Senator Pusey's Victory.

A telegram from Senator Pusey yesterday afternoon announcing that the Iowa senate had passed the exposition appropriation bill, with the amount fixed at $20,000, was received with a good deal of satisfaction all over, and was especially commended by the men who have known all along the extent of the struggle Senator Pusey has been compelled to make to secure any increase at all of the amount set aside for the Iowa building and exhibit. It is well known that if it had not been for his unflagging determination to secure a decent sum the state's appropriation for the great exposition would have been only the amount first named.

COLONEL DAILEY IS DEAD

Succumbs to an Attack of Pleurisy of Long Standing.

GALLANT SOLDIER ANSWERS THE CALL

Wounds Received in Bloody Battles Add to the Weakness Which Ends a Life of Unusual Activity.

Colonel D. B. Dailey died at his residence, 916 Second avenue, at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after an illness that had confined him to his bed almost continuously since the middle of January. Death was due to an acute attack of pleurisy which followed a severe cold last November.

Colonel Dailey's health has been frail for several years, and although he recovered almost wholly from the serious attack in the autumn, his physical condition was greatly weakened, and when he took cold again in January a second acute attack of pleurisy followed which involved the affected lung to such an extent that it ceased almost wholly to perform its allotted functions. Abscesses formed of a septic character, which quickly broke down his constitution. His condition has been such that his death has been momentarily expected for several days and the final struggle was not unexpected.

Dennis B. Dailey was born in Ireland, November 15, 1840. When he was 6 years old he came with his parents to this country and remained with them in Ohio until he arrived at manhood. He attended school at a number of the Ohio educational institutions, notably at New Richmond, the State Normal school at New Lebanon, and finished his education in the Antioch college while Horace Mann was its president. After his school days were over he studied law in Lebanon in the office of Sage & Corwin, the latter being the famous Thomas Corwin. He did not complete his legal studies, however, until he came to Council Bluffs, where he was admitted to the bar in 1867.

Colonel Dailey enlisted April 19, 1861, in company B, Second Wisconsin Volunteer infantry, and served in the ranks for nearly a year, when he earned promotion to the rank of second lieutenant, which occurred September 16, 1862. On June 2, 1863, he received his commission as first lieutenant. On May 22, 1864, he was made captain and on December 21 of the same year he was commissioned major of the Sixth Wisconsin Volunteer infantry. On August 1 of the same year he was breveted major by the president for continuous and meritorious service in the Army of the Potomac. Twenty days later he was breveted lieutenant colonel for gallant conduct at the battle of Yellow Tavern, Va. On March 8, 1865, he was appointed president of the military commission and on March 31, 1865, he was breveted colonel for gallant conduct at the battle of White Oak, on the Boydtown pike, Virginia. At the end of his term of service and the war he was appointed provost marshal on the staff of General Cutler.

SAW MUCH FIGHTING.

Colonel Dailey was in command for a short time of a battalion of New York sharpshooters. At the battle of Hatcher's Run he was in command of the One Hundred and Forty-seventh New York Volunteer infantry. During the war he served on the staffs of Generals Morrow, Cutler, Bragg, Crawford and Warren. At Blackburn's Ford, July 18, 1861, he received a dangerous wound. He was also in the first battle of Bull Run, July 21, 1861; Cedar Mountain, August 12 and 13, 1862; second battle of Bull Run, August 29 and 30, 1862; White Sulphur Springs; South Mountain, September 12, 1862; Antietam, September 17, 1862; Burnsides' campaign against Fredericksburg in December, 1862; Chancellorsville, in May, 1863, and innumerable skirmishes during the same period. In the spring and winter of 1863 he made a swift and very effective campaign in charge of an independent expedition through Virginia along the Rappahannock and Potomac rivers. He was in all of the campaigns through Maryland and Pennsylvania. At the battle of Gettysburg, where he was in the charge of the Iron brigade against Archer's brigade of confederates, he captured Archer and received his sword, which is still one of the treasures of the Dailey household. Later in the day he received a dangerous wound and while lying helpless on the field was captured by the enemy, but managed to escape and rejoined his command. As soon as he was able to leave the hospital he took part in the battles of Mine Run, Brandy Station, Rappahannock Station and Raccoon Ford. He was in every engagement in the battles of the Wilderness, where he was again wounded sorely, but refused to leave the field. In front of Petersburg he was again wounded. In recent years he has suffered greatly from these wounds. At the close of the war he was serving as chief of staff of General Crawford of the Fifth army corps.

CAPTURED A BRIGADE.

