BRAVE MARIE.

SHE SAVED HER SOLDIER IN THE OVE

◎೫◎~$~◎೫◎~$$$~◎₹◎~$-

BY EARL MAYO.

It happened in 1870, which is still epoken | he is of as the "terrible year" in Bols-le-Duc. The war between France and Prussia had raged oil about them, but not a soldler had look like such a monster after all. Now she been seen in the tiny village, for which replied readily: the possants daily thanked their stars. The old man who lived clone with his con Charles, in the chateau above the town, and who was still known as "le Duc." though his was still known as "le Duc," though his she added. title had vanished with his cetates long. She carefully related to the Prussians how

But one fine summer morning Bols-le-Duc wea startled by a sound of martial music toge. through the town. Up the hill went the Pruseland, and there before the old chateau the order to halt was given. The old sol-dler had seen their coming and had prepared, according to his own ideas, to receive them. From an upper window waved the colors of France, and as one of the Prus-sian officers started to enter the house, to learn the meaning of this hostile depay, he was met by the old man, who had dressed blimself in his ancient uniform and stood in hand, in the center of the room. 'Ah, Prussian olg!" exclaimed he, draw-No Prussian ever yet entered my house, nor shall while i questioner received a curt, almost savame the medical profession constituted 40 per live." His brave words exemed almost ridiculous

In the moment while she was waiting for him to meak Marie had had time to collect her with and to reflect that the man did not before, firmly believed that France was on the franc-tireur had taken the path that led the read to rule, but he scoffed at the idea. from the reer of the cottage to the forest. that the Prussians would ever invade French territory.

The girl answered his questions so reallly that it was hard for the officers to suspect her of deceiving him, but he ordered his men to make a thorough search of the cot-toge. They looked in closets and cupboards and a body of Prussian soldiers marshed and rummaged the loft. One of the men in through the town. Up the hill went the passing opened the oven door and glanced in. Marie's heart almost ceased beating, but she gave no sign of her alarm. Seeing nothing but the been of faggots the man closed the door. Marie could hardly keep from heaving a sigh of relief; it seemed in her own mind that she must give a shout of joy. As they were precaring to leave one of the men naked

"Shall we not fire the cottage? suspected of harboring a franc-tireur to burn his cottage as a lesson to him and a warn- No. 22 shoe, weighing fifteen pounds. ing his sword. "draw soid defend yourself, | ing to all others, but Marie's winsome man-

peasant girl, each man lifted his canteer prosperity of Marie Duret.

The landlady of the little vine-covered inn is inquisitive enough to ask what afterward the hill and ask for Monsieur le Maire and his good wife. There you will find Captain

TWIN TO THE HATCHET STORY.

A Very Old Fable of the Truthfulness of Confucius.

of the grass plat where its mother had left it, book. But all at once, as he glanced to-ward the baby again he say it making with all its tiny speed for a huge china basin full of water, which was always kept there from which to water the flowers. In water, and popped heels over head into the water, but in an instant sank, and only a tiny arm and the light dress were to be could over the top, trying in vain to catch

The boy had never been scolded in his life, but when he thought all at once how costly the great china basin which he had elf in his father's arms, and his father said: 'I praise you, my child.''

This boy afterward became the great concred by them through more than twenty

PRATTLE OF THE YOUNGSTERS.

Teacher-You are painfully slow with figures. Tommy. Come, now, speak up quickly, if your father gave your mother a $50 bill

"Papa," said the little girl, "who do you love best in all the world?"

Of course she thought she knew what he would reply, and he knew that she thought she knew it. Consequently he decided to climbed up in his lap.

"Papa," she said, "I wish you would ask

"Very well," he returned; "do you love me if I love you or mamma the best."

thought it all over, and then she and a $20 bill, what would she have?

her and moral teacher of his people.

ather, coming to look for him.

ight centuries.

Tommy-A fit.

tease her

Revenge is sweet.

'Daisy," he replied. Daisy was her sister.

