Speaker Reed Receives Che rs When He Requests Bla Name Called and Votes with His Party.

Mr. Balley was recognized for an hour. He yielded twenty migutes to Mr. Wheeler (50m., Ala.), a member of the ways and means committee, who submitted an argument in support of the resolution. Before closing Mr. Wheeler yielded a minute each to balf a dozen members on the democratic side, each of whom, as Mr. Cowherd (dem., Mo.) cald, erected a hook on which to hang a speech in the congressional record. The appearance of Mr. Bland of Bland dollar fame, to whom Mr. Briley yielded tea minutes, was greeted with applause. The course of the president and Secretary Gage Mr. Bland sold, in pressing the gold stand-ard upon the country, had driven the bi-metallists in congress to introduce and in-sist upon the passage of this resolution. Yet, he said, Mr. Dingley charged the miliority with playing at politics. Every re-tublican who wright publican who voted against the resolution violated the St. Louis platform and voted against the coinage of silver in any form or unlimited

Mr. Dolliver (rep., Ia.) made a stirring peech of ten minutes. He said he was describing the demoralization of the silver upalgu, said the people were almost ready to endure the horrors of a gold standard if by so doing they could get rid of the noise of the advocates of 16 to 1.

Mr. Hepburn (rep., Ia.), in opposing the resolution, which he said was equivalent to m free coinage declaration, referred to ex-Governor Boles' refusal to longer follow the standard of free silver.

Mr. Rhea (dem., Ky.) created something a sensation. In the course of his speech. while he was referring to the crime of 1873, he decreted that if there was any place in bales botter than any other, it would be Many biases from the republican side

Later, speaking of the republican cry of parity between gold and silver, Mr. Rhea said a man who hugged his chambermaid or cook had as well talk of maintaining the based silver in every way to prate of preserving the parity of the two metals.

After some further remarks by Messrs.

Lacey and Hepburn (reps., In.) against the resolution, Mr. Bailey closed for the democrats in a speech which stirred his follow to a high pitch of enthusiaem. Eatley, owing to the great pressure time, bad only four minutes in which to close the debate for his side.

The resolution under consideration he said contained two propositions, one moral and the other legal. One asserts as a matter of law that the bonds of the United States are redeemable at the option of the government in silver, and the other as a matter of morals that to restore to its coinage such silver coins as a legal tender in payment of the bends, principal and interest, is not in vio-lation of the public faith, nor in derogation of the rights of the cublic creditors. He would not dwell, be said, on the legal aspec-There was not a lawyer in the United States, nor in any other country who would venture on his professional reoutation to deny that the bonds could be paid in silver. That went without saying. The republicans in this matter must justify them-selves, if at all, upon the proposition that in their conscience they believe that gold was e money of the contract.
"Does one of you believe," said he, addressing the republicans, "that if the bondholder owed the government, under a similar contract he would not exercise his cotion? it is right that he should exercise his option as he would, we believe the government has the same right with their positions re-(Democratic scolause.) We are ready to meet you on this issue—the issue that the money which is good enough for the people who produce the wealth, is good enough for the idlers who spend it; that the money which is good enough for the poor is good enough for the rich; that the money the laborer receives for his toil, and the merchant for his wares, is good enough for the bondholders, and by the eternal, he shall be compelled to take it."

"It was the three R's," continued Mr

But, gentlemen must remember that they cannot cut down the money of the bondholders without cutting in half the money that goes to the old soldier or his widow or or han, or the money of the men who toil." "God bless little Mac." he exclaimed fer-"His declaration means that the best money in the world shall be paid to the bondholder, the plow-holder, the hodholder, the pen-holder, the pension-holder, and all who toll and all who sweat. (Republican applause.) Put that in your pipe and smoke it. On that issue we will meet you next fall and thrash you as we thrashed you (Prolonged republican cheers.) Dalzell (rep., Pa.) declared that the resolution was meaningless unless its purpose was to open the mints to the free and unlimited coinage of silver. It was a oposition that the United States stamp it egend on 44 cents of silver and declare that it was $1. It was a proposition of national national integrity and honor were arrayed More sucred than the centuries of history heroes, was its honor and he thanked God that the party in power had been and always would be the protector

Others who spoke on the resolution were For it—Dockery (Mo.), Clay (Ala.), Wheeler (Ky.), Pearce (Tenn.), Baird (La.), and Maguire (Cal.), all democrats, and nearly all the populiste; against it—Hopkins (III.). Then at 5 o'clock came the vote, which was followed with great interest, notwith-standing the defeat of the resolution was a foregone conclusion. The speaker an nounced that the vote would be directly on the resolution, not on the adverse report. It was soon evident that party ranks being held intact. There were only three breaks, Messrs. Elliott (dem., S. C.), and McAleer (dem. Pa.), voted against the reso-lution, and Mr. Linney (rep., N. C.) voted for it. Mr. White (rep., N. C.) did not vote. After the roll call was complete the speaker asked that his name be called, and the call responded with a vigorous "no." announced the result: Yeas, 132;

The republicans cheered long and loud over their victory, and then at 5:35 p. m. the house adjourned.