At the battle of Weldon Road on August 21, 1864, Colonel Dailey was a member of General Cutler's staff. The confederate general, Hagood, had reached the rear of the federal lines. As the federal soldiers approached the federals were led to believe that the rebels were approaching to surrender and did not fire upon them. The confederates were not aware of the fact that they were in the presence of an enemy in strength and position to overwhelm them. Dailey realized the situation and leaving the federal lines alone rode straight into the confederate ranks and stopped before the color bearer. With the utmost coolness he ordered the command to surrender and took the colors from the soldier. The whole command had actually surrendered and was stacking its arms when General Hagood rode up and seeing his command had actually surrendered to one man with only a small skirmish line of bluecoats visible demanded the return of the battleflag and ordered his men back into line. Dailey was instantly surrounded by the enemy, but he sat as cool and undisturbed as if on dress parade and tried to convince the rebel general that he was within the union lines. Hagood realized the situation and informed the young officer that he admired his courage to such an extent that he would allow him to return to the federal lines if he would relinquish the flag. This Dailey refused to do and General Hagood was obliged to shoot him with his revolver. Dailey fell from his horse, which Hagood seized and rode away. After the war was over General Hagood made an especial effort to discover the name of the young officer and when he had succeeded and learned that the wound he had given him had not proved fatal wrote a long letter, in which he expressed his admiration for the gallant deed and his joy at finding that Colonel Dailey was living and well. The two men continued to be regular correspondents and warmest friends.

HIS LIFE IN COUNCIL BLUFFS.

When the war was over Colonel Dailey returned to Council Bluffs and resumed the practice of law, forming a partnership first with Finley Burke. He has been one of the most honored and respected citizens of the city and at any time could have had any office in the gift of the republican party. He refused all nominations except for the position of district attorney, which he filled for two terms. He was a man of sterling honesty and highest character. In 1874 he was married in this city to Miss Mary E. Warren shortly after her graduation from the city High school.

Colonel Dailey leaves a family of wife and six children, all of whom are here. There are four sons and two daughters. Warren Dailey, the eldest son, is a bright young law student. Robert, who has been engaged in commercial pursuits in St. Louis, returned home in time to be at the bedside of his father at the time of his death. The other two boys are young and in school, as are also the daughters.

Counterfeiter Dunn Escapes.

A telegram from Deputy United States Marshal Chester, dated at Burlington, last evening, conveyed the information that Ed F. Dunn, a counterfeiter, whom he was taking to the penitentiary at Fort Madison, had jumped from the train just before it reached Burlington and had succeeded in making his escape. Deputies Chester and Delmege were taking Dunn, Whittlesey and several other prisoners whom Judge Woolson had sentenced to imprisonment, to the Fort Madison prison. No details were given in the telegram beyond the mere announcement that Dunn had jumped from the train. Dunn was convicted of passing counterfeit money and using confederate bills to defraud. He was sentenced to eighteen months and a fine of $600. Just before Dunn was taken away Special Agent Donella of Omaha secured permission from Marshal Christian to take Dunn to a photograph gallery and have his picture taken. At the time it was looked upon as a rather unnecessary proceeding, for Dunn was the very personification of meekness and innocence. The attaches of the marshal's office are now extremely glad that the pictures were taken, otherwise only a written description of the man could have been given.

House Cleaning is On

And the discovery is made that a number of the old pictures that merit or association render priceless are incased in frames no longer worthy of them. No picture is worthy of a poor frame at the present time, when the Council Bluffs Paint, Oil and Glass company's art department is filled with a stock of moulding that is being made up at prices beyond any kind of competition. The art department of this establishment is a most attractive place at all times, and is very enticing just now.

LAST DAY FOR REGISTRATION.

Now or Never if You Want to Vote Next Election.

Today will be the last day when it will be possible for voters who have neglected to register to do so without an affidavit. No affidavit can be accepted from voters who have been in the city during any of the days of registration, unless that voter should conclude that his vote is of sufficient importance to justify him in committing perjury. To vote by affidavit he must bring before the properly accredited officers two citizens, who are freeholders, and who must be able to swear that the voter was out of the city during all of the days of registration. Here are three chances for making mistakes that the law can regard as perjury. The registration has been very complete, but there are undoubtedly a large number of voters who have changed their places of residence since the election last fall, and they should take advantage of the last opportunity which is offered today to make the proper corrections. The registration boards will be opened at 8 o'clock this morning and will sit until 9 o'clock tonight at the following places:

Burglars Foiled.

Burglars made an unsuccessful attempt last night to rob the residence of J. J. Brown, on the corner of Seventh street and Fifth avenue. All of the members of the family were absent during the early part of the evening. Shortly after 9 o'clock Mr. Brown returned and entered the house by the front door. Going to the rear part he found a basement door opened. The door had been locked upon the inside and the key left in the lock. It had been turned from the outside with nippers. The only means of getting into the upper part of the house from the basement was by means of a door opening from the kitchen into the basement. This door was locked and the burglar evidently had no key that would open it, but would soon have had it open, as he had removed the bolts in the hinges. He was evidently at this work when Mr. Brown's entrance via the front door frightened him away. Nothing was taken.

Abuses His Wife.

John Bell was taken from his home at No. 5 Grace street and locked up upon complaint of his wife, who alleges that he threatened to kill her. On the preceding night Mrs. Bell called upon the police for protection from her husband, whom she declared was engaged in smashing all of the furniture of the house. Friends interceded and young Bell was not locked up. He was drunk on both occasions. A charge of disturbing the peace was placed opposite his name on the police blotter.

Railroad Assessments Completed.

