JONAR'S WARNING TO NINEVER.

Rev. L. P. McDonald Applies an Anclent Lesson to Modern Conditions.

At the Church of the Good Shepherd yesterday morning a large congregation listened to an address by Rev. L. P. McDonald of Council Bluffs, who had exchanged for the day with Rector George Edward Walk. Dr. McDonald's sermon was of a lenten charac ter and the text was chosen from the passage in Jonah which ends, "And yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown." The musical numbers were good, especially a solo by Miss Parthenia Bowman.

Dr. McDonald compared the time of warn-ing given to the ancient Assyrian city with the Christian period of preparation which is now observed by the church. He spoke of now observed by the church. He spoke of the good example set by the clizens of Nin-eveh on that occasion in promptly turning from their evil lives. The speaker described the events immediately preceding the warn-ing of Jonah. The prophet had been di-rected to proceed to Nineveh with the an-nouncement of the cliy's doom, but had lost heart and flad toward Tarsma After his heart and fled toward Tarsus. After his experience on the sea he received his new instructions with obedience and carried then out accurately. "It was a startling message to deliver to a rich and powerful city," said Dr. McDon-ald, "that destruction awaited them after

The meeting is called to protest against the colored postmaster of Lake City, S. C., Frasier B. Baker, and his family. At 7:30 o'clock Major Stillwell presched to a large congregation at the Knox Presby-terian church at Nineteenth and Ohio streets. He dwelt largely upon the success the Salvation Army had achieved in the great work of lifting up fallen men and women. The audience showed its apprecia-tion and sympathy with the Salvation Army by contributing liberally to the collection. Connor, Omaha.— Dear Mr. Connor: I received yours of the lith instant concerning the appointment of polee commissioner for the term beginning April 1, 1858. I have announced today the reappointment of Mr. Herdman. After care-fully considering the matter. I thought that this recognition was well deserved by Mr. Herdman, and that any other course would likely be a source of party dissension and weakness to us in Douglas county. The term for which Mr. Herdman was first ap-pointed was very short, and it would be manifestly unfair to him to have installed a successor at this time. In making this announcement I beg to assure you of my personal esteem for you and my high ap-preciation of your ever loyal support. I understand well the importance of your remarks concerning the re-election of Sena-tor Allen, and I sincerely hope that all our friends in Douglas county will unite in a strong effort to send an Allen delegation to our next legislature.