The little head was still above the danger!

ame of the franc-tireur and the peasant at Bois-le-Duc tells this story stranger who visits the place. A Charles and the brave Marie."

girl she will unfold her hands and say and enthusiastically drank to the health and Marie watched the Prussians ride away,

ONE OF THE MEN IN PASSING OVENED THE OVEN DOOR AND LOOKED IN

when one looked at his white locks and and when they were well out of sight, she shiking band. The Prusslan officer smiled let Captain Charles out of his narrow hidat the thought of a sword combat with ing place. He had heard all that passed in him and would probably have withdrawn, the cottage, and he kissed Marie and called leaving the old man in peace, had not her a brave girl. Then he departed by the an overscolous soldier, thinking that his road opposite to that which the Prussians officer was in danger, rushed in and bayo-neted the old man as he stood. had taken, to join his men at their meeting place in the ferest.

Deted the old man as he stood.

The mistoke was unfortunate, but the Prussian command could not afford to waste the heroine of the town when her story was time over a single dead Frenchman. The made known. And in the depths of the forhouse was fired; the soldiers marched on, and by the time the rear of the column their campfire and their leader told of his disappeared over the next hill little but a narrow escape and the bravery of the little heap of smoking oshes was left on the spot where the old chateau had stood.

But the boy Charles, standing there bereverged upon the Prussians. From that moment he was a man, he had a purpose, On the afternoon of the day on which the Prussians marched through Bo's-le-Duc Charles learned from the villagers the abouts of the nearest body of French sol diers, and set off to join them.

It was soon discovered that the strange silent lad was a valuable member of the company on account of his knowledge of woodcraft and his absolute fearlessness. portant scouting duty was entrusted to him. and after a time he became the captain of franc-tireur. His little company was a constant aggravation to the Prussians, a very thorn in the sides of division commanders.

One afternoon, shortly after the second risit of the Prussians to Bols-le-Duc, little Marie Duret was alone in her parents' cot tage while they were at work in the fields. Marie was a comely little maiden, a darkeyed, nut-brown peasant girl, and though not a dozen summers had passed over her head, she was a neat, thorough-going lit-tle housewife. Although her home stood quite apart from the other cottages and not far from the great forest, so that it could scarcely be called a part of Bois-le-Duc at Marie had become so accustomed to time that she did not in the least mind the

"AH, PRUSSIAN PIG!"

Today she had set the house in order had swept the floor and had piled beside the large brick oven a heap of faggots against the morrow's baking. All her tasks completed, Marie took possession of a low chair and began sedately to amuse herself with a large rag doll, her one playmate and Inseparable companion

Now, it happened that on this very morn ing Captain Charles, the franc-tireur, havgone out on a reconnoitering expedition been cut off from his men by half a co Prussian cavalrymen, and had to rus for his life. The Duret cottage was the only one near him, and so, while Marie sat talking to her doll, the door was suddenly burst open and the soldier rushed in. Marie knew at once that it was Captain Charles, for she had often seen him about the village, and as she had heard of his brave deeds in aid of French, she was not in the least

"Where canst thou hide me, little one?" the man hurriedly asked. "The Prusslans are on my track."

Marie had heard those stories of the Prussions and her heart sank with fear at the thought of faring such monsters. Nover-theless she showed herself a brave little woman. For an instant she glanced help lessly around the room. Truly there were few hiding places in the little cottage. Then her eyes fell on the large baking oven and her busy little brain found a way out of the difficulty. She quickly bade the franc-tireur t inside the oven and then she filled it with mamma or me the best?"

Revenge is sweet; but, even so, a tender-hearted bit of humanity does not like to be the losse faggots.
Surcely was her work finished when she board a loud knocking on the door and a Prussian officer entered. He stopped bashed, when he saw only the little maid efore him. Perhaps the thought of some title girl that he had left behind in the atherland came to his mind, for the look in his eyes was quite gentle and his voice rembled in spite of himself when he spoke. "We saw a man enter this house just now."

- GRO−Í;- GRO−Í;Í;Í;- GRO−Í;- GRO−Í;- O

The other day she was endeavoring to repeat for the benefit of an admiring relative when she stumbled near the end of it. "Forgive us our debts," she repeated, "forgive us our debts, as-as usual, amen."