Conspiracy Said to Exist to Secure Timber on Reservations. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.-Commissioner Hermann of the general land office has submitted to the secretary of the interior a report on the charges preferred by Rev. J. A. Gilfillan that a conspiracy exists with the object in view of obtaining all the timber on the Chippewa reservation in Minnesota at 50 cents per 1,000 feet, just as the large lumber companies are now getting the dead timber. The commissioner says that no contract have been entered into between the Indians and outsiders wherein less than $4.25 per 1,000 feet is offered for the dead timber. Thirty contracts entered into for logging have been approved by the office, the price the timber ranging from $4.25 to $56.75 per 1,000 feet. Mr. Rosa, the superintendent of logging, will be called on for a report in regard to the statements alleged to have been made sions: that certain lember companies were to get all the Leech lake pine at 50 cents per 1,000 The superintendent has heretofore reported that the cases came under the juris-diction of Assistant Superintendent Hender-On the ceded portions on the White Earth reservation he found loggers complying with the requirements of their con tracts, except that there are not enough In-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 .- (Special Tele gram.)-Speaker Reed said this evening that the decisive majority against the Teller resolution could only be construed as a de sire on the part of republicans in the house to go to the country to ascertain just what the people wanted. If silver, then the republican majority would be reversed; if an honest currency then the republicans would continue to hold a majority in the lower house. He expressed himself as being friendly to the bankruptcy bill with certain modifications and thought that such a measure might become a law. As for financial legislation, it was out of all opestion and he thought that with the passage of ford to get away early, certainly not later than June 1.

Manufacturers who find the opportunity to personally ach the people at fairs made and managed on interest in and a demand for their products regard the national commercial trivelers fair as an unusually good chance to reach the business community, which is naturally greatly interested in its characteristics and its success. The prospectus of the fair was scarcely out of the hands of the fair's gen-eral marager, Mr. Alfred Chasscaud, before he had several applications from manufacturers for the reservation of space for the exhibits which they proposed to make.

The writer of one letter said: "Our firm would certainly in some way show its good will toward a class of men who we feel have contributed greatly to its success, and to degree that is not to be measured by the compensation that has been cheerfully and as liberally as possible rendered in the way of salaries and commissions. ENTERTAINMENTS OF THE NIGHT Stereopticon Lectures and Lecture with No Stereopticons. The series of attractions which Rev. A. W

Clark has planned and executed for the Child Saving and Gospel institute was well sustained last night in the giving of a stereopticon lecture by Rev. S. Wright Butler. The audience hall of the institute was well crowded long before the time to begin the lecture arrived, and toward its standing room was at a premium. Dr. Butler explained in detail over seventy pictures which were descriptive of a tour around the world. The starting point was made from this city, showing in turn several views of Omaha and the Douglas street bridge, Wash-Ington, D. C., and New York City were given and then visits paid to London, Liverpool and all the large cities of England. The lecture in turn included pictures of France, Italy and the largest cities of the Mediterranean, the Holy land, India, China and Japan and thence home to the starting The lecture was interspersed midway by short talks upon the object of the insti tute by Ben Stephens and Mr. Clark. The stereopticon was furnished and operated by Will J. Stevens. BURIES ANOTHER LAMP ORDINANCE. City Connell Files Away the Latest of a Numerous Issue.

The bicycle lamp ordinance which was inroduced some time ago as a successor to the one which was turned down last summer was placed on file by a unanimous vote of the city council at the committee meeting vesterday afternoon. This ordinance differed from the first ordinance mainly in the respect that certain down town streets were excepted from its operation. It was submitted to the council by J. W. Parrish, who was the progenitor of the other ordinance, and with the allegation that it had been diffeed on as satisfactory to the wheelmen. At the meeting yesterday afternoon representatives were present from nearly every action and are particularly effective in the whreelmen's organization in the city to protest against the ordinance. The discussion was rather personal at times, and was finally abut off by President Bechel, who instated that the council only had to do with substance and to be purely vegetable. They the metits or demerits of the ordinance and do not weaken by their action, but by giving did not care to hear personal differences tone to the atomach and bowels greatly ventilated. Mr. Parrish finally declared that the councilmen were afraid to vote on box. Soid by Kuhn & Co., druggist. the ordinance, and in order to accommodate bim it was placed on file by a unanimous vote. At the same time several members leclared that they would not vote for any odinance of that sort until it was approved
