

SONS OF FIGHTING SIRE

Annual Convention of the Nebraska Division Meets Today.

MEMBERS NOW FLOCKING TO THE CITY

Officers and Many of the Delegates Already Present—Session of the National Encampment to Be Provided.

For the next three days Omaha will be the Mecca of the Sons of Veterans of Nebraska. This distinction has been thrust upon the city from the fact that during these three days the fourteenth annual convention of the Nebraska division, Sons of Veterans, will be held in this city. It promises to be one of the most important and bustling conventions ever held in the state by the order. Local members have been making extensive preparations in consequence in order to properly care for the delegates who will be in attendance.

The advance guard of the visitors arrived in the city last night, about a score of them being registered at the Mercer, the Dellone and the Barker hotels. The majority of those already here comprise the official staff. These include: District Commander Davis of Wilber, Quartermaster J. C. Holtz of Omaha, Secretary H. M. Tyson of Tobias, Mastering Officer E. H. Jenkins of Columbus, Senior Vice Commander M. R. Gilmore of Valley and the division council, consisting of George F. Wolk of Fremont, the grand marshal, J. M. Whiting of Hartington. The rest of the official staff consists of Junior Vice Commander S. T. Wiggle of this city and Division Captain J. A. Beck of South Omaha.

The first session of the convention will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the others will be held morning and afternoon for the next two days, it being expected that an adjournment sine die will be taken Thursday afternoon. This morning the division council will hold its regular meeting, examine the books and records of the officers, upon which it will report to the convention. All the meetings will be held in Woodmen of the World hall in the Crouse block, Sixteenth street and Capitol avenue.

There is a considerable amount of business to come up for consideration. Among the more important matters is a scheme to add an insurance department as a feature of the order. There is a plan on foot also to increase the per capita tax for the purpose of assisting the financial end of the order. There is likely to be a considerable amount of discussion upon both these matters.

Another piece of important business to be considered is in connection with the national encampment of the Sons of Veterans, which will be held in this city during the convention. This encampment was invited here by the state division, and therefore that body must make preparation for taking care of it properly. It will therefore make a plan of operations, which the local members of the order will execute.

While the delegates will be kept pretty busy in attending to all the matters that are to come up for consideration, they are also to be given a chance to enjoy themselves. On Wednesday night a banquet is to be tendered to the delegates at the Mercer hotel. It is in charge of the following committee, which also has made all the arrangements for the convention: W. H. Wiggins, A. O. Salisbury and A. H. Rawitzer.

There will be between 100 and 125 delegates in the body called together. The majority being from points in the state. They will represent about 600 rank and file, that being the membership of the Nebraska division. There has been a slight increase during the last year. Financially the division is in good condition.

Last night the visiting officers attended the regular meeting of Omaha camp.

BARTLEY STILL HELD IN JAIL.

Mandate from the Supreme Court Not Received in Omaha. "Forty days from the filing of the court," at the sitting of which Joseph Bartley was condemned by the supreme tribunal of Nebraska to undergo the sentence and penalty passed upon him by the district court in Douglas county, expire today. These forty days were supposed to limit the time of Bartley's stay in the Douglas county jail, but he will be among us, though not as yet at the place of his confinement, as he has not yet received a copy of the mandate from the supreme court ordering the removal of the prisoner from the jail to the penitentiary. It is apparent that he will not for some days to come. Last week Bartley's attorneys filed a motion for a rehearing with the supreme court, and this motion remains to be passed upon. It is understood that Clerk Campbell of the supreme court rules that the filing of the motion is a stay of the execution of the mandate necessary to carry the sentence into effect, and that there will be no issue until the motion has been disposed of by the court.

At the time the supreme court handed down its opinion affirming the findings and sentence of the lower court there were rumors that Bartley would make an attempt to escape from custody of the sheriff. It was said that he might take advantage of the decree of liberty that was accorded him during his confinement in the court and make his escape from the county jail. These rumors have so far proved groundless. When the sentence of the trial court was affirmed Bartley was short of his privileges and was removed to the strongest part of the jail. He is given no special consideration whatever. While his stay in Omaha may be a little more prolonged, he will be kept as secure as any other of the men detained against their will in jail.