"Paw," asked the little boy, who had been tackling statistics in the daily paper, "how does it come that most of the whisky and beer is drunk by people in the temperate Dorothy had heard some one singing that dassical production the "Little Alabama Coon," on the street. Presently she came to her mother and asked:

"Mamma, what does 'swat' mean?"
"What do you think that it means?" "Well, I don't know, mamma, but I e'pose that 'swat' is colored for spank."

OUT OF THE ORDINARY.

Taking care of summer visitors is said to be the most profitable business in both Maine and New Hampshire. It amounts to $8,000,000 annually. Twenty-two feet of hard wood in eight hours, two cuts to a stick, is the record with which 70-year-old Eliphalet Smith of Biddeford, Me., challenges the wood-saw-

One reason why female physicians are so plentiful in Russia is that the country includes among its inhabitants over 12,-000 Mohammedans, who do not allow male physicians to treat women.

The British Grenadiers now possess the tallest soldier in the army. He stands six feet eight and three-quarter inches in his stocking feet, and, as he is only 23 years of age, may grow yet. He is an Irishman. A Columbus, O., firm has just finished a ing to all others, but Marie's winsome man-ner had touched the officer's heart and the habit collected from all parts of the world

> Perhaps the greatest engineering feat the world ever witnessed will be undertaken some time this year by Japanese engineers in building an immuse bridge high enough for ships in full sail to pass under across straits one mile wide to connect two is

The latest novelty in the way of a trotter is said to be a yearling bull in training at Garretsford, Pa. This phenomenon goes on a trot, makes no breaks and can step quarters in fifty-five and fifty-six seconds. He has shown a mile in harness over a half-mile track in four minutes.

A Rumford Falls (Me.) merchant, who had been sending clothing and other supplies o a poor family in the town, attended a theatrical performance the other evening and was surprised to see the objects of his beneficence—father, mother and four chillren-all occupying reserved seats.

Alderman Gebhard of Mascautah, III., Friday night presided at a novel entertainment. It was given in honor of opening a lodging house for the homeless. The guests were all trumps, gathered for the occasion, and, besides a sub-tantial supper, there was beer, wine and cigars for the aston-

A divorce suit at Topeka, Kan., the other day revealed the fact that Barber Conrad Meyer had 200 acres of farm land near Topeka, 300 acres in Oklahoma, several ierds of cattle and thousands of bushels of corn in cribs. He made it all in twentysix years in running a barber shop in a l'opeka basement.

The formerly despised sunflower is now regarded as a valuable, plant. Its seed makes fine feed for stock, its oil is equal to the best linseed, and its stalks are better for producing heat than coal. Now a western man thinks he can make a durable covering for bievele tires from the sticky the cottage, and he kissed Marie and called paste that exudes from the plant.

Oregon has an inventor who evidently nvented certain musical instruments Marie was the pride of her parents and the heroine of the town when her story was The strings are detachable, se that a mandolin can be used as a stewpan, the guitar for a ham broiler or fish frier OLD HOME OF THE M'KINLEYS when the franc-tireur gathered about and the banjo for the browning of fla

RELIGIOUS.

Seventy churches among the Co tionalists have adopted the individual communion cups.

the number of converts in China than dur ing the preceding eighty years. It is stated that from 30 to 40 per cent of the receipts for foreign missions comer from legacies. The American board receiver an average of eighty bequests annually. The new building for the United Hebrew Charities to be erected on Second avenue and Twenty-first street, New York, is the gift of Solomon Loeb, and will cost $150, years there has been a greater increase in

A very pretty story is told of the child hood of the great Chinese sage, Confucius It is stated that there are in the world who, it will be remembered, lived no rly 50.978 churches, 33,235 pastors and mission-3,000 years ago, and, for his time, was con-aries, 4,705,953 members, and 2,251,032 Sunday school scholars in the Baptist denomina s dered a wonderfully wise man. Here is

