CENTRAL LABOR UNION OFFICERS.

The Central Labor union at its regular meeting last night did two important things—held its annual election of officers and launched a plan to hold a national labor congress in this city during the exposition.

The matter of holding a labor congress in the hall of Fred M. Young, who reported action. Further consideration of the plan will be given at a future meeting.

The following new delegates were seated in the hall of Fred M. Young, who reported action. Further consideration of the plan will be given at a future meeting.

Old friends once more. On Saturday morning we will again be able to offer a new shipment of those excellent men's shoes at $1.25 a pair. These shoes don't grow on every bush. It is a long time between shipments.

The factory only makes them up often enough to fill our contract and take their own time. This shipment is particularly timely, as it gives you a chance to compare these shoes with the kinds around town that are marked down from some price or another for some reason or another, and sold "during January only for a dollar ninety-eight." These shoes we will sell "during January," for one dollar and a quarter, and if there are any left in February, we will close 'em out at the same price.

Nebraska Clothing Co. OMAHA. "Have at least a part of your fire insurance written in the Nebraska Mercantile Mutual Insurance company."

20% off On all Fall and Winter Woolens. It costs so little to command thoroughly first-class tailored garments—that we wonder who can purchase the shoddy productions so common.

Our 20 per cent reduction on all Fall and Winter Woolens—is a tempting proposition—but when backed up by Nicoll's guarantee for first-class tailoring—excellent workmanship and trimming—you can ill afford to let this chance slip by.

Scofield Cuts Prices Again. $5.00 Jackets for $1.98. $6.50 Jackets for 2.50. $12.00 Jackets for 5.00. $18.00 Jackets for 7.50.

STILL WE CROW. Because we can afford to sell strictly fresh eggs for less than any other place in Omaha, this is for cash, as we are doing only a strictly business. It's money in your pocket to trade with us as we can and do sell goods lower than if we did a credit business—just compare these prices:

Proof That Proves. That the "Guarantee" provides better wearables and at less cost is completely established. Here is proof that proves: Monarch shirts 90c here—$1.25 in, surely not less than $1.00 elsewhere.

Guarantee Clothing Co. 15th & CAPITOL AVE. OMAHA. Proof that proves an understanding in staple articles, which are regarded as gift edge value, even at prices. Now let us mention of things compared by common sense.
