

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYD'S PATTON & BURGESS EXTRA MATINEE MAR. 8 & 9

MR. RICHARD MANFIELD

THE DEVIL'S DISCIPLE.

BEAU BRUMMEL.

A PARISIAN ROMANCE.

Prices—$1.00, 75c, 50c, 25c. SEATS NOW ON SALE.

BOYD'S PATTON & BURGESS THURS. Mch. 10

Edward Harrigan and a specially selected company.

"Old Lavender"

A play abounding with humorous situations, witty sayings, new music, catchy songs, rollicking melodies, odd characters.

Prices—Lower floor $1.00 and 75c. Balcony 75c and 50c.

BOYD'S PATTON & BURGESS MARCH 11-12

ROLAND REED

A MAN OF IDEAS

Presenting—FRIDAY AND SATURDAY MATINEE—his latest success

THE WRONG MR. WRIGHT.

Prices—Lower Floor, $1.50, $1.00—Balcony, 75c, 50c.

9th Great Week THE GREIGHTON Telephone 1531.

WOODWARD STOCK CO.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy"

By special arrangement with MRS. HODGSON BURNETT.

SPECIAL FEATURES McCarthy and Reynolds, The Le-Roy and the De-Fillips.

Next Sunday—"THE ENSIGN" THE PILOT OF THIS PLAY

ALL THE TIME. COMMENCING MATINEE TODAY

MUSIC.

The advent to this city of a company giving performances of a grand opera will be held at the First Congregational church at 11 o'clock on Thursday.

Many Evidences of Prosperity Noted by an Observation.

W. H. Robertson, speaking of trade for the week, says: "Citizens of Omaha who have any doubt remaining as to the forward movement of the march of prosperity in this community must be very blind, or entirely wanting in powers of observation."

THE NEW MERCER,

12th and Howard Sts., Omaha.

THE MILLARD

13th and Douglas Sts., Omaha.

HOTEL BARKER

COR. 13TH AND JONES ST., OMAHA.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids for the construction of the North and South Park Colonades will be received until 11 o'clock a. m. on Thursday, March 10, 1910.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids for the construction of the Dairy building on the exposition grounds will be received until 11 o'clock a. m. on Thursday, March 10, 1910.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed bids for the construction of the Dairy building on the exposition grounds will be received until 11 o'clock a. m. on Thursday, March 10, 1910.

LEGAL NOTICE.

A dividend of five (5) per cent will be paid to holders of approved claims against the German Savings Bank of Omaha upon presentation of the same to the bank at my office on and after March 15, 1910.

Results Tell, The Bee Want Ads Produce Results.

There are three little things which do more work than any other three little things created by man's hand and mind.

"College Days," a new play by her brother Burr McIntosh.

Ada Lewis took Flo Irwin's place in the other night as "The Widow Jones" in Johnstown, Pa.

Januszek begins a starring tour next week in a new play, "What Dreams May Come."

Otis Skinner has not had an unfavorable "notice" since he has been presenting "Prince Rudolph."

The Kendals expect to produce Walter Frith's new play, "Not Wisely, but Too Well," with Keene.

Thomas W. Keene let his moustache grow last summer, having been accused of resembling W. J. Bryan.

Mary French Field, daughter of the late Eugene Field, has been reading from her father's works in Boston.

"Second Childhood" the name of Charles H. Hoyt's new play, in which Harry Gilfoil will have an opportunity.

Helen Bertram is to be the leading soprano of the Bostonians next season, replacing Albert Nielsen.

Myron Leffinkoff has written a Cuban play, "The Dawn of Freedom," which was produced in Boston the other night.

Lotha Crabtree has just bought $250,000 worth of real estate in Omaha, and is to her already large holdings in that city.

"Blue Jeans" was presented the other day in Nottingham, England, by Laura Durr and others, and was received with favor.

Richard Mansfield secured the American rights to the play "Cyrano de Bergerac," which Henry Irving will produce in England.

Jane English, a member of "The Telephone Girl" company, is said to have inherited $25,000 by the death of an aunt in Toledo, O.