Several Boston churches have received One day, when he was only 6, the little number of Chinese into membership who have for the most part received their re-Confucius was sitting in the graden alone with his book and his pet kitten. Just the other side of a low hedge which grew be-tween the family graden and that of the ligious training in the Sunday schools of servants he saw the little child of the gardener kicking up its heels in the middle Lyman Abbott says "there is no joy like divinely joyful sorrow, as there is no strength like the divinely strengthened The little Confucius watched the pretty child a few minutes, then returned to his weakness. This is the paradox of Christian

The whole number of ministers of every enomination in the United States is 139,232 whole number of churches, 184,824; whole umber of communicants, 25 919,602. additions to all the churches in this country the space of a moment the little one crept to the very edge, spied its own face in the in 1897 were 630,951.

The membership of the Chicago central department of the Young Men's Christian basin before Confucius had time to realize association January 1, 1898, was 2,907, the largest membership of any association in this country. The total membership of all Chicago branches is 5,932.

Prof. S. V. Ravi, who is prominently en seen. The boy, still screaming, ran round gaged in the Protestant movement in Italy and round the basin, bending as far as he reports that there are in that country forty. seven native ministers, and that last year the little hand. Then he stretched out both 500 converts were made. There are threarms toward the setting sun as if asking Protestant evangelical congregations in Rev. A. E. Smith, pastor of the Metholist he'p and suddenly a thought came to him Rome. as if in answer, Gathering up some big stones lying beside the path, he dashed them with all his might against the china his pu church at Defiance, O., has announced from his pulpit that the high hat will no longer be tolerated in his church, and warned his basin, which broke at once in pieces like so much glass. The water ran out in streams, and in a moment the child was safe, crycongregation to hereafter leave them at home ing to be sure, but only from fright.

The little Confucius was leading him to

It is stated that much alarm is felt in high quarters in France over the number of his mother's house when he met his own Roman Catholic priests who are deserting the Protestant church. France says: "Never has such a deserric from the Catholic ranks been witnessed as is going on at the present time." broken must have been, his heart misgave him; but he told what he had done, and in-stead of being reprimanded, he found him-

An international Sunday school convention will be held in London this year. In 1899 an international council of the Congregational churches will be held in Boston, and the Presbyterian Alliance in Washington. In 1900 a world's convention of Christian Endeavor societies will be held in London.

A Jersey City pastor has started a gymnasium in connection with his church and has organized a dancing class at the very liberal terms of $1 for eight lessons. The modern two-step and the old-fashioned quadrille both appeal to him as proper exercise for Christians. The Christians have not protested up to date. The only compared not protested up to date. The only complaint omes from the regular dancing masters. Rev. Thomas Harrison of Shelbyville, Ind., who has just celebrated his 85th birthday, is in Englishman by birth and when he was about to come to this country many years ago he found two vessels ready to sail for New York City. One was strictly a temperance vessel, the other permitted the use of in-toxicants. He chose the temperance ship and reached New York in safety, while the other ship suffered a mishap and was lost at sea, over 100 persons perishing.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anyhody can try it who has Lame Back and Weak Kidneys, Malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to the Liver and Kidneys, is a block nowifier. CARPETS

FURNITURE IRON BED_Just right for the coming the coming sensun— light—clean—pretty chenp_white enamel_ trimmings, removal price 2.75

Sideboard in solid oak. piano polished_bevel-ed edge_French plate price 13. 25

ROCKER_Solid oak or mnhogany finish — up-holsternd in assorted colors_silk tapestry_ big bargain_removal price 3.95

BED ROOM SUITS_Very pretty designs well made bevel mirror size 20x24_highly pol-ished_removal price.. [4.[0 KITCHEN TABLE-You know what they are...

removal price COUCH_Upholstered in corduroy well sup-ported with steel springs pretty pattern removal price 8.75

COMBINATION BOOK CASE AND WRITING DESK solid onk plano pollshed_beveled mirror_removal price. 13,50 CENTER TABLE _ Very pretty_nicely finished _large top_solld oak_ removal price BED LOUNGE Very well made_antique frame_ removal price 9.75

If you have not the cash we will accept your promise to pay and arrange those payments to suit your convenience.

move one dollar's worth of goods. Everything Must Be Sold by Feb. 21.

