

RIOTS IN ALGIERS

More Anti-Jewish Demonstrations in the African Town.

SHOPS PILLAGED AND OWNERS DRIVEN OUT

Revolvers and Daggers Are Freely Used by the Enraged Mob.

ONE MAN IS DEAD AND OTHERS DYING

Military Finally Charges the Crowd with Drawn Swords.

SEVERAL POLICEMEN BADLY MALTREATED

Several Shops Looted and All the Pillage Banned by the Rioters—Many Arrests Made of Disorderly Persons.

ALGIERS, Jan. 23.—Anti-Jewish riots were renewed here today. The mob invaded the Jewish quarter and pillaged the shops in the Rue Babouin, driving the Jewish merchants out into the streets. A squadron of chasseurs was ordered to the scene and charged the mob with drawn swords, but the mob re-formed, further on, cheering for the army. Revolvers and daggers were freely used. One man was shot in the back and shot in the head on the spot. Many were seriously wounded, one named Cayol, dying from his wounds at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The crowd, hearing of this, became dangerously excited, shouting, "They're murdering us. Death to the Jews."

Heavy Winner at Monte Carlo. (Copyright, 1898, by Press Publishing Company.) LONDON, Jan. 23.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Interesting accounts are published of immense winnings at Monte Carlo in the last fortnight by an American whose name has not been ascertained. He played with a system, going from one table to another, staking at high odds large sums and invariably winning. His movements around the room were so rapid that he was left with many other players following his luck and he lapsed heavily. He has not been seen at the tables in the last four days, so it is presumed that he has returned to his country, estimated at between $150,000 and $200,000.

Devilishes Are Reported Quiet. LONDON, Jan. 24.—The Cairo correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: General Sir Herbert Kitchener, commander of the Anglo-Egyptian expedition in the Sudan, has telegraphed the officers here that it is presumed that the devilishes are quiet, and no movement is now expected before the next high Nile.

Paris, Jan. 23.—It is reported from Algiers that serious rioting and pillaging took place at Mustafa, a suburb of the city, last night. Ten Jewish shops were looted and a number of policemen injured. Troops were summoned, but order was not restored until 2 o'clock this morning. Forty arrests were made.

Paris, Jan. 23.—In anticipation of the prohibited anti-Dreyfus demonstration today, under the direction of the organizing committee of the anti-Dreyfus meeting at the Tivoli Vauxhall last Wednesday night, stringent measures were taken by the authorities to preserve order. The Place de la Concorde and the Garden of the Tuilleries were held by detachments of cavalry and infantry and large forces of police. Nothing happened until 2 o'clock this afternoon, the time announced for the meeting to protest for the pro-Dreyfus army. A large number of Salles Milles Colonnes in the Mediterranean quarter. The approaches to the hall were guarded by police and mounted republican guards, while the entrance was taken of removing all chairs from the interior. The police refused admission to known anarchists, many of whom were present. A riot ensued, and there were few arrests during the day.

Paris, Jan. 23.—The eclipse of the sun was accompanied here by a rapid fall of temperature. An earthy smell pervaded the atmosphere and the scene resembled a landscape under a wintry English sun. The duration of totality was two minutes, with a marvelous corona of pale silver and blue. The conditions were favorable at both Prof. Sir Norman Lockyer's camp, near Vauxlognon, on the Malher coast, and at Prof. Campbell's camp, near Joux. The native astronomers predicted terrible calamities. The natives ascribed to devotional exercises and there was general fasting, but no great alarm.

London, Jan. 24.—The Times says editorially this morning: "We are glad to learn that the rumors of a rupture between independent sources that the rumors of Germany's intention to open Kiau Chau to the world's commerce are well founded. If this decision is maintained Kiau Chau will probably become a great busy and flourishing entrepot of the world's trade, a northern Hong Kong. The wisdom of the decision cannot be doubted. It will tend to improve the unnecessarily strained relations between England and Germany. It is

WILD RUMORS ABOUT CUBA

Movements of the White Squadron at Key West Cause Talk.

FIVE BATTLESHIPS ARRIVE OFF THE BAR

Report Has It That Special Guards Have Been Placed Around Consular General Lee's Office for Protection.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 23.—A telegram from Key West says Admiral Sigsbee with the battleships New York, Indiana, Massachusetts, Iowa and Texas arrived off the bar at 10 o'clock. The Maine, Montgomery and Detroit and torpedo boats Cushing and Dupont went out and joined the fleet. An important message was received here at 11 o'clock for Admiral Sigsbee, but there is no way of transportation to the fleet. Telegrams received from Havana last night state that extra guards have been placed around Consular General Lee's office for protection. Circulars were distributed around Havana calling on the volunteers for the protection of the American colony. There is no news of an attempt to assassinate Lee.

