ALL KINDS OF ENTERTAINMENT FURNISHED

Every Indication that Fourth Week of New Year Will Be a Busy One Review of Queen Poincis' Coming.

The third week of the first month, as the Quakers would say it, has been notable for the great number of smaller functions and the small number of great functions that have happened within the labyrinth known as society. 'Variety is the spice of life, which gives it all its flavor," and so we have had all kinds of entertainment afforded us during the week just past. Naturally the events concomitant with the coronation of Queen Polaris took a strong hold on the populace. Whotever may or may not be said regarding ing. these, they afforded no small amount of genuine pleasure to the many fair young women in whose honor they were given and reflected some credit on those who contributed toward their success. The Hamilton- Hambleton Van Gieron wedding was the most notable function of that character during the week. The meeting of the Married People's Dancing club was a distinct social success, and there were an innumerable lot of teas, luncheons and dim er parties. The theaters were fairly well attended during the week. Society flocked to hear El Capitan, but it did not wear its best clothes; that is, not to any noticeable extent.

During the fourth week of the first month Omaha society is upt to be pretty busy. A glance at the pleasures in prospect scaeduled on this page will show a fine array of the pleasant little affairs that give the fair devotees of Dame Society opportunities to wear their best gowns and to talk of engagements not yet made public and other pertinent subjects. The cards of Mrs. Casper E. Yost for Thursday afternoon indicate that a new form of entertainment is to be intro-duced to Omaha society. The title, "A Kensington Luncheon," suggests something new. We have met these functions before, but separately, not in such close union. In afternoon, in the cilendar there are several small dancing Seward, Neb. parties, but the Cotillion club will not meet again until the following week, when an elaborate party will be given at the home of Eache, who is soon to remove from Omaha Miss Yates. Wednesday promises to be a day that will keep the dear society maiden. on the move every minute after she arises, just before noon. There are enough receptions, teas and card parties on the tapis for that afternoon and evening to be spread over several days in any city but a metropolis.

A Detroit society woman denounces in the most scathing terms the social lapses of a certain set of young men of that city, who, the says, by offenses varying from "cutting" dances to ordering cases of champagne on their hostesses' accounts, "have honestly earned the comprehensive English epithet of of the order at her home, 2433 Manderson If this hostess, or any other hostess, in or out of Detroit, is inconvenienced by such conduct, she has only herself to blame, for the remedy is in her own hands. Let her refuse to invite such men to her affairs. That is the way several Omaha women who entertain a great deal have handled the troublesome question, and rumor has it that troublesome question, and rumor has it duture excesses in this direction are to be estopped by general emulation of their worthy example.

An enjoyable surprise party was tendered for their and Pacific streets, on Monday evening Among the presents given Mrs. Smith in honor of her birthday anniversary was a

The ice carnival did not include the pro-gram of outdoor events that had been scheduled for it because the weather gods were not a bit favorable until too late in the week. The indoor events in connection with the orrnival, however, were all that could be desired, and will be pleasantly remembered for some time to come by those who participated in them. The reception at the Miliard hotel on Tuesday afternoon was a very successful affair. Miss Mildred Stephenson, surnamed Queen Polaris, received the guests in a gracious manner, and to Mr. Otto Nelson and Mrs. T. J. West and to Mr. W. Price and Mrs. Harry Day. was assisted by a bevy of as fair young visi-tors as Omaha has had the pleasure of entertaining in some time. After a timely address of welcome by Mayor Frank E. Moores light refreshments were served and an hour Ulmmecke, and the consolation prize by spent in social intercourse. In the evening lagoon, the untoward weather to the contrary notwithstanding. On Wednesday evening the queen and her retinue of mailens were entertained by a ball given in their honor at the Millard hotel. This was in respect a most enjoyable occasion. There were on hand a goodly number of dancing young men, both civilians and military men, for the Omaha Guards were there in their attractive dress uniforms. On Thursday evening the queen and her maids Scalchi concert, and on Friday they left for their respective homes.

CHARGES CRIME TO THE HOGANS. CLEMENTS OF ORD TO BE REFEREE. Postal Authorities Locate the Mail

Hox Robberies. The checks which disappeared from the mail of W. V. Morse and Rector, Wilhelmy & Co. are now known to have been stolen from the mail boxes about the city. The work was undoubtedly performed by Timothy and James Hogan, brothers, who are wanted for similar offenses in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Kanois City and St. Louis. They are also supposed to be the men who operated in Minneapolis. A few days ago Postal Inspector Sinclair secured the pictures of the Hogan brothers and taking them to the First National bank, where an attempt was made to cash the Morse check, one of the pictures, that of Timothy Hogan, was at once recognized by Paying Teller Frank Clark. In order to make the identification complete Chief of Detectives Cox sent the photographs to the Pinkerton agency of Chicago and last night received an answer. The letter inclosed a circular with cuts of the brothers, which exactly taled with the photographs. Specimens of the writing of Timothy Hogan were also shown and it was discovered that it matched exactly with that upon the Omaha checks. A peculiarity of the Omaha checks, also of checks passed in other cities, is that the sum written in the body of the poper is $198.75

Also that in each sostance the word "ninety" is incorrectly spelled "cinty."

The letter from the Pinkerton agency states that Timothy clogen is about 30 years of age; that he was caught by the New York police on a charge of forgery and given a term of years on Blackwell's island. He, however, escaped after he had been there for a short period, and still be a balance of four years which he should serve. He was also said to have been arrested for forgery in Cleveland, but managed a second time to escape the law. There is a reward of $100

The second fire, which occurred at the readence of William Wentz, 2314 South Twelfth street, was also caused by a quantity of superneated soot flying heavenward from an overburdened chilminy.

Supreme Court Picks a Valley County

Friday the supreme court at Lincoln named E. J. Clements of Ord to be the referee in the Broatch-Moores case. E. B. Henderson, court stenographer in Judge Scott's court, is an old-time friend of Mr. Clements. Speaking of him Mr. Hender-"Elliott J. Clements, who has been appointed referee in the Broatch-Moores case by the supreme court, has been engaged in the practice of law at Ord for about lifteen years. He came from Michigan after having taken a course in a law school and located in Ord when it was a frontier town without a built up a large practice in his part of the state, is recognized there as a man of the highest character, of marked ability as a lawyer and as baving a well balanced, judicial mind. He is about 38 years of age, is a republican in politics and was county ney of Valley county two terms. He has had strong backing in republican conventions slieved by his friends to be destined to wear the ermine in the future."

Several Small Fires. The fire department was kept busy yesterday afternoon and evening. The first call same in from the house of Mrs, Susle Wallace, 423 South Thirteenth street, and was cacape the law. There is a reward of $100 offered by the federal authorities for the capture of either of the Hogans.

Timothy Hogan is described as 20 years of age, five feet six inches in height and weighing 132 pounds blue eyes and light moustache. James Hogan is said to be five feet eleven and one-half inches tall, 25 years of age and slender. Both men were at one time common laborers.