Kathryn Kidder has fully recovered from her recent illness, but has made no public announcement of her plans regarding the stage.

Comedian "Johnny" Wild, who was for many years one of the favorites of Harrigan & Hart's company, died last week in New York.

The clergymen of Denver have been hearing about "The Conquerors" and others, and are doing their best to suppress the stage altogether.

Trubshaw Shattuck admits that she is endeavoring to make a record in the city, and her name has been most prominently connected with her.

Charles Frohman has secured Hoyt's New York play, "The Sign of the Cross," for the Madison Square. He will take possession September 11.

Sidney Ellis' "Darkest Russia" was originally produced on a Friday, the thirteenth of the month, and there are thirteen letters in the name.

Plays which Mr. Mansfield is getting ready to produce in course of time are "The First of May," "The Sign of the Cross," and "King Frederick William II."

Frank C. Bangs, the veteran actor, who last appeared here a season or two ago in "Alabama," is conducting a school of acting in New York.

The Boston Lyric company, which sang here last week, will go direct from St. Paul to Boston, and will open a six weeks' engagement there.

Echegaray's "El Gran Galeoto" was produced last Monday evening at Berkeley lyceum, New York, by the Criterion independent theater.

Louis Vuesse, an agile knockabout performer, has succeeded Eddie Foy in "In Gay New York," which has become of Foy is not accurately known.

Lillian Russell disappointed an audience last night in her time in Lowell, Mass., and much money had to be refunded to heart-broken admirers.

Instead of a monument to William Terriss, the murdered actor, his friends are building a monument to his name on a dangerous place on the English coast.

Sousa's royalties are about $25,000 a year. In addition to this tidy income, he derives something from his pen, and has written some of the most popular music of his second career.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

by three notes arpeggio of the chord of G. It does not seem to agree especially well with the title because of its military character.

The second theme is very much of that which Wagner composed Paganini's "address" in "Die Meistersinger," but in this case to represent a feeling of longing for desire.

The second movement, usually dramatic, is in three-four time, very energetic and comparatively simple in construction.

In the midst of it occurs a melody for the first and second violins in which the use of harmonics, the melody being sustained by the cellos.

After ninety-six bars a return is made to the original tempo, and with this the part concludes. The next movement is an andante sostenuto which may be characterized as melodic with a variety of cadences.

There is rather an extensive use of the melody, carried by the first violin, is accompanied by the second in a way to remind one of Keiser quartet, by Haydn.

The melody is given to the viola with a peculiar triplet accompaniment that the first violin plays on the second note in each group.

The last movement is in a sort of tempo, and is very robust in manner with the first theme of the first movement. It ends with the same theme developed into a brilliant coda.

The orchestra is difficult. In order to be effective it would need to be played by a skillful band of musicians.

Hamerick, conductor of the Symphony Orchestra of that city. He is a well known composer for orchestra, and a selection from his Norwegian suite was performed in Italy last year by the Musical Society orchestra.

HOMER MOORE.

De Kotski, at one time court pianist to the czar of Russia, and now 81 years of age, made a concert tour of Siberia last year.

Mr. J. E. Butler will give another organ recital at the First Congregational church, at 4 o'clock, assisted by Mrs. A. G. Edwards and Mr. G. W. Manchester.

Maude Valerie White, well known as a composer of English ballads, has just finished a serious study of the art of endeavoring to have it produced in London.

Paxter Perry, the well known blind pianist, is now in Paris and will probably, while here, give some of his lecture recitals.

Perre, an American and a pioneer in the field of lecture recitals.

Calve has commemorated her financial success in opera by building a home for orphan children, which she has named in honor of these little unfortunates whom she is supporting and educating.

Catherine Fisk, the American contralto, is now in London and will probably, while here, give some of her lecture recitals.

At a recent performance of "Faust" in the Metropolitan opera house, New York, Mme. Melba sang even more brilliantly than usual and won the honors of the evening.

She has in a new way, and with the help of the valley and also a silver loving cup.