A special to the Times-Union and Citizen from Key West, Fla., says: "There has been much excitement in this city during the last twenty-four hours, due to an alarming telegram from Havana stating that the streets had been flooded with an anonymous ultra-Spanish circular calling upon all anti-American elements to mobilize and raid the American colony. Captain General Blanco, fearful that the rabid element of the city might attempt an attack upon the business district, ordered a guard around Consular General Lee's office. Many of the Americans of the city who believe they are in real danger have prepared their affairs for any emergency. This news is what gave rise to the rumor that General Lee had been assassinated. The feeling of uneasiness felt here because of the proximity of this city has been much allayed, especially since the arrival of the fleet of battleships, consisting of the New York, Indiana, Massachusetts, Iowa and Texas, which arrived off the bar at 10 o'clock, and the torpedo boats Cushing and Dupont left the harbor at 11 o'clock and joined the fleet, the whole making an impressively formidable appearance and inspiring confidence in the strong right arm of Uncle Sam.

The stopping of the war ships here is a break in the program of the admirals, whose plan under orders from the State and Navy departments affirmed that nothing had been heard from General Lee and promised to look for the next news of a good sign. On the other hand, the city was full of rumors, ranging in importance from the statement that the white squadron had sailed from Key West, to the report that General Lee had been assassinated at Havana. Inquiry, however, failed to reveal any basis for sensational reports.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—So far as could be learned the administration had no advice from Havana today. The State and Navy departments affirmed that nothing had been heard from General Lee and promised to look for the next news of a good sign. On the other hand, the city was full of rumors, ranging in importance from the statement that the white squadron had sailed from Key West, to the report that General Lee had been assassinated at Havana. Inquiry, however, failed to reveal any basis for sensational reports.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The official report of the action of the joint committee of the federation appointed by the general conference of the two Episcopal Methodisms, which met at Baltimore recently, was given on today by the secretary, Dr. R. J. Cooke, editor of the Methodist Advocate.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—J. W. Little, living near Skidmore, Nodaway county, has a two-week-old pig that is a wild boar in its habits. It is a well developed and differs in no way from other swine of its age, excepting that its hind legs are turned in, and its hoofs point backward instead of forward. The pig is as tame as any other member of the brood and is as long as its malformation appearing not to be a hindrance to its movements. Mr. Little declares that if the pig lives long enough he will have it placed in the Missouri State Fair at St. Louis.

DR. JOHN HALL WILL REMAIN. Reconsiders His Resignation as a New York Pastor. NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—(Special.)—John Hall announced from the pulpit of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church that he had reconsidered his determination to resign the pastorate and would continue in the service of the church.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Jan. 23.—There is no change in the strike situation. No attempt will be made to start the striking industry. Mr. Ross has been informed that the workmen employed there will contribute $50 to the strike fund weekly as long as the strike lasts.

SEVERE STORM IN THE EAST

Wind Blows a Frightful Gale, Destroying Property.

BLIZZARD IS REPORTED AT MANY POINTS

Central States Are Also Visited and Shipping on the Great Lakes is Seriously Affected.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—With a deafening crash that was heard for squares a portion of the east wing of the old state house fell tonight. No harm was done to the historic building, as the arch which collapsed was not connected with it, a section of the wing next to the east wall of Independence hall having been torn out under the restoration plan now being carried out. The accident was due to the exposed state of the building. The two wings had been torn down with the exception of the arch on either side. The east wall of the east wing and the west wall of the west wing were left standing their full height, about thirty feet.

At 9 o'clock Watchman Lewis Feigley made his rounds in the east wing. He walked along the top of the west wall and through and over the three arches. Everything appeared to be in first-class condition. He had just left this portion of the building and was standing in front of the state house when suddenly came a crash that nearly threw him from his feet. An investigation was made at once and it was found that the whole of the western portion of the middle arch had fallen in. The walls fell toward the west. It was the opinion of the contractors' men who were on the scene that the arch had been softened by the heavy rain of the previous night and the strong wind tonight did the rest.

At the time of the collapse the wind was blowing almost a gale across Independence square. A large area of tin roofing, very heavy, which had been taken from the building, was lying upon a pile of bricks. It was tossed about by the wind almost like so much paper.