Protests Against the Linemen. OMAHA, Feb. 15.—To the Editor of the Bee: It is high time that the shade trees of this city were afforded some adequate protection, by ordinance or otherwise. This devastating hand of the "lineman" has periodically, summer and winter, they are lopped and mutilated in the interests of the myriads of cross wires which run through their branches.

For years we had no trees. It was only by great expense, hard work and infinite pains, that our streets and parks were made beautiful and pleasant by their shade. Must we now quietly submit to this wholesale destruction of all their symmetry and beauty, for the convenience of a business system, which not only disfigures but endangers our city? I say no.

MEN'S CLAN TACKLES HAWAII

Debate on Annexation Affords the Entertaining Feature of the Night. The Men's Clan of Trinity Methodist church held a very interesting meeting last night. The chief feature of the meeting was the debate on the question, "Resolved, That Hawaii should be annexed." Dr. Teal and Oliver Auchmoody affirmed and D. C. Engler and A. C. Engler denied the question.

Mr. Auchmoody said that it was a question of either annexing Hawaii or allowing some foreign power to assume control of the islands. Hawaii in the hands of a foreign power would imperil our commerce and our safety.

It was the gist of Mr. Fowler's argument was that what we need is better laws and legislation and not more territory. With Hawaii annexed we would enjoy no more privileges than we do now. The sugar industry would be ruined and our population would be increased by the influx of the Hawaiian population. Under United States laws contract labor would be abolished and the result would be a great change in the population. When some other power gets Hawaii the United States will be compelled to defend it because of the protection assumed, so it would be better to annex it while it can be done in peace.

Dude and his party, said Mr. Engler, advised Queen Liliuokalani to establish a provisional government for the sole purpose of gaining Hawaii's admission to the United States. The Europeans and Americans in Hawaii are the persons who are to be annexed and they should not be allowed to overpower the majority, who are opposed.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Women's Christian association was held in the rooms of the association in the Paxton street building, Monday evening, Feb. 14. The reports of work accomplished during the month as read by Miss Cady were most gratifying. Among other announcements it was stated that 245 new members had been added to the roll during the month. An average of 173 per day. Thirty-eight educational classes were established, with a total enrollment of 1,000. The following brought out an attendance of 100. Following the reading of the reports it was decided to select six contestants for a membership contest, the one having secured the largest number of new names by June 1 to be given a life membership ticket in the association. Those who were selected by ballot were Miss Kate Swartzlander, Miss Grace Lillie, Mrs. D. J. Edwards and Miss Nellie Hallenbeck.

Following the business meeting of St. Valentine's party was given in the large room of the association by the members of the association. The evening's program was the Nichols acted as master of ceremonies. The program included "nuts to crack," "comedy," "cake walk" and refreshments in the shape of "baked hearts."

Prof. William Windsor, phonologist, opened several nights' engagement at Creighton hall last evening to a large audience. Prof. Windsor gave an exhaustive account of the field covered by phonology and illustrated his remarks by charts, skulls and the like. He discussed the phonology of the side of the study, and made plain to his audience many little details of vocal research, which heretofore had been veiled in obscurity in the minds of many.

The lecture was the first of a series which will be given, covering such topics as "How to become rich," "How to become famous," "Martyrdom" and others. The first three lectures will be free to the public. Among the novelties which Prof. Windsor introduced Friday night was the section from his analysis of young men and women whose temperaments are peculiarly adapted to one another and to whom he will refer as "magnetic couples." Last night the philosophy of magnetism and electricity was touched upon, and many humorous experiments resulted from the development of subjects from the audience. Prof. Windsor showed that magnetism was a controlling factor in the true law of attraction, as it exists between the sexes. The subject was explained more extensively in future lectures.