Beethoven's Fifth Symphony will soon be performed in New York by the American Symphony orchestra under the direction of Sam Franko and Mr. Krebber, musical editor of the Tribune, will illustrate the performance by delivering his lectures "How to Listen" and "How to Enjoy Music."

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

Robert M. Weil joined the Boston Lyric Opera company in New York last week, and on Thursday, Mr. Weil has been prominent in musical circles for some time, and was engaged until recently as tenor of All Saints church in New York.

Emma Eames has been studying the music of "Henry VIII," composed by Saint Saens, and has decided that the roll of Catherine of Aragon does not suit her.

A concert was recently given in Paris in the interest of the French colonies, and the language in the colonies, "The Rheingold," by Wagner, translated into French by Ernst, was chosen for the performance.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Advertisements for these columns will be taken until 12 m. for the evening and until 8 p. m. for the morning and Sunday editions.

WANTED-SITUATIONS.

WANTED WORK BY NEWSPAPER WOMAN and compositor. H. G. care Box. A-3673-7.

SINGLE MAN, SWITZER, UNDERSTANDING milking, tending horses, farm work; wants a steady place. H. J. Box. A-3674-7.

DRUG CLERK, 15 YEARS' EXPERIENCE, registered pharmacist in two states; salary $2. Address H. G. Box. A-3675-7.

WANTED-MALE HELP.

CANVASSERS TO TAKE ORDERS; NEW LANG of work; no heavy goods to carry; salary on commission. C. T. Adams Co., 424 So. 14th. B-140.

SALESMAN FOR CHAIRS, BE A MONTH AND experience old firm; experience unnecessary in new firm; to customers. C. C. Bishop, 449 So. 14th. B-141.

AGENTS AND BRANCH MANAGERS; SALARY and commission. Hunter Tailoring & Suit Co., Cincinnati. B-142.

WESTERN SHAMPOOING CO., COUNCIL Bluffs, Ia., wants Nebraska representatives, reliable, energetic men, to make weekly. No peddling. Write, W. H. MBS-4113.

WANTED, SALESMEN, BEST SALARY, 1200 Farmington, Mo. B-143.

WANTED, FIRST CLASS SALESMAN FOR Lubricating Oils, Greases and Specialties. Largest line on the market. Selling System, 1000 East 10th St., Cleveland, O. B-144.

WANTED, GOOD INDUSTRIAL MEN TO operate the Graphophone Exhibition, with the Graphophone Talking machines, show the records, and give the best of the Graphophone, no soliciting and no previous experience necessary; man, 20 years of age, must be a native-born American citizen. Address, H. G. Box, 424 So. 14th. B-145.

WANTED, SALESMAN TO SELL CHAIRS TO house and apartment houses. Selling System, Consolidated Chair Co., Minneapolis, Minn. B-146.

MANAGER TO TAKE CHARGE OF EXHIBIT at the Trans-Mississippi Exposition, with some capital and take an interest in the business; eastern corporation must have office in the west. Address H. G. Box. B-147.

WANTED, AGENTS TO SELL MURRAY HALLS and Great Chicago Book, all about the city. If one agent sold 10 in one day, another $100. If in one hour, 500 more, immediate illustration, photographs, etc. No price; no guarantee the most liberal terms. Send 2-cent stamp to pay postage. The Little House, 241 Dearborn. B-148.

WANTED, THREE GOOD MEN IN OMAHA and few in other parts of the state to take orders for one made to order suits at $25 to $50. No previous experience necessary. Address American Woollen Mills Co., Chicago, Ill. B-149.

WANTED, GOOD GENERAL BLACKSMITH; must be good on plow work. Address with map and reference Wm. Schuchert, Western, N. D. B-150.

A SALESMAN TO SELL CHAIRS TO DEALERS; salary, $500 to $1000 per month and expenses; experience unnecessary. Address, The De Mora Chair Co., Springfield, O. B-151.

25 PER HUNDRED PAID FOR YOUR NEGOTIABLE notes and bills, all about the city, with full instructions, sent for 10 cents; also 10c of 100 other notes, sent for 10 cents; also 10c of 100 other notes, sent for 10 cents; also 10c of 100 other notes, sent for 10 cents. Star Co., 1642 Ohio St., Chicago. B-152.