Reports received from various parts of eastern Pennsylvania and south New Jersey tonight showed a wind storm of major force and ordinary velocity passed over those sections today, but no great damage resulted. Heavy winds prevailed along the coast, but up to now no disasters to shipping were reported.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

ANOTHER WEEK OF SILVER

Senate Will Devote Its Time to the Teller Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The present outlook is unfavorable to the senate's giving much attention to the Hawaiian treaty during this week. The agreement to vote on Thursday on the Teller resolution reaffirming the doctrine that United States should not annex Hawaii, has been postponed to a later date.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support. It is probably not expected to be prolonged in either case.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support. It is probably not expected to be prolonged in either case.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support. It is probably not expected to be prolonged in either case.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support. It is probably not expected to be prolonged in either case.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support. It is probably not expected to be prolonged in either case.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support. It is probably not expected to be prolonged in either case.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support. It is probably not expected to be prolonged in either case.

When the treaty next comes up Senator Teller will be recognized to speak in its support. It is probably not expected to be prolonged in either case.

TEMPERATURE AT OMAHA

Table with 4 columns: Hour, Deg., Hour, Deg. showing temperature readings for various hours.

DESERTS HIS POST

and Lieutenant Joseph Driggs Leave His Command.

SITS SALT LAKE CITY WITH A FRIEND

calls to Keep His Appointment There for Dinner.

CASHES A NUMBER OF WORTHLESS CHECKS

Leaves Many Unsettled Accounts with Business Men.

ABSENCE IS REPORTED TO FORT RUSSELL

First Lieutenant Seyburn is Assigned to the Command at Camp Pilot

Battles Pending an Investigation of Driggs.

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Jan. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Second Lieutenant Joseph Driggs of the Eighth United States infantry, in charge of a detachment of about twenty-five men, stationed at Camp Pilot Buttes for protection of the Chinese miners, has been missing from his post of duty since January 15. Lieutenant Driggs left here on Sunday last and was accompanied as far as Salt Lake City by George L. Black, superintendent of the Union Pacific coal department at this city. On arriving in Salt Lake an appointment was made between the two men to dine together early that evening, but Lieutenant Driggs did not appear, and Mr. Black has not heard or seen anything of him since.

The lieutenant has for the last month or two been the talk of the place as to his conduct in general. It appears that he organized a foot ball team at Fort Russell, of which he was the captain, to play a series of games with the military cadets' association team at Denver on November 6. His conduct has since then been everything but good.

He has the last few weeks been circulating checks drawn on the First National bank of Cheyenne, at which institution he had no money placed to his credit. He also ran numerous bills at the different saloons and hotels in the city, besides borrowing all the money that he possibly could get from his retainers. It is also said that he sent so far as to pass one of the worthless checks in payment of an elderly woman for his laundry bill.

The lieutenant is said to have been a high roller among the sporting class of people here and besides receiving credit to a large amount, he also received a large sum of money in return for his bogus checks at such resorts, where he was very popularly known. It is a well known fact that he was accustomed to giving small suppers to his friends, and this, combined with the alleged to have been spent on gambling and whisky, is supposed to be the cause of his sudden disappearance.

Second Lieutenant Joseph Driggs, who reported his disappearance to the military commander at Rock Springs, left his command last Sunday, and it is believed that he is still in the hands of the military commander at Rock Springs. Lieutenant Seyburn was detailed to Driggs' command tonight and Driggs has been a private in the Eighth cavalry.

FRANCE IN TOUCH WITH AMERICA

Paris Journalist Comes in the Interest of Reciprocity.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—M. Gallia, who represents several daily papers of Paris, France, arrived in this city today on the French liner La Champagne. M. Gallia came over to this country for the purpose of studying economic questions in order to make the necessary propaganda in France with a view to preparing the public spirit there to establish a reciprocity treaty between the United States and France.

Before leaving France, M. Gallia said, he had received by M. Dorcher, the French minister of commerce, the result of a conference with M. Dorcher, who had convinced M. Gallia that the proper steps would be taken before long to bring about the framing of a reciprocity treaty between the United States and France.

During the mission of the late Moses P. Hardy, special commissioner from the United States to France, M. Gallia acted as attaché to the mission. M. Gallia will leave for Washington tomorrow in order to get in closer touch with congressmen and remain in this country for several months.