AXMINSTER ... In beautiful patterns ... with or without border _removal price VELVETS - Very fine wearing carpet_exquisite design_on removal sale for only TAPESTRY - Brossells neat pattern-very serviceable - removal price ALL WOOL INGRAIN.... Very desirable pattern big value_removal price PART WOOL INGRAIN-Well made and will give you first-class satisfaction - removal price

29c MATTING_Jointless Jannnese matring_lines warp_removal price.. READY MADE INGRAINS _810 misfits_ingrain enrpet_removal sale

CROCKERY

Beautiful China Ten Set ...dninty decorations... removal price.. 1.15 100 piece English Dinner Set-guaranteed not to eraze_decorated_removal price

Toilet Set_nicely decorated_has slop jar_removal price DRAPERIES

THOUSANDS ARE TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THIS

.. GREAT REMOVAL SALE..

To furnish or add to the furnishing of their homes. Such a sale as this was never seen in Omaha before. It is one of those opportunities that so seldom present themselves. We have added four new salesmen to better enable us to handle the ever increasing crowds of purchasers. We have determined not to

LACE CURTAINS_Very pretty pattern - big bargain_removal sale price LACE CURTAINS - Fish nct_ruffle edge_re-moval sale price..... TAPESTRY CURTAINS. Beautiful pattern-nice. ly fringed - removal sale price BAMBOO CURTAINS_Very jretty and new-removal price ROPE PORTIERES_Closthis stock at BRASS RODS - removal price-per foot......

STOVES

QUICK MEAL Gasoline stove_absolutely guaranteed_removal price STEEL RANGE-the Star Estate_big cut in this class of goods_removal 26.90 STEEL OVEY-For gasoline stoves_nicely fin-ished_removal sale price

RANGE_6-hole and reservoir 22-inch oven worth about $40_re- 22.00

BASE BURNERS_High grade_former price $17.50_removal price.. 9.75

If there is a gap in your purse, our equitable credit system will fill it.

B SEMENT BARGAINS

Pan

Tins

Pans

Flour Sifters

Pins

Mashers

Pall

Pan

Basin

Pot

Baskets

each

Hods

Caus

MIII

Stove Polish

Board

Roller

Knife

Brush

.....

Pudding

Royal'

Rolling

75 foot

Pototo

Graters,

Covered

Brend

Wash

Coffee

on Wringers.

Package

Wash

Towel

Mineing

Serubbing

12c

3с

9c

10c

3с

5c

6c

6c

7c

15c

10c lõc

15c

It Still Stands in the Parish of Dervock. County Antrim, Ireland.

It is stated that during the last eight A QUAINT FARM HOUSE BUILT IN 1705 nder Its Thatched Roof the Ancestors of Our President Were Born-The Locality and Its Traditions.

In the county of Antrim-Ireland's northernmost district-there stands a comfortable old farm house, which until recently attracted little notice, but which has now become a place of much more than local fame. Parish oracles point out the homestead of distant Dublin. For this square built stone farm house was the cunabula gentis, or tax" in Antrim.

yock door. The old stone was formerly the Dervock with unction and errant Americans below the level of the stone, removed it and drift thither from Larne, Belfast and even had it set up as a seat. Then it was that on the reverse of the granite slab was disnursing home, of the house of McKinley, and "William McKinley, 1765," the date being

McKinley, pioneer of the family in America | In a small Irish country parish it is easy whose calm waters the fisherman is still believed to see at intervals all the spires and offinacies of some proud city of the forgotten past. One may hire a jounting car in busy Belfast and journey thither agreeably enough.

