COLLISION ON MOTOR LINE

Northwestern Freight Train Backs Into OBJECTIONS FILED AGAINST PAVING. Car and Querturns It.

W. B. WESTCOTT OF THE BEE BADLY HURT

He Has Fourteen Teeth Knocked Out and Sustains Severe Internal In-Juries_Two Other Persons Slightly Injured.

A rather serious accident occurred at the Broadway at 10 o'clock last evening, which resulted in the overturning and partial and injury of a number of the passengers. ductor Arthur Gaines and Motorman W. H. Hennesey. The train was returning from Hennesey. The train was returning from the complaints of the property owners. The Omaha and had stopped at the railway crossductor Gaines had gone ahead to ascertain if the track was clear and not observing any approaching trains, gave the signal to go ahead. When the motor car had Some time was spent by the council in reached the center of the network of railway tracks he perceived coming out of the darkness a freight train backing down.

the car and all more or less hurt. R. B. Westcott, a reporter for The Bee, was on the train returning from Omaha to his home in this city and was the most seriously hurt. He was sitting on the north side of the car and when the tumble came he was thrown upon the opposite side, striking with great force upon his head. When taken out he was found to be stunned and partially unconscious. An examination showed that fourteen teeth had been Unucked out and he had received severe internal injuries.

Eugene Ingoldsby sustained a slight scalp ound where his head came in contact with the glass. He was sitting on the south side of the car and had but little distance to fall and would have escaped injury alto reiher if one of the passengers on the upper side had not fallen upon him. Only one of the women, Miss White, of 109 South First street, was hurt, and her injuries were confined to bruises about the knees. Both the women were placed in backs and sent to their homes. The injuries to the other passengers were confined to slight scratches and consusions. The passengers were com-pelled to walk the entire length of the car over the broken glass before they could get

The damage to the motor was confined almost wholly to smashed windows and scarred paint. Motorman Hennesey remained at his post and was the last man to leave the car. The shock of the colli-sion was felt by the engineer in the cab of the switch engine and he instantly apotherwise the accident might have had fatal characteristics.

The motor company endeavored to locate the responsibility for the accident last night, but did not altogether succeed. Conductor Gaines claims that he gave the motorman the signal to stop in ample time to avoid the collision and the motorman claims that received no signal to stop.

Inquiry at the home of Mr. Westcott at it o'clock last night elicited the information that he was in the care of physicians, who had not been able to determine the full extant of his injuries.

Result of the Primaries Saturday Night Upsets Calculations. The result of the republican primaries on Saturday night continue to be subjects of much discussion. Not in recent history of the republican party in Council Bluffs has there been such an outpouring of voters at the primaries. It was a noticeable fact that hundreds of voters were present who had not been in the habit of attending primary elections, and all of these were extremely for the city convention. It was also noticeable that there was a large number of voters present and taking an active interest who have been for years acting with the other parties. In only a few instances were the regular sets of delegates selected by the party managers carried by the votes at the There has been a disposition to change the arrangements made early in January which provided for the renomination of nearly all of the present city officers to the positions they now occupy with the exception of Mayor Carson, who was to be given the po-sition of judge of the superior court, the best office within the gift of the city republicans. Other strong aspirants have since appeared for this place and about all of the other places. Senator N. M. Pusey is a strong candidate for the judgeship, and will go into the convention with a strong backgo into the convention with a strong back-ing. Hazelton, who was to be given another term, which would be his fourth, as city solicitor, is now compelled to face the com-bined opposition of at least half a dozen enthusiastic aspirants, chief among whom are H. J. Chambers, C. O. Wheeler, G. W. Scott, W. S. Baird and A. W. Askwith. Each of these candidates undoubtedly has suc-ceeded in securing a large following and a corresponding number of delegates in the convention, which makes it a free-for-all fight to the end. For mayor the candidates are fully as numerous. The arrangements that have met numerous. The arrangements that have met the approval of a number of the party managers provides for the nomination of Dr. H. B. Jennings. He has, however, encountered a great deal of opposition at the start which will not be quieted. A good deal of this opposition comes from the friends of Alexander Wood, a strong candidate whom the republicans of the First ward have put forward for the mayoralty. The chief part of the fight in the First ward primaries arose over the prestige Mr. Wood had gained as a candidate, and the feeling has resulted in creating two factions in that ward which creating two factions in that ward which admit of no compromise. This adds another element of uncertainty to the result of the convention. The friends of both Jennings and Wood were working very hard all over the city yesterday endeavoring to arrange matters with the delegates, with the ad-vantage claimed to be somewhat in favor of

Wood.

Concerning the offices of treasurer and city auditor there is less doubt of the result than in any others. Both of the present incumbents, J. A. Gorham and W. L. Evans, will certainly be renominated.

The same rule was intended to apply to the city engineer's office and Mr. Tostevin was scheduled to go in again without opposition, the republicans relying upon the splendid record for economy and efficiency he has made; but within a few days another candidate, E. W. Blanchard, has arisen and was able to marshal sufficient strength to get some of his friends on the delegations selected on flaturday night. Mr. Blanchard is at present engaged on the ex-

with device an arrange process of the second of the second years of experience as a practical engineer, chiefly, however, in the construction of railways. He was one of the engineers who laid ways. He was one of the engineers who laid out the lines of the Oregon Short Line.