A pleasant musicale was given last evening at the residence of Mrs. M. M. Maul, 833 Park avenue, for the benefit of St. Augustine's mission. The event was a success in every respect. The church. The house was prettily decorated and every available space of the parlor floor was taken up by members of the church and their friends. The first vocal solo was by Miss Seward, a piano solo by Miss Seward, a vocal solo by Mrs. Thomas, recitation by Miss Madge Mayhall, vocal solo by Mr. Baker, zither solo by Mr. Lehman, piano solo by Mr. Weir. The second portion of the program was agreeably filled by Miss Bowen with a vocal selection, zither by Mr. Lehman, vocal solo by Mr. Baker, piano solo by Miss Seward, a vocal solo by Miss Bowen, recitation by Miss Mayhall and a vocal solo by Miss Helen Burnham. A short address was given by Rev. W. Howard, pastor of the church, and the entertainment concluded with refreshments.

Did You Make Your Grains—This Way? Here are the latest directions: Use one tablespoonful of Grain-O to two cups of cold water. Mix the Grain-O with half an egg and add the water. (Be sure to measure.) After the water gets to the boiling point let boil for ten minutes. Stir in a little cream and sugar to suit the taste. If you have not cream use milk.

A lady said: "The first time I drank Grain-O I did not like it, but after I had it for ten days and forming the habit, nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." This is the feeling of all. If you will follow the directions, measure it right time and make it the same, and try it for ten days, you will not go back to coffee.

Chief of Police Asks the Commission for More Men.

INSUFFICIENT NUMBER NOW ON HAND

Wants an Immediate Addition of Forty Roundsmen and Twenty Detectives—Board Takes the Matter Under Consideration.

At the meeting of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners last night a communication was submitted from the chief of police in regard to the insufficient number of patrolmen on hand. It recommended an immediate addition of forty patrolmen and twenty detectives to the force to adequately cover the city during the coming year. The statement was made that the present number of patrolmen is insufficient even under present conditions and that the force in active patrol duty did not at present exceed fifty men. Another portion of the plan is to appoint ten special officers next June who have had experience in the police service of other cities and who are familiar with the crooks of their particular towns. The matter was taken under consideration by the board.

Most of the session was consumed in a lengthy contest against the granting of a liquor license to Fred H. Krug at 1821 Charles street. The objections were raised that the site was within three blocks of the Kellom school, that it faced on New York street, a boulevard much frequented by driving, and that a saloon there would materially injure surrounding property interests. The proponents of the license were called into the hall and the defense produced W. F. Webster, who testified that all the names on the petition were properly bona fide, according to the records, and Charles Howe, who was able to state that he had seen all of the names on the petition signed by their respective owners. The point was made that the neighborhood was in a measure a business locality. The case was taken under advisement until the special meeting Friday night.

Jay McManara, a member of Hose company No. 4, was placed on trial for appearing in company quarters in an intoxicated condition. He was dismissed from the service on a plea of guilty. The complaint against James J. Norton of Engine company No. 4, charged with illegally assigning his salary was set for trial Monday night. The protest in the liquor case of James Barrett, 402 Hamilton street, will be heard next Friday night.

MRS. RORER ON LIFE AND COOKERY.

One Hundred Omaha Women Listen to Her Interesting Lecture. Mrs. Rorer opened her course of lectures yesterday afternoon at the Woman's exchange, on Seventeenth and Douglas streets, before an appreciative audience of over 100 women, who greeted her with the Chautauquian salute. Her subject was, "Simplicity in Cooking."

She commenced her lecture by stating that everything she gave would be from a hygienic and scientific standpoint. That the American people live too high and if she could impress upon them the importance of keeping their health, as well as their money, she would feel that she had done a good work. We should build up and not tear down. The other part of the lecture was the family, should make it her special business to build up her own family. One of the children born into this beautiful world is to waste through ignorance of their value. During the course of her remarks Mrs. Rorer prepared several dainty and palatable dishes. The first, a corned beef with very simple and especially desirable for children. The next dish was some meat balls from the tough parts of the beef, followed by some cream custards, French omelet and omelet souffle. Mrs. Rorer said several times during the afternoon that cooking was really very easy work and that it was a real treat to her to cook dinner for ten or twelve persons. The dishes prepared were passed among the women, who pronounced them very delicious.

The next lecture will be given this afternoon, from 2:30 to 4, followed by the first of the evening lectures at 8 o'clock, to which men are invited.
