The governor waited at his apartments this afternoon for General Dickinson, Durrant's attorney, to appear. Dickinson did not come, and the gov ernor expressed his determination to allow the law to take its course. It was stated that Mr. and Mrs. Durrant would call on the gov ernor this afternoon to make a last appeal for their son, but the governor said that he would not receive them.

PREPARATIONS ARE ALL COMPLETE.

Condemned Man Has Little Hope of Being Spared.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6 .- Unless some thing unforeseen intervenes to prevent it. William Henry Theodore Durrant, the condencied murderer of Blanche Limont, will explate his crime upon the gallows at San Quentin prison tomorrow morning.

This morning his attorneys were still confident that they could save him from the hangman's noose, but after Governor Budd had announced his refusel to interfere with the execution and the news flished over the wires from Washington that Attorney Boardman had failed in his mission to the supreme court of the United States, they were compelled to acknowledge themselves nonplussed.

Attorney Deuprey, as a forlorn hope, resorted to the expedient of applying to the judges of the federal courts for a bill of exceptions to their ruling denying his petition for a writ of habeas corpus yesterday. After a consultation Judges DeHaven and Morrow decided that the allowance of the bill of exceptions would not act in the nature of perm'ssion to appeal to the supreme court and after examining the documents, affixed their signatures to the bill of exceptions as requested.

Immediately thereafter Attorney Deuprey secured from the clerk of the court a certified copy of said bill of exceptions and called upon United States Marshal Baldwin to serve it and a notice of appeal upon Warden Hale at San Quentin. It was claimed by Attorney Deuprey that this notice acted as a stay of proceedings, and that the federal judges having signed this bill of exceptions, nothing could prevent him from perfecting his appeal thereon Marshal Baldwin at first demurred to being asked. pressed into service, but acting upon the advice of the United States attorney he accompanied Attorney Deuprey to San Quentin and served the documents upon Warden Hale. That official at once referred the matter to the state attorney general, who advised him that the acceptance of service of such documents as had been submitted to him did not act as a stay of execution, and that there was no legal reason why he should not proceed with the execution.

Returning to this city, Attorney Deuprey at once repaired to the United States circult court in order, if possible, to perfect his appeal, but acting under the instructions issued by both federal judges yesterday in suffers from uraemic poison.

Owing to the fact that some of the cemetery associa ions refuse to receive it on account of the notoriety that would result, the elder Durrant threatens to bury the body under the broad waters of the Pacific ocean. Friends are trying to induce the stricken parents to have the remains cremated.

At the request of Theodore Durrant an Associated Press correspondent was brought tonight to the cage-like structure surrounded by a close wire netting in which the con demned man is confined. His mother sat outside, conversing with her son in whispers, Durrant looked well, but his eyes were red from weeping and his lips were parched. The failure today of the various moves in his behalf was referred to.

"It was a great surprise, but I am prepared for it," replied Durrant.

"How do you feel" "Hopeful, buoyant and ready to meet my Muker," answered the condemned man. " know the Lord is with me. No one knows what faith is until tried. I am going to a judge who has never committed a wrong and who connot. My faith has been so strong field, in which the governor is interested, is that I have been kept up and will be sugtained to the end."

Then turning to his mother he said: "Mother, I have come to the conclusion that it needs trials to need God, and you may say that to the world," he added. A sudden thought seemed to strike Durrant for he added in a voice different from the carnest religious accents of his previous remarks: "I have had offers of remuneration for a talk with me from the east. I have had three or four telegrams." "All of his words are of great value," in terrupted his mother.

No offer of compensation being made Dur rant was promptly cautioned to talk no more He was willing to comply, but his mother being called away for a moment he resumed in his former strain: "I will make no reference to the past. All will be made clear; if not in this world, then in the next. I feel that I am perfect in Christ." "What will you say at the last?" he was

"I shall only proclaim my innoceno, loudly, strenuously," said Durrant. "Make this as strong as you please. I will not falter at the end. I will die bravely, knowing I am going to a better world. I thank God my hands are clean, not stained by blood, but the fair name of California will stand stained with a crime that can never be wiped out-the blood of an innocent man."

of the letters and telegrams to the governor and the bolting members is the most severe and discourteous that could fe used, giving expression to indignant popular feeling. So far as his own and the efforts of his mana gers are concerned, Senator Hanna would be beaten if a ballot was taken today.

the meeting Mr. Young was seen at his office in the Union Pacific headquarters by a Bee reporter. When asked if he would accept the position of auditor of the Pacific Express company, he said:

"I have accepted it and entered on the performance of the duties of that office this afternoon. My position with the express company will be that of general auditor. My office will remain here at Union Pacific headquarters, and an assistant auditor will look after the detail work at the office of the Pacific Express company."

"Will you continue to act as auditor of the Union Pacific ?"

"During the continuance of the receivership I expect to. No one knows what changes will be made under the new company."

"Can you state who will be your assistant auditor with the Pacific Express company?" "No, I cannot. He has not been selected yet. That is a little too far along to be diacussed now. Where is nothing more that I can say about the new office at this time. for I have just taken hold of the office.'

MORSEMAN'S STATEMENT.

When asked about the changes made in the company's official family, President E. M. Morsemon said: "Erastus Young has been elected auditor in place of W. F. Bechel, resigned. Mr. Young will not leave the Union Pacific, but will continue in the position of auditor of that company and will be general auditor of this company. A gentleman named Taylor of St. Louis has been elected treasurer. 1 am sorry I do not know his initials. That office has heretofore been occupied by myself, in addition to the office of president "

"Will you continue to serve as president and general manager?"

"I shall. I merely give up the office of treasurer to another man. I have never had the title of general manager, though the duties of that office have always gone with these of president."

"Will you make a statement regarding the cause of the changes in the company?"

"No, sir; I will not. All I have to say is that Mr. Bechel resigned and Mr. Young has been elected to succeed him, together with the change in the office of "reasurer."

The announcement of the changes in the bloated "floater" was taken from the river Pacific Express company naturally created quite a stir on the streets yesterday after-A list of organizations in this city and George Wells, living on South Broadway, was noon. Ever since the retirement of Thomas missing from his home and his wife and K. Sudborough, chief clerk in the auditing department, about two weeks ago, other changes had been freely predicted. The fact that the two attaches of the company who had for a long term of years looked after the political interests of the company should be the ones to go caused much comment about town. Mr. Sudborough has been a prominent figure in political circles for a long time. Last fall he was a republican candidate for and well. He said he had been working in the state senate. member of the city council In commenting on the changes railroad men last night generally expressed the opinion that they formed a natural sequence to the reorganization of the Union Pacific. The relations between these allied corporations has always been close, and from present indications they are likely to be closer from this time on. Gradually has the railroad influence in Pacific Express company matters been increasing until now it appears dominant. In reality there are but three stockholders in the Pacific Express company, namely, the