The farm house stands on a slightly rising ground. A bedge of tail the spires in the forgotten such homely genealogies. With the sesistance of the Protestant rector of Cushdun (Rev. Samuel Archae the front, until the long bohereen, or lane, with a sudden turn, brings the traveler into the trim enclosure, half lawn, half garder which surrounds the entrance door. Behind the house rise a brace of soreading elms and against their light green foliage the cold gray stones of Derwock stand out in stern but not unpleasant, relief. THE OLD M'KINLEY HOME. Two stories high, with narrow, small-pane windows and a sort of lean-to addition-such the outward aspect of the McKinley ttage. Up to a decade since the roof war picturesquely thatched, but the presen tenant tore away the straw and covered his home with more useful, but certainly less attractive, states. In the low doorway stands a "half-door," that hospitable Celtic idea, which keeps undesirable strangers out, while bidding a hearty welcome to the desirable. Beside this door, through which one gets a view of the neatly kept interior, stands an ancient gravite stone, now used as a seat, but which once occupied a more important found among the list of those to whole contract for the making of a road along the shores of Lough Neagh was issued in the shores of Lough Neagh was issued in the year 1688. In 1709 David McKinley to the family in the female line. A nearby to the family in the female line. A nearby of President McKinley had a dwelling or their farm, but no veetiges thereof re-

The existing structure was built in 1765, as one can see from the old stone seat hitherto alluded to as standing by the Derhearthstone of the farm house; but a former tenent, finding that his floor had sunk covered the exemption—"W. McK., 1765." Tradition confidently asserts that this means in the records of the parish church the christening entries of "James, son of William and Hannah McKinley of Der-vock." and of his brothers, John. Peter and William—all between the years 1705 and 1715. These were the children of that was easy to trace the modest story of times of 1798 threw in his lot, as did very

Kinley with the Dervock family.

Doubtless these ancestors churchyard has many McKinley tombs, and among them may be seen that of William of 1798

GOSSIP ABOUT NOTED PEOPLE.

Alphonse Daudet came to Paris in 1857 with two francs in his pocket. His literary in the Thirteenth Mis souri cavalry, in which fame was slow in coming, and for long he he served until the end of the war. Before lived a life of privation, and thoughts of he was finally mustered in he fought Indians suicide came to him. Even after he had on the plains for come time. When he first passed the period of his bitterest poverty was only five feet five inches tall, but when life was not reseate. For Edmond About, he was discharged he measured six feet one who in 1872 made an inquiry as to the in-come of various authors. Daudet wrote that two terms as sheriff of Andrew county and he received then about 5,000 francs a year ouperintended the hauging of the Infamous from his writings. In 1874 he published Bateman, the murderer of two little girls, in "Fromont Jeune et Risler Aine," which brought him great profit and renown. Since administration he was head janitor in the francs a year from his writings.

A New York man who chanced to trivel west in a car with William Gillett and his Secret Service company declares that the slever actor is more entertaining off than on the stage. He amused those sitting nearby with absurd comments upon people and pl-ces, and when the party got out at a station for a standard lunch the New Yorker chanced to have a place next Gillett. The eating room was crowded and time was short, so the accommodating maid who still fulfilling his functions at Tiverton. short, so the accommodating maid who served behind the counter, when handing the actor his piece of pie, pois d it in air and inquired whether he would "cat it or take it with him." "Well, miss, come to think of it," said Gillett, "with your permission I'll eat it first and then take it with me hands of the unspeakable Turk have filled so much newspaper space of late, is the father of two very remarkable children. Though neither Mr. Barr nor his wife have any special taste for music, yet their only son and daughter are prodigies in the art. The boy, a lad of 12 years of age, spends all the time he can steal from school in building pipe organs. He has already constructed, unassisted, a big and handsome instrument at his father's new country place at Wolding-ham, England, and while doing so, introduced many innovations that he claims are great improvements upon the oldstyle of con- since 1854. struction. The daughter is a gifted planist, who promises to take as high rank among the instrumentalists of her day as her father now holds as a novelist and short story dialect stories and readings have made her famous, is one of, if not the best, cooks in America. She has made money as well as a wide reputation from her beoks, but her pride is much sooner touched by reference to her soups than to her remances. When wearled with the pen she can always find solace in mixing a salad or compounding a gumbo and shows veritable genius in all that relates to sauces and savories. In the kitchen over a frying pan her keen sense of realizes what a remarkable gift this Louisiana woman porcesses. It is probably a combination of her couthern temperament and talents as a cook that cause Mrs. Stuart to be noted for her generous hospitality, and among her friends it is generally understood that where the authoress is, there good things years o

Dr. Nansen for so great a lion impressed too harsh.