CALIFORNIA'S GOLDEN JUBILEE

This Will Be a Week of Festivities at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—At sunrise tomorrow will begin the festivities lasting one week of California's golden jubilee. The city is gaily decorated with flags and bunting, and on every hand are displayed large portraits of James W. Wadsworth, who picked up the first gold nugget in California in 1848. The city is crowded with visitors from all over the state.

Tomorrow is a legal holiday by proclamation of Governor Budd, and the principal feature of the opening of the jubilee will be a monster parade. It is estimated the procession will be made up of 100,000 people. On each succeeding day of the coming week there will be some novelty for the entertainment of visitors. The termination of the golden jubilee will be the opening of the mining fair, where will be shown the mining products of every county in the state.

DINNER IN HONOR OF GRIGGS

Compliment and Silver for the New Attorney General.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 23.—Governor Griggs, in honor of his selection as attorney general of the United States, will be complimented with a dinner given by the members of his personal staff and state officials at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, either February 15 or 16. United States Senators Sewell and Smith and the New Jersey congressmen will be invited guests. Governor Griggs on the occasion will receive a cordial silver service. The executive will resign as soon as he is confirmed an attorney general and Senator Vorhees will become acting governor.

TEMPERATURE AT OMAHA

Table with 4 columns: Hour, Deg., Hour, Deg. showing temperature readings for various hours.

SEVERE STORM IN THE EAST

Wind Blows a Frightful Gale, Destroying Property.

BLIZZARD IS REPORTED AT MANY POINTS

Central States Are Also Visited and Shipping on the Great Lakes is Seriously Affected.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—With a deafening crash that was heard for squares a portion of the east wing of the old state house fell tonight. No harm was done to the historic building, as the arch which collapsed was not connected with it, a section of the wing next to the east wall of Independence hall having been torn out under the restoration plan now being carried out.

At 9 o'clock Watchman Lewis Feigley made his rounds in the east wing. He walked along the top of the west wall and through and over the three arches. Everything appeared to be in first-class condition. He had just left this portion of the building and was standing in front of the state house when suddenly came a crash that nearly threw him from his feet.

An investigation was made at once and it was found that the whole of the western portion of the middle arch had fallen in. The walls fell toward the west. It was the opinion of the contractors' men who were on the scene that the arch had been softened by the heavy rain of the previous night and the strong wind tonight did the rest.

At the time of the collapse the wind was blowing almost a gale across Independence square. A large area of tin roofing, very heavy, which had been taken from the building, was lying upon a pile of bricks. It was tossed about by the wind almost like so much paper.

Reports received from various parts of eastern Pennsylvania and south New Jersey tonight showed a wind storm of major force and ordinary velocity passed over those sections today, but no great damage resulted. Heavy winds prevailed along the coast, but up to now no disasters to shipping were reported.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

TEMPERATURE AT OMAHA

Table with 4 columns: Hour, Deg., Hour, Deg. showing temperature readings for various hours.

SEVERE STORM IN THE EAST

Wind Blows a Frightful Gale, Destroying Property.

BLIZZARD IS REPORTED AT MANY POINTS

Central States Are Also Visited and Shipping on the Great Lakes is Seriously Affected.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—With a deafening crash that was heard for squares a portion of the east wing of the old state house fell tonight. No harm was done to the historic building, as the arch which collapsed was not connected with it, a section of the wing next to the east wall of Independence hall having been torn out under the restoration plan now being carried out.

At 9 o'clock Watchman Lewis Feigley made his rounds in the east wing. He walked along the top of the west wall and through and over the three arches. Everything appeared to be in first-class condition. He had just left this portion of the building and was standing in front of the state house when suddenly came a crash that nearly threw him from his feet.

An investigation was made at once and it was found that the whole of the western portion of the middle arch had fallen in. The walls fell toward the west. It was the opinion of the contractors' men who were on the scene that the arch had been softened by the heavy rain of the previous night and the strong wind tonight did the rest.

At the time of the collapse the wind was blowing almost a gale across Independence square. A large area of tin roofing, very heavy, which had been taken from the building, was lying upon a pile of bricks. It was tossed about by the wind almost like so much paper.

Reports received from various parts of eastern Pennsylvania and south New Jersey tonight showed a wind storm of major force and ordinary velocity passed over those sections today, but no great damage resulted. Heavy winds prevailed along the coast, but up to now no disasters to shipping were reported.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.

At Gloucester the tide was the highest since the memorable storm in 1851 and caused an estimated loss of property situated on the beach. The water from the sea swept in from the sea at noon, inundating the greater part of the coast and causing a heavy loss to owners of property along the beach.