The ward nominations for the council made at the primaries on Saturday night appear to give general satisfaction, but the selection of Lewis Hammer in the First ward was the only nomination that was made without a stiff fight.

STRONG OPPOSITION DEVELOPS ITSELF

Fierce Attacks Are Made on the Measure and the Charge is Made that Polities in Behind It.

DES MOINES, March 7 .- (Special telegram.))-The opposition to the board of control bill is not dying as easily as had been expected after the signal victory won for the measure on Saturday. The measure came up have as yet been heard from. The count will at the opening of the afternoon session and was debated for two hours, without a vote being taken on a single proposition. Senator Connor, republican, and all the rest of their Lewis of Poweshiek offered a substitute for ticket, with the exception of Thomas Deven-der, republican, for treasurer, and three of provided that nominations for places on the board be made by the governor and confirmed by a two-thirds majority of the eenate after reference to a committee of five. The substitute provides that the board shall be elected by the house and scnate, in joint convention, without nominations by the governor. Lewis spoke in favor of the measure and was followed by Ranck, who, stating that he was in favor of the amendment, moved that it go over till the next day for consideration, so that it could be printed in the journal and given careful consideration by the members. Junkin, for the felends of the bill, opposed such a procedure; he demanded action at once. Mullan favored letting the matter go over; he, too, is opposed to the bill. Titus spoke at length along the same lines and incidentally replied to some of the scathing criticisms that Senator Healy had indulged in, of himself and other opponents of the measure. He declared that the committee scheme of confirmation would make a political machine, composed of the lieutenant governor and the five members of the special senate committee on confirmation. such as Tammany might be proud to have lovented. it would be a machine for political power such us the state had never kno Pusey opposed delay and Eaton made a

At 4 o'clock, when the senate adjourned by limitation, the debate was still in progress. Tonight a bitter fight is in progress. Tonight a litter light is in progress in the hotel lobbies, where most of the scrators are gathered, discussing the bill. The effort is being made by Rauck, the veteran democrat of the senate, to line up his party associates in favor of the Lewis amend. Sniff, publisher of the News, was damaged ment. If he should succeed it would make last night by some drunken man or some the vote very close; but he had apparently person with a real or fancied grievance. The made little progress at a late hour. OMAHA BURGLAR HELD IN CHICAGO

William Ryan Caught at the Bedside of His Dying Brother. CHICAGO, March 7.—William Ryan's visit to a dying brother was cut short today by detectives, who arrested him for robbery. The arrest was made in response to a telegram from the chief of police of Omaha Detectives found Ryan at his brother's home, 5600 Center avenue. The police do not know any details and Ryan denies that he is guilty. The prisoner's brother, John Ryan, is slowly dying of consumption.

Ryan probably will be allowed to remain in Chicago until his brother's death, which is hourly expected.

William Ryan is wanted in Omaha for the burglary of the residence of Mrs. Effe Kelly, 920 North Twenty-second street, on with three men and two women Ryan is said to have broken into the house during the absence of Mrs. Kelly and to have stolen a fur cape, $50 in money and two hats. The gang was cornered in a house in the same neighborhood by Detectives Hudson and Sullivan and a desperate fight ensued. The party was finally overpowered and arrested with the exceptions of Ryan and John, alias with the exceptions of Ryan and John, alias "Shandy," Campbell, who made their escape through a rear window. Campbell was arrested in this city a few days are, was disrested in this city a few days ago, was dis-charged on a complaint charging burglary and has been rearrested on the charge of accersory after the fact. It is thought that the same parties were implicated in the burglary of Baldwin's grocery store on North Twenty-fourth street. In this case five bolts of linen were stolen and the women are thought to have taken active part in breaking open the store and carrying away the goods. The latter are Naomi Alphman and Jane Anderson, both of whom are awaiting trial before the district court. Ralph Messersmith and John Murphy, other members of the crowd, are likewise awaiting trial.

The defense set up by them shifts the blame on the shoulders of Ryan, the man arrested yesterday, and the police have evicloak for $1.25 to a second-hand dealer. Detective Donahue left last night to bring Ryan back to Omaha.

special Cotton Colors of the Fast Ding mond Dyes That are Entirely Unlike all Other Methods of Dyeing. Thousands of ladies in Nebraska now fully inderstand that dyes prepared for coloring woolen goods cannot be used successfully, for the coloring of cotton and mixed goods. The manufacturers of Diamond Dyes have long ago overcome the difficulty, and now their special cotton colors are chemical triumphs. The cheap imitations have one all-round dye that they claim will color wool, cotton, and mixed goods. The result is that thousands of women are sadly disappointed when they use these crude dyes for coloring cotton and mixed materials. The users of these imitation package dyes get blotchy and muddy colors that cannot stand smilight or wear

The sixteen special cotton colors of Diamond Dyes are wonderful discoveries unknown to makers of common dyes. Every, color is clear, deep, brilliant and fast as a rock. When you are about to dye cotton or mixed goods, ask your dealer for the Diamond Dye Cotton colors, the only reliable cotton colors in the world.
