THEIR SECOND ANNUAL PUBLIC RECEPTION

With Music, Speeches and Conversa tion the Evening Passes Pleasantly Awny Several Events of a Social Nature.

Eearly last evening between 200 and 300 of the members of the Omaha Baptist Social union and their friends gathered in the parlors of the Commercial club to enjoy and participate in the second annual public reception of that organization. Representatives at from all the American Baptist churches in the city were present and in the audience was also a fair sprinkling of the members of the German and Danish congregations The opening hour was in the nature of cocial reception. Following this was ren dered a program of music, song, recitation and addresses. The entire reception and entertainment was under charge of L. D. Holmes, the president of the union.

The program was opened with a piano solo, which was excellently played by Miss Bertha Higgins. J. R. Thompson followed with a number of enjoyable character sketches. These numbers preceded one of the addresses of the evening, which was de-livered by Rev. C. W. Brinstad of Fremont. His subject was "Denominational Strength." Rev. Brinstad insisted that Baptists could only make strong their creed and denomina-tion by grasping firmly their principles and maintaining them at all hazards. One of these principles was that the church was authority of all faith and practice. Another was that the constituency of the church should be composed only of regenerate mem-In the past a wide difference had separated the Baptists and other denominations but this was vanishing from the fact that the latter were learning that the former were right in the principles which bound them together. As the necessary means of securing strength as a denomination, Rev. Brinstad asserted that the rank and file of the church must believe what they know and know what they believe.

Miss Hattie Dodge followed with a recitation, "Mary, Queen of Scots," which she de-livered with considerable effect. Miss Dora Swearingen and Mr. C. E. Johnson sang a net which called forth much applause. The final number on the program was an address, delivered by Rev. C. H. Strickland of the First Baptist church of Sloux City. His was "Christ the Comparable Preacher and Teacher."

speaker gave quite an exhaustive an alysis of the Savior's career as a teacher of the common people. He described him as being popular and the causes for this he to be his truth, his fullness of symlives of the multitude an inspiration to be something better, nobler and higher than they had dreamed of before. Teachers of the modern day, the preacher concluded, must follow the lines set out by Christ to be sucessful, either in the pulpit, in the mission or in the school.

Last evening at the Hayden annex the Derthick club held another of its meetings. The program was devoted to Schumann and was conducted by Mrs. Howard Kennedy, jr. Miss Kimball read the characterization and Miss Van Gicson the analysis. The program was decidedly interesting. The first number was a song entitled "Spring Night," sung by Mirs Gertrude Kountze. Mrs. Leslie Potter played the "Novelette in F;" Mrs. G. W. Johnston sang "Thou Ring Ure. Johnston sang "Thou Ring Upon My Finger" and Miss Laura Van Kuran closed the evening's entertainment with the song, "Moon-light." The next meeting will be held two weeks from last night.

plano recital given by the pupils of Mies Rachel Wilson attracted a large juvenile audience together with their elders at the Castellar Presbyterian church last night. The program was pleasantly interspersed both vocal and instrumental, showed unusual excellence for such youthful performers. Among those who took part were Miss Nellie Wright, Grace Welshans, Josie Parkins, George Laubeck, George Long, Maud Cloud and Mertie Cloud, Nellie Brown, Miss uders, Nellie Horn, Edna Brunning and Minnie Brinholt, Among the adults who assisted in the entertainment were Miss Rachel Wilson, Mrs. J. W. Koopman and Mr. J. W. Koopman,

The seventeenth annual ball of Bricklayers union No. 1 was given in the Thurston Rifles armory last night. The ball was well filled with the members of the craft and their women friends. The evening was occupied with a long list of dances, with a recess for refreshments. The croceeds of the affair were devoted to the treasury of the Brick-layers' union. The committee in charge was composed of the following: J. H. Withnell, Charles McCall, Bert Booth, Frank Withnell, Frank Gardner, B. E. Griffith, Anton Prusha, R. P. Anderson, Richard Morris, L. F. Shrum and George Clark.

Silent Cosmos Club.

The club met on last Friday evening with Mr, and Mrs, Gillespie, at Fort Omaha, with Mr, and Mrs, Gillespie, at Fort Omaha, Miss Eleanore Cornish gave a short sketch of the life of William Shakespeare, whose spoke on the wisdom of having an organization where the deaf could meet for discussions and social intercourse and as it is one of the club's purposes to capture the national convention for the deaf for Omaha for the summer, he thought the club could not do better than to labor together for one or any object.