MUSICIAN WANTED; STENOGRAPHER WHO can play clarinet or saxophone in band; none but good musician wanted; write quick. C-284.

MAN WITH PAIR EDUCATION CAN ENJOY a high interest in good paying business; 20 agents. Address H. G. Box. B-153.

WANTED, YOUNG MEN TO LEARN THIS better than any other position; permanent positions guaranteed; time donated; wages Saturday; outside included free. Modern System Barber Schools, Chicago or St. Louis. B-154.

SALESMAN WANTED, 120 MONTHLY AND expenses; no previous experience necessary. Address, Seymour-Whitney Co., 2, Chicago. B-155.

GOVERNMENT POSITIONS; NOT PREPARE for the position or other civil service examination; no previous experience necessary. Address, W. A. Vandercor, 1000 Broadway, New York. B-156.

WANTED, MAN WITH ABOUT 900 CASH AS helper, part inside work, or I will pay salary of 150 month and part expenses for man and money, state age. Address H. G. Box. B-157.

BY DIVINE HEALER SCHLADER, A RELIABLE manager with unquestionable references as an expert in all matters pertaining to the tract can be arranged by addressing Mrs. August Schradler, Sioux City, Ia. B-158.

WANTED, YOUNG MAN WHO UNDERSTANDS something of tinners' trade. Address W. W. Conter & Co., Plattsmouth. B-159.

WANTED, SALESMEN EVERYWHERE; $1000 a month; no previous experience necessary. Address, The Lustrous Co., Chicago. B-160.

WOOD-CHOPPERS AT 100 PER CENT; NEAR South Omaha, 12, Moore, Bellevue. B-161.

WORK AT HOME FURNISHED PEOPLE OF either sex at good wages. For full information address Ladbroke Art Co., Kalamazoo, Mich. B-162.

BOYS WANTED TO COLLECT NAMES. Steady work. Address Empire Novelty Co., Joliet, Ill. B-163.

EVERYBODY—MEN TO ADVERTISE "LIFE" the modern science; secure sales; orders; distribute circulars; place samples; orders. The Lustrous Co., Chicago. B-164.

WANTED—SEVERAL FAITHFUL PERSONS to manage our business from their own homes; no previous experience necessary. Address, The Dominion self-addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion self-addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion self-addressed stamped envelope. B-165.

WANTED, TWO FIRST-CLASS EXPERIENCED salesmen to sell staple line direct; salary monthly, $500. Address H. G. Box. B-166.

WANTED, MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTIONS. 50-100 copies of "The Life" magazine, sent for 10 cents. Address, The Lustrous Co., Chicago. B-167.

100 TIMEKEEPERS FOR AFRICANS, 5 YEARS' work; 1000 timber; weekly pay. In Eberge, 11th and Fort. B-168.

A BRIGHT BOY TO HEAD 70 AND WALK with a loaded truck at near Hansen park. Call foreman only at 1511 South 20th St. B-169.

WANTED-FEMALE HELP.

100 GIRLS FOR ALL KINDS OF WORK. B. D. Co., 1000 Canadian, Office 121 Douglas. C-41.

WANTED, COMPETENT GIRL, WITH references, for second work. 112 Park Ave. B-170.

WANTED, FIRST CLASS COOK, APPLY Mrs. W. H. McCord, 224 Cass. C-61.

WANTED, GOOD SEAMSTRESS, MEDIUM size; good pay. Address H. G. Box. C-62.

LADIES TO ADDRESS ENVELOPES, CIRCU- lar and write for us at home; reply with self-addressed stamped envelope, for reply. Standard Novelty Co., 101 Beckman St., New York. C-63.

ELDERLY LADY WANTS YOUNG LADY FOR help nursing and cooking. Apply 204 West building. C-64.

LADIES TO DO PLAIN NEEDLEWORK AT home; no previous experience necessary. Address, International Co., 25 Third Ave., New York. C-65.

WANTED, COMPETENT SECOND GIRL, 25 Farmington, Mo. C-66.