

BUILDING THE EXPOSITION

Contractors Are All Pushing the Work of Construction.

GOOD WEATHER FAVORS THE ARTISANS

Magnificent Palaces Give a Faint Impression of the Grandeur and Architectural Beauty of the Finished Effect.

The exposition grounds are the center of attraction on Sundays for people of all classes and hundreds of visitors are to be seen walking and fro on all parts of the grounds, inspecting the progress that is being made on the buildings and gaining an understanding of the general arrangement of the various points of interest.

Under the end walls and move them back the required distance, filling in the intervening space. This work is now being done, but has been the cause of some delay.

Over on the bluff facing the Illinois building is making good progress. The main walls are nearly all in place and some idea may now be obtained of the size of the building.

The heavy timbers for the Horticulture building have arrived on the grounds and work on the superstructure of this building will commence at once.

Thousands sink into an early grave for want of a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. This great remedy would have saved them.

Walker Whitehead will lecture at the Boyd theater this afternoon at 4 o'clock on the Merchant of Venice. Everyone invited. Admission free.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

A small force of men worked all day yesterday at the Armour plant. Bricklaying and carpenter work was suspended, but laborers were engaged in excavating for the foundations of the power house and the piers of the beef houses.

The machinery and electricity building is forcing ahead rapidly and is nearing completion, with the Indians strongly in favor of it being the first building to be entirely finished.

The Manufacture and Administration buildings have been in a state of bordering on completion for several weeks and little remains to be done on either, but it cannot be said that they are entirely completed.

The Mines building is receiving considerable attention at the hands of the staff contractors and the marble-like exterior covering is rapidly being put on the rough framework.

The feature of the council meeting tonight will, it is supposed, be the introduction of the new gas ordinance. This ordinance will be read for the first time, after which it will be referred to the judiciary committee.

EPOCH IN CHURCH HISTORY

Castellar Street Presbyterian Celebrates Its Twelfth Anniversary.

EARLY BEGINNINGS ARE ALL REVIEWED

Under the Guidance of Rev. Wilson the Membership Has Increased from Eighteen to Three Hundred and Seventy-Five.

A special service was held at the Castellar Street Presbyterian church last night in commemoration of the twelfth anniversary of the church's foundation.

The first paper presented was by J. L. Welshans and treated of "The Beginnings." The conditions at that time were described, when the neighborhood was practically an unbroken wilderness and the church was a landmark.

Other accounts were given by Messrs. Ruddy and Johnson, which included history of the church and its growth. The service was completed with remarks by the pastor on the faith and labor.

The hard experience of life soon enough gardens our heart, as it toughens everything that we touch. It is the earth, which God has surrounded us.

Men are now living longer, on an average, than they did 100 years ago. A generation is now 30 years, while one hundred years ago a generation is thirty-seven years.

Keep that old "sweetheart" of ten or twenty years ago young and beautiful. Keep the wrinkles from her face; keep her eyes bright and sparkling as the girl of 16 when she is 60 by filling her soul and heart with the duty of every Christian.

FLOWERS BRING JOY AND HAPPINESS

Address Delivered Before the State Horticultural Society.

AMUSEMENTS.

An audience not large but appreciative and even demonstrative greeted Walker Whitehead last night at Boyd's.

The second week of the Woodward season started out prosperously yesterday with a larger house than that of the opening Sunday.

The specialities this week are even more attractive than those which preceded them. Stanley and Adele Jackson, a remarkable exhibition of tumbling by the two Van Aukens and the really wonderful trained ponies.

The Shoe Business

is a peculiar business. Hardly a shoe store in Omaha that isn't just now "closing out the odds and ends and broken sizes" at a tremendous sacrifice from original price.
