PROUD OF HIS RECORD.

Steady hits.

Lady—I am going to give a ball, and I want you to polish this floor. Do you thoroughly understand your business? Polisher—Well, madame, you inquire at the Major's, up the street. On his ballroom floor, the last party he gave, six people broke their legs before 12 o'clock, and an old gentleman broke his neck down the stairs. It was I, madame, who polished that floor and staircase!

QUITE AN INSULT.

Grandmama (to the boys, arrived for a week's visit)—So, my dears, that nasty old leather football of Uncle Frank's is too dangerous for you. I have made this nice new worsted one for you to play with instead.

A DIALOGUE IN SCOTLAND.

Energy and Enterprise of an Oklahoma School Girl. In 1892 the "Singer" school was built in Oklahoma territory, among a colony of Cheyennes and Arapahoes, considered among the wildest, most backward and non-progressive of all Indians.

NEVER CONTENT.

Vicar—I wish I had your enthusiasm, my boy! Boy—I wish I had your skates.
