Mineral, 2,000 square feet; agricultural, 1,000 square feet; historical and educational, 500 square feet, and chicken device feet, historical and educational, 500 square feet, and chicken devi

TO CURE COLD IN ONE DAY Take Laxitive Bromo Quinine Tablets. All drugglets refund the money if it falls to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet. Pass it around, Toursday evening, December 9. Omaha's charming ladies' only original minstrels, at Boyd's. Benefit Children's orphanage Union Pacific. "The Overland Limited." The most SUPERBLY EQUIPPED rein west of the Missouri river.

Twelve hours quicker than any other train Call at Ticket Office, 1302 Farnam St. The greatest and best entertainment of the ear. Omaha's fair ladies as minstrels, colored in the highest art, with miny new and original specialties, at Boyd's Thursday evening, December 9. Regular prices. Proceeds for benefit of Children's orphanage. The treat of the season. Omaha's lady minstrels at Boyd's Thursday evening, Decem-ber 9. Proceeds go to Children's Orphanige A house occupied by Libble Dean at Ninth and Capitol avenue was partially consumed by fire last night. The blaze caught from a defective flue and the roof in the front part of the house was burned off. The building was two stories high and was in a dilapidated condition. It is the property of a farmer named Peterson and the damage done amounted to $150.

BEYOND THE SERIOUS SIDE Liouar Dealers and Druggists HIGH TIDE AT THE LIBRARY

Popular Use of the Public Books is Growing Rapidly.

GREAT INCREASE IN ITS PATRONAG

Omnha People Rending More and Visiting the Rooms More Thun Ever_Some Figures the Subject.

It is a fact that the residents of this cit are more and more coming to be a boo reading and a well-informed class of people It is known that the citizens of Nebraska at the least illiterate of those in any state an it may soon be said that the average ; Omaha's intelligence ranks higher than that of any city. An indication of this is found in the monthly reports of the Omaha Public library, which show a creditable patronage i proportion to the inhabitants of the city. I comparison with the corresponding week last year the record of last month's business shows a heavy increase. With the adults a membership in the library seems to have be come as much a matter of course as an come as much a matter of course as any other household necessity, and to the children library is only second to the public The number of books borrowed in the library proper last month shows an increase over November, a year ago, of 15 per cent while in the children's department the pervery definite reason can be given for this centage of increase is over 23 per cent. very definite reason can be given for this sur prisingly increased use of the library. It has been laid to better times, making it possible for the public to give more time to literature and to articles in The Bee setting forth more clearly the resources of the great book ex-change. The increase in the children's detwo weeks in the newspaper having partment may be partly accounted for by the and better arrangements for their care. The Notice is hereby served upon all per-sons intending to apply for liquor librarian's report made last week, show a emparison of figures of the home circulation

	9796	18.382	Average per day, 765 694
Increase .		-	71
Juvenile de November, 18	partment: 97 96	6,150
Ingresses		1.184	20

departments. A popular feature was added last month in placing all the magazines subscribed for by the library on the tables within ready reach. The list numbers 101 end many magazines show evidence of being read now which were often pever touched when it was mecessary to refer to the cata egue and apply for them at the desk. An attendant keeps a careful account ors at the reading room and finds the com parative figures last month to be as fol permits in an; paper other than The

The attendance in the reference room and that of the Byron Reed collection is shown D. W. Gilliland of Fremont is in the city. F. A. Crossman of Boston is at the Mil-ard. ings of the former room. 'New cases have been provided for public documents, such as C. W. Merrill of San Francisco is a Millard the Congressional Record and patent office reports. The geneological library will be W. A. Bennett of Chicago is stopping at the housed in new cases given over branch of investigation. The in Dr. E. Codeny and daughter of Neligh! these departments is as follows: J. M. Pollock of Chicago is registered at Reference room:

Visitors. J. Q. Connor, Nebraska City, is registered November, 1897,..... 2,345 November, 1896,..... 1,924 T. D. Rice and wife of Kansas City spen Byron Reed collection: Deputy United States Marshal Alf S. Cooley Visitors, Books 13 V. Morrow, superictendent Armour & Co., Hutchison, traveling passenger

The figures given show the library to be Frank E. Rhoads, musical director, and at the high water mark of its usefulness sixteen members of the "Hogan's Alley" The uniform, heavy increase in the world The uniform, heavy increase in the work dene in all departments is making necessary a number of additions. Last Thursday twenty-eight new chairs were placed in the Ex-Governor Crounse and the Misses rounse returned from an extended trip study rooms and children's reading room, and other enlargements will probably have to be made. The fact of an ncreased daily attendence of 158 in all departments over last year indicate the tax of the library facilities and the heavier duti of the attendants. Arnold's Bromo Cetery cures headaches 10c, 25c and 50c. All druggists.