'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell
'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell 'You won't set won't feel very, very badly if I tell those who met him in this country as being the old house. Some said that the McKinleys many Ulster Protestants, with the united lection. Hats, shirts, socks, underclothing, were a Scottish race that settled in Antrim Irishmen. He was a close friend of Henry gloves, and of course, his top clothes, were during James It's pantation of Ulster; others stoutly maintained that they were of pure stoutly maintained that they were of pure Irish stock, and merely a subtribe or branch party of yeomainty, commanded, carbussly of the great house of O'Neill. However this may be, it is fairly certain that upon Dervock farm and captured McKinley and he would go back cach time to his cher-Kinley, son of another James McKkaley, and called "Shamus Oge," or "James the Younger," settled upon the lands of Dervock. The name of "Shamus Oge" may be found among the list of those to whom a contract for the making of a road along.

And a quantity of rebel orms and ammunitished gray. It was not, indeed, until it came to a question of surrendering his bride or his to a question of surrendering his bride or his prejudice that Dr. Namsen could muster found among the list of those to whom a contract for the making of a road along.

Dervock has long record out of rebel orms and ammunitished gray. It was not, indeed, until it came to a question of surrendering his bride or his day he climps that to this day he climps tenation.

Dervock has long record out of the lands of Dervock has long record out of the Arctic explorations he wore no other color.

Among the old soldiers who appeared be fore the Maryville, Mo., pension board for examination a few days ago was John Lin-coln of Bolckow, Mo. Mr. Lincoln and his elster, Mrs. Washington Hoshor of Marvville were second cousins to Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Lincoln enlisted early in the '60s in the Fourth Missouri M. S. M. and served in that regiment for three years. He then enlisted 1878 he had received never less than 100,000 | customs house at St. Joseph. He is now 52 years old and bears a striking resemblance to the martyred president.

THE OLD-TIMERS.

William Earl Cook of Portsmouth, R. L. recently passed his 101ct birthday. He is said to be the oldest Free Mason in the

Mrs. Clarinda J. Lawrence of Nobility Hill in Mariboro, N. H., recently celebrated the 102d anniversary of her birth. She is related to the famous Trumbuli family of Connecticut, Governor Boutwell rounded out his 89 years last week-one of the six men who have been governors of Massachusetts born in 1818, viz: Boutwell, Claffin, Gardner, Andrew, Talbot and Rice. A lecture was given in Clucinnati the other day by Rev. Peter F. Fosseit, who was case a slave of Thomas Jefferson. The old man is $3 years old. He tells in-teresting anecdotes of the great statesman. Mr. Dieden, the senior member of the German Reichstag is 87 years of age, and hos sat in every session since the empire was constituted. He has also been a mem-ber of the Prussian Landtag continuously

The oldest noblewoman of England is Jane Catherine Dowager Baroness Carew, who was born in December, 1798. She was mar-ried to Robert Shapland, first Baron Carew, on November 16, 1816. The next oldest woman in the peerage is Lady Emily Folcy, of Stoke Edith Park, Herefordshire. She was born in 1799. It is related of President John Tyler's

Mrs. C. Parish, aged 84, who has lost three fortunes, been three times ahlp-wrecked on three different oceans and who kitchen over a frying pan her keen sense of humor expands. She can spin funny planta, tion jests and jingles by the yard, her dislect is as sweet as that of a "caneshed nigger," and hearing her then, the listener in San Francisco, to some of her friends. in Ean Francisco, to some of her friends, all of whom were over 70 years old. Two of the gentlemen, aged respectively 93 and 102, cent regrets, pleading business engage-

Mrs. Sallle Shiver of Aeree, Ga., now 90 years old, has, according to a local paper, 225 children, grandchildren, great-grand children and great-grout-grandchildren, and in addition to this formidable number seventy-five have died. Therefore, the total reaches the remarkable number of 310. There