Then Mr. Comp spoke at some length, on President McKinley's message. In response to a call for a speech, Mrs, Gillespie gave a short sketch of each of the members as they appeared for the first time at the Nebraska School for the Deaf, and in her usual teasing strain she told of some reminiscences which she thought were too good to keep.
Then all repaired to the kitchen, where Iniscences which she thought were too good to keep.

Then all repaired to the kitchen, where fun in tarry-pulling was prevalent. Dancing was indulged in later on. At a late hour the visitors turned their thoughts homeward, after having tendered their host and hostess a vote of thanks for the cordial reception given them. The next meeting will take place at the home of Miss Stella K. Forbes, 1832 North Eighteenih street, Friday evening. December 17.

FOUND AT LAST.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR ALL FORMS OF CATABRIL.

Free Yourself from This Louthsom

Disease. To say that a remedy has at last beer found for the positive cure of all forms of Catarrh is a bold assertion, but when a remedy stands a fifteen-year test and cures thousands of cases, it is sufficient evidence to back up such claims.

Dr. Roberts, the eminent specialist and one of the foremost graduates of the University City; W. E. Kennedy, Genoa. of Michigan, says: "In my fifteen years of practice I have never found so valuable a remedy in Catarrhal and Throat affections as Gauss' Catarrh Tablets. I recommend them in every instance as I know the remedy to be a safe, reliable medicine, acting immediately upon the inflamed membranes and mucous surfaces." Gauss' Catarrh Tablets will positively cure any case of Catarrh, no matter where located or how long standing, because they contain in a concentrated form all the requisites essential to restoring the inflamed mem-branes and mucous surfaces to their natural, healthy state and to carry all puriform mat-ter through the natural outlets. This is the simple secret of so many marvelous cures. Gauss. Catarrh Tablets are taken inter-ally, and being neatly put up in tablet orm can be taken at any time and place athout the aid of a bottle, spoon or syringe, as with similar remedies.

Gauss' Catarrh Tablets can be obtained at your druggist's, 50c for full sized package, or will be mailed, postpaid, to any address on receipt of the price. Address

BIG SALE OF BLOODED CATTLE. Nebraska-Bred Animals Fetch Nic

One of the most successful public sales of shorthorn cattle ever held in the state occurred at South Omaha vesterday. The cattle were owned, bred and fed in western Ne braska, 250 miles west of the Missouri river by Thomas Andrews of Cambridge, Furnas county. The outcome of this sale demonstrates Nebraska's possibilities in producing fine cattle on blue stem grass and alfalfa with ordinary care and without being stabled The well known fine stock auctioneer, Colone F. M. Woods of Lincoln, cried the sale and sold thirty-four head for $5,035, an average of $148. Nine bulls averaged $146.20 and twenty-five cows and helfers averaged $148.80 It was the first public sale ever made by Mr Andrews and was good enough to attract buyers from Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, Kansas and the Dakotas. Only seven head sold for less than $100 each, and some of these were but 4 to 8 months oid. The cattle were in good sale condition and bidding was lively at times. One noticeable feature of the sale is the fact that more than seven-eighths of the receipts were paid in cash. The fol-lowing is detailed report as given by the clerk of the sale:

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Important Matters Given a Brief Hearing Before the Body.

POLICE COURT WILL BE INVESTIGATED

Judiciary Committee is Charged with the Duty of Carrying on the Inquiry_Other Matters Under Consideration.

The city council had a number of important matters on its docket at the regular meeting last night, but in most cases they merely appeared in the way of routine, and final action was deferred. The card had brought out an unusually strong lobby, but the proceedings were uneventful. About the only point of more than passing interest was the instruction of the judiciary committee to take up the inquiry into affairs at the police

The committee on street improvements and viaducts submitted a report on the Sixteenth street viaduct matter, but failed to recommend any immediate action. Stuht explained that no funds were available for the purpose, but Bingham insisted that this was not a difficult problem, inasmuch as the city's share of the expense was only $1,000. He vigorously declared that the matter had hung fire long enough and that the repairs should be begun at once. He offered a resolution directing the Board of Public Works to pro-

The report of City Attorney Connell on the report of Comptroller Westberg relative to the uncollected balances in the various funds was placed on file. The attorney stated that he had not had time to make an ex-haustive investigation on account of his occupation in the Bolln trial, but on general rinciples he recommended that no warrants should be drawn against the balances indiated. He held that it would be better policy o issue funding bonds to take up outstand

In regard to the resolution of the Board of Education demanding an investigation of the police court, City Attorney Connell recom-mended that a special committee of three be appointed to make the necessary investiga-tion. On the suggestion of Bechel the judiciary committee was substituted.