Palmer House, Grand Isl'nd, Nat Brown, pro-Make no engagements for Thursday even ing, December 9. Lady minstrels that night at Boyd's. Home talent, Omaha's best peo ple. Benefit Children's orphanage.

of chyrsarthemums for sale in 7, 8 and inch pots, in bloom and buds. 1813 Vinto st. Tel. 776, Personally Conducted Excursions VIA UNION PACIFIC.

It is easy to catch a cold and just as easy to get rid of it if you commence early to respondingly fast time to Southern Califor One Minute Cough Cure. It curcs nia. Twelve hours quicker than any other Personally Conducted Excursion Route from coughs, colds, bromchitis, pneumonia and all throat and lung troubles. It is pleasant to Missouri river City Ticket Office, 1302 Farnam Street.

A Triumphant Glothing Sale

The entire remaining winter stocks purchased by us from Ab. Kirschbaum &Co., of Philadelphia and L. Loewenstein & Sons, Chi-

At 60c on the Dollar of the cost to manufacture, are being disposed of with a much greater rush than anticipated.

Our 3 Big Attractions

In men'sfine all wool cheviots, cassimere and worsted suits.

$4.50, 6,75, 11,75 Our 4 big values in Men's Fine Dress Over coats and Storm Ulsters, $4.50, $6.50, $10, $12.50 It pays to trade at the Big Store.

Hayden Brothers.

Smoking Coats.

. . . A New Line . . .

We've changed the name of smoking jackets. Changed the prices too. The garments that are being sold around Omaha at twelve dollars under the name of Smoking Jackets will be sold here as smoking coats at six dollars and a half. They are the same clothes. If you prefer to go by the old name and pay the old prices we have nothing to say. We will sell you a beautiful Mohair coat with satin trimmings and satinquilted facings for four seventy-five. We will sell you a handsome Cashmere coat trimined with finest satin for four dollars. We will sell you a fine all-wool tweed coat with fancy braiding for three seventy-five. This line of goods is new to us but we have found out two things about them already. One thing is that they can be sold with a profit fo half the usual prices, and another is that it doesn't take people long to find it out.

IN PICTURES

PART X

FOR DISTRIBUTION.

Bring 10 cents to The Bee office, either in Omaha or Council Bluffs Mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in coin.

DON'T FREEZE.

Remember the Roaches don't freeze in vinter-and now is the best time to catch hem. Any one who his used the Decoy Roach Trap shown above will tell you it is the test thing ever devised for "Getting Rid" of Roaches. Price, 25c For sale by 1513 Dodge St., Omaha, Neb.

Ball-

Recognizing the superior qualities of this machine, the Transmississippi Exposition have adopted it exclusively. Embodies best points of all other machines Embodies best points of all other machines and has many features distinctively its own.

UNITED TYPEWRITER AND SUPPLIES CO., 1612 Farnam St., Omaha. 206 5th St., Des Moines, In.

Let Live."

KODAKS CAMERAS Make Valuable

Christmas Gifts. The annual family gathering at the children's Christmas tree, groups of friends gathered to pass a winter's evening—all make delightful indoor subjects for winter Kodaking, while the fields and trees in snowy garb make quite as beautiful subjects for outdoor work as do the green groves and meadows or summer.

Put a Kodak on Your Christmas List. 84.00 to $25.00.

The new Kodaks all take our Light-Proof Film Cartridges and can be LOADED IN DAYLIGHT The Diamond Camera at $5.00 is a fine instrument. Mail orders solicited, Catalogue free, THE ALOE & PENFOLD CO.,

PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES.

The SHEPARD

NEW YORK LIZE OMAHA

CATARRH and ALL CURABLE CHRONIC DISEASES.

Send or call for Dr. Shepard's book, 'The New Treatment: How it Cures.' Hundreds of Omaha references. Con-

Owen Moore Than He Could Pay; Owen Moore Come Back Again, Owen Moore.

Owen Moore, He Went Away,

This pathetic story was taken from "History of Ancient Greece." The story of modern times has changed it to "Owen Little."

Cash for merchandise and merchandise for cash is an essential factor in successful store keeping nowadays, for two reasons, if not

First_One loses in bad accounts, where, naturally, some innocent

Second-It places a merchant on an independent basis with the This is a cash store, buying as well as selling. No "Owen" here, consequently you are neither directly, or indirectly, paying for merchant and customer. You will find things chesper here, because we face the market with independence and ask no odds. So are other cash merchants, for that matter. And then, we claim that our goods are cheaper, in price. Not that we are buying geniuses and able to hypnotize the Statue of Liberty, makes goods cost so much less. Again, we are not greedy and selfish enough to swallow the earth. Living profits is good enough. We are young and ambitious. We believe in that good maxim, "Live and