Barrett, who was nominated by ac-clamation for mayor, was born at Harper's Ferry, Va., in 1856. Owing to the war and the strong union sentiment of the Barrett number was 1,941. the strong union sentiment of the Barrett family a removal to Pennaylvania was made in 1860, and it was in this state that the present candidate was reared. He received a high school education in the Keystone state, residing in the same locality for about twenty years. Mr. Barrett moved to Ne-braska in 1875 and has been a resident of Douglas county for twenty years. He was for a long time delivery clerk for the Union Pacific Railway company and later on en-gaged in the undertaking business. For the last seven years he has been employed by william H. Maxwell was re-elected su-perintendent of the public schools of Greater New York last week. The position was of-fered Dr. Draper of the Northwestern uni-versity, but declined. Mr. Maxwell hos been superintendent of the schools of Brooklyn for three terms. He is 45 years of age, a nativo of Ireland, son of a Presbyterian minister, and a graduate of Queen's unisaged in the undertaking business. For the last seven years he has been employed by Swift and Company. Only three times in his twenty-two years' residence in Nebraska has Mr. Barrett's name come before the people for office. Ten years ago he was a candidate for county coroner but was defeated by John Drexel the democratic nominee. Even as long ago as that Mr. Barrett carried South Omaba by 300 majority. One year ago he was the unan-imous choice of the republican party for councilman from the Second ward and was elected by 100 majority in this domocratic