The request of City Electrician Schurig that a fire alarm box be placed at the office electric light company was referred to public property and buildings. The elecrician made the recommendation in order that the company might be able to send out inemen in a case of fire to assist in taking are of the wires. On the recommendation of the finance committee the refunding bond ordinance was referred to the comptroller with a request that he prepare at once a statement of the floating debt and liabilities of the city. In the same connection the city attorney was directed to submit a statement of all taxes hat had been declared illegal by the courts The contract and bond of the Globe Light and Heat company for gasoline lights was ecommended to the committee on gas and electric lights. This was at the urgent request of Mount, who was absent from the last meeting and wanted time to investigate Burmester introduced the ordinance prepared by the exposition officials by which the maturity of the right of the city to purchase he water works plant was postponed to Sepember 1, 1898. It was referred to the comnittee on fire, water and police.

Ordinances were introduced providing for paving Wirt street from Sherman avenue to Twenty-fourth street, and Patrick avenue Twenty-fourth to Twenty-seventh street.

He Manages to Swindle Several Local Merchants.

The operations of a forger, who has worked successfully among several local merchants, have recently come to light. He represented himself to be a traveling man and gave the names of C. D. Hart and E. H. Brown, Under the latter name he bought a sult of clothes at the Continental Clothing company and said that he would make payment upon its de livery at 2658 Douglas street, where he had engaged rooms. When the boy called to de-liver the gools he was tendered a worthless check for $23 signed by E. H. Brown. The same game, in a similar amount, was worked on Kelly, Stiger & Co.

A slightly different method was taken with Kilpatrick & Co. and the Boston store. To them he said he was a traveling man with B. Lowenstein & Co. of Memphis, Tenn. In their presence he opened a letter purporting to be from this house and containing a check to his order for $27.50. The game was successful and in both cases the full amount of the check was secured. His operations were so well-timed that his last victim was alled upon half an hour before the protested checks were returned by the southern bank. Detective Cox later called at the stores men-tioned and endeavored to identify Hart with a well known eastern crook, whose photo-graph was in his possession. In all cases the likeness was stated to be that of Hart. He is wanted in a number of places as a forger and all-round swindler. The photograph was also recognized at the Commercial National bank as that of the man who endeavored to pas a worthless check there for $750 endorses with the forged algnature of C. E. Yost.

ICE CARNIVAL AND LAGOON NOTES Uncle Dick Berlin chaperoned a party bent on tobeggining Monday evening. They had some trouble in finding "toboggs" to fit, but made the best of it and scotled down the steep incline and walked back, carrying their toboggans up to the top of that high platform. Dick failed to do his "stand up" act, but promises to get in condition and give it later on. One of the young ladies in the party, who had just finished a hearty dinner, remarked that she had never in all her life found anything that could touch the toboggao. Twenty minutes later she was salling into a double porterhouse steak.

USEFUL HOLIDAY OFFERINGS

Undecided What to Give? Just Step Into this Store to Look. Here are things to please the men folks, and women, too, for that matter. We sell a few silken items-handkerchiefs, ties and other articles which would be much appreciated by the fair sex. However, we are outfitters to men. Let us, therefore, chat of things that interest those who are anxious to make some man happy. You may find here pretty and useful Christmas presents. We haven't the ornamental. There is more good sense in the useful. A suit is of more benefit than a smoking jacket, and an overcoat is surely more appreciated than a bath robe, and it won't cost very much to get it here either. A pretty black Clay Worsted suit, for Sunday wear, is only $5.00. A dress overcoat of three or four different shades is to be had here for $5.00. What a difference to $5.00 worth of useless knick-knacks, isn't it? And if that man is not worth a $5.00 present we suggest other ir glass boxes, ready for the postoffice, at 75c. A dozen linen collars for 90c. Suspenders ali the way from 5c up to the loveliest embroidered ones, put up in seporate glass boxes. Handkerchiefs, either silk or linen. Gloves, Hoslery and-well, everything a man needs for wear, even cuff buttons and shirt studs, things less expensive. Here are lovely ties from 10c up to the finest,
