REPUBLICANS ARE AROUSED Result of Monday's Election Points Out to Them Danger. SUCCESS OF THE DEMOCRATS IS A SURPRISE Members of the Party Realise the Necessity of Hard Work and a Strong Ticket to Avoid Worse Defeat.

The result of the school election on Monday was the subject of a great deal of earnest consideration in political circles yesterday. The democrats naturally felt very jubilant and looked upon the election of all but one of their candidates as an augur of the same degree of success in the coming city election. The republicans felt no disposition to concede this, but realized that the situation was of sufficient gravity to call for careful thought and the same kind of action in the convention this afternoon. There was a general feeling all over town that the democratic victory was the indication of a revolt against the domination of the republican party by a few men who have een consumed with an ambition to hold all of the offices themselves or dictate who should hold them. The fact cannot be dis-guised that this feeling was prevalent around all of the election booths on Monday and that the warning conveyed will be heeded. The republican party is stronger in Council Bluffs today than it was a year ago and there is no reason why a winning ticket should not be named this afternoon. But to ac-complish it there will have to be some radical changes made in the slate that was pre-pared and exploited as long ago as last Dr. V. L. Searles; treas-conferences held yesterday between party y, E. A. In-leaders and delegates to the convention and the conclusion was reached in every in-stance that the ticket to be put forward must be a new as well as a strong one. Many names were suggested for the various places and before night there was almost a definite agreement reached concerning nearly all of the candidates to be placed before the convention with the support of a majority of the delegates. An entirely new man was brought out as the candidate for mayor, Hon. A. T. Flickinger. No conference was held with him by any of the men who were seeking a solu-tion of the present difficulty, but when his name was mentioned it met with instant and hearty approval. During the latter part of the afternoon the matter was mentioned to him and caused some surprise and a positive efusal to be a candidate. His name had not been mentioned in connection with the office and he had not had an opportunity to think it over. Republicans feel that he is not only an available man but will make a strong candidate. He is the kind of a man in every respect that the people of the city desire for marger this work.

desire for mayor this year. The remainder of the ticket received the same thoughtful consideration with the sime result that new men were advanced for rearly all of the offices. For judge of the superior court there was some division of opinion among the leaders and the dele-gates, many of them favoring C. O. Wheeler, ing equally positive that Senator N. M. Pusey was the strongest man. Mr. lusey is undoubtedly remarkab'y well qualified to fill the office and would bring to the support

DUBUQUE LAWYER IS SHOT DEAD.

Murderer Fires Six Shots and Makes His Escape. DUBUQUE, March 15 .- (Special Telegram.) -Six shots rang out at 5 o'clock this evening and the startled occupants of an office building rushing into the apartments of Captain William O. Lavake found the young was the trustee system and not the perlawyer lying dead on the floor. No revolver was found in the room and it was supposed he had been murdered by a stranger who had been seen rushing out of the hall and walking rapidly toward the bridge across the Mississippi. A stack of bills was found on Lavake's table and it is supposed he de-manded payment of a bill and that in the quarrel which ensued the stranger shot him. It is reported the stranger was a physician living in an interior town. The lawyer had met him on the street, invited him into the office and was heard to say: "I demand pay-ment of that bill." The officers are hunting or the physician.

Lavake was commander of the local camp of Sons of Veterans and was active in local politics. He was the partner of Senator Malloy, his cousin, and his brother is in the wholesale millinery business in New York City. The police late tonight, arrested Jack Mc

Geary, a blacksmith, who answers the de-scription of Lavake's murderer. Lavake had filed a claim against McGeary's mother for legal services and the police say the attorney had been dodging the blacksmith for some days. The murderer shot Lavake through the forearm and hand which he had raised to protect himself, then sent a bullet through his heart and a fourth through his brain.

BEAT OPPONENTS ON NEARLY ALL POINTS

Believed That the Bill Will Pass the Senate on Thursday or Friday-Schedule for Extraordinary Appropriations.

DES MOINES, March 15 .- (Special Telegram.)-The senate has reached section 24 of the board of control bill. Much of the measure must be reconsidered and several amendments taken up which have been passed over. But good progress has been the order. The opposition has been defeated at practically every point and has become moderately docile.

Trewin today introduced an amendment to strike out the clause to legislate the present superintendents into office for the next six in Iowa. years. He urged that the board should not have its hands tied at its inception if any institutions were governed by incompetent officials. The friends of the bill asserted it sonnel of the management they had criticized. The amendment went over till tomorrow. Pusey endeavored to strike out the provision that in cases where unidentified insane signed contract to pitch for Ottumwa.

patients are sent to state hospitals, where their maintenance would be charged to th state, their removal must be ordered by the board. Friends of the bill contended it was intended to prevent neighboring states from unloading their pauper insane on lowa. The amendment was defeated and the committee had won another victory Senator Funk this afternoon offered an amendment to section 1, making the salaries uniform at $3,000, the president being pro-vided $3,500 under the bill. This will tend further to harmonize the conflicting interests, and it is now believed the bill will pass the senate by Thursday or Friday. EXTRAORDINARY APPROPRIATIONS.

The senate apropriations committee has agreed upon the following extraordinary appropriations: County fair bonuses, $6,000; veterinary surgeon, $5,000; soldiers' home, none; Benedict home, $5,000; Institution for the Feeble Minded, $7,500; Cherokee asylum, passed: Agricultural college, none; College for the Blind; $3,500; School for the Deaf, Council Bluffs, $1,750; Orphans' home, $5,300;

KILLS MAUFACTURING BILL.

Speaker Funk made a ruling today on the manufacturing bill, the real purport of which did not seem to be realized when it was announced. The measure was reached on the calendar, when Potteri asked that it be passed till tomorrow without losing its place appropriation will be taken away from each county and spent at Des Moines, and all the good we farmers will get out of it will be what we can absorb from the one delegate provided for in the bill from each county to attend the big winter two days' long in-stitute they propose to hold at Des Moines. We say kill such a bill and do it now, and we know of no other way than above stated." from the decision and the chair was susained, many members the force of the ruling. In effect it means that the bill goes now to an unfriendly committee, which will doubtless hold it till so near the close of the session that it will fortune, is about to come into possession of the property and title. Sir Andrew Bed-ford, late of Warwickshire, England, has reached Iowa in search of her. Friday he went to Des Moines, after requesting the chief of police here to find her if posoccasion to discuss the merits of the bill, remarking that it would, if passed, place a brewery on every four corners in the state. Ex-Speaker Byers was in the house today and says he made no such ruling at the last session. There is much feeling among the friends of manufacture, but it is gener-ally conceded that manfacture is killed by it for this session. Had it been understood as it has before it is very doubtful if the chair could have been sustained. ford then went to Roland, Story county, to the home of Mrs. Ballard's father-in-law, and Mrs. Ballard goes there tomorrow for the purpose of proving her identity. Some good northwest Iowa man will have a chance at the vacant place on the rail-road commission, left by the sudden death of Commissioner C. L. Davidson today. News of Mr. Davidson's death was received late in the afternoon and was very soon known throughout legislative and polit-ical circles. It caused a shock to all who heard it, for Mr. Davidson had been regarded as a man of excellent health and in appearance was the picture of strength.