DES MOINES, March 25.—The executive council sitting as a Board of Railroad Assessors today completed the assessments of the railroads of the state. The aggregate is left at about the same as last year, $44,000,000. The Chicago & Northwestern is increased about $150 per mile on its main line; the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern was increased about $50 a mile; the Rock Island and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy were slightly decreased. These changes were made necessary by the development of the northern Iowa lines as compared with the southern Iowa lines.

Leaves Bills Behind Him.

SIOUX CITY, March 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Some Sioux City people are wondering about the whereabouts of a young man giving the name of Frederick Payne. He came to Sioux City about a week ago and has cut quite a dash since that time. He was introduced as the son of a St. Louis millionaire and he spent his money lavishly at church fairs, etc. Now he has gone, supposedly to Omaha, and leaves a hotel bill of $40 and one firm loser by a bicycle. Payne is quite a young man, dresses well and has a clever manner.

Senate Agrees on that Amount for the Omaha Exposition.

AMOUNT IS YET LIKELY TO BE INCREASED

House Will Insist on $30,000; Bill Will Be Sent to Conference and Compromise Be Made on $25,000.

DES MOINES, March 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The Omaha appropriation bill was passed by the senate today and the amount fixed at $20,000. The senate committee on appropriations yesterday agreed to report in favor of $10,000, a small majority favoring that amount. When the bill was called up today by Chairman Garst, he offered on behalf of ten members of the committee, an amendment to fix the amount at $20,000. Senator Pusey of Council Bluffs made a strong address in favor of the amendment and was followed by Senator Bolter, democrat, who also urged the appropriation. He said he would prefer to give the full amount carried by the house bill, $30,000, but it could not be carried. On roll call the $20,000 carried by 37 to 12, those voting against it being Bell, Berry, Craig, Everall, Finch, Harriman, Hotchkiss, Kilburn, Lewis, Lyon, Wallace and Wilson. Blanchard was absent. The bill then passed without a dissenting vote. The amount was fixed at $20,000 on a tacit understanding that the house should insist on its $30,000 and a conference should decide on $25,000 as a compromise. This will undoubtedly be the final adjustment.

The Whelan resolution passed the senate in the forenoon. This is the second legislature it has passed and therefore the proposition which it involves for an amendment to the constitution will be submitted to the people at the next general election. The proposed amendment is to provide a new basis of representation in the house of representatives. It provides first, that each county shall have one member, making ninety-nine in all. Then the population of the state shall be divided by the number of counties, any county which had in excess of one and three-fifths times the resulting quotient shall have two members. The total is limited to 115. Under this system the northwest and west parts of the state will have a considerable increase in representation and there will be 108 or 109 members of the house, as against 100 at present. The bill to appropriate $30,000 for the State Memorial building in Des Moines passed the senate with little opposition.

CLEARING UP THE CALENDARS.

Both houses made good progress in the direction of clearing up their calendars passing numerous small bills. The house passed the Ellison habitual criminal act, which carried in the senate two or three weeks ago.

A resolution was presented in the senate asking the secretary of the navy to name one of the new cruisers the Des Moines. It was laid over till tomorrow.

In the afternoon Titus tried to induce the senate to fix next Wednesday as the date of adjournment. The senate declined to either pass the resolution on the ground that it would rush business in a dangerous fashion or appoint a sifting committee. It was declared that a sifting committee is always a bad expedient unless it is absolutely necessary, for it places in the hands of a few men the power to decide what legislation shall or shall not come up. The senate will try the experiment of closing a session without such a committee. The house, however, appointed a sifting committee consisting of Eaton, Klemme, Lambert, Johnston, Prentis, Brighton, Penick, Classen, Letts and Dows.

Mead, near here, burned with all its contents, eight head of horses, some of them valuable race stock, some hogs and cattle, 800 bushels of corn and a quantity of hay and farm machinery. There was no one at home when the fire broke out. It is supposed to have been fired by tramps or some malicious person.

RUSSIANS ORDER CHINESE TO GO.

Celestials Do Not Stop on the Order of Their Going.

LONDON, March 26.—The Russians, according to a special dispatch from Shanghai, having ordered the Chinese to leave Port Arthur, the mandarins and soldiers are bolting pell-mell with their baggage to Chee Foo, Niu Chwang and Ta Ku.

Three of Russia's largest battleships, says a special dispatch from St. Petersburg, will shortly proceed through the Bosphorus for Chinese waters.

The Pekin correspondent of the Times explains that his statement of Thursday as to the concession to Russia of a twenty-five-year lease of Ta Lien Wan as an open port should have read as an ice-free port. He adds:

At the sung li yamen yesterday (Thursday) further conditions were agreed upon respecting the Ta Lien Wan lease. Russia agrees that the port shall be open to ships and the commerce of the whole world, with a customs tariff similar to that of a Chinese treaty port, although its administration and collection will be the same as at any other Russian port.

China having represented that Ta Lien Wan is certain to supplant Niu Chwang as the chief port of Manchuria and to cause a loss in the imperial customs revenue, Russia undertakes to contribute to the Chinese government the balance of the customs collected at Ta Lien Wan, after payment of expenses.

Though this arrangement is obviously temporary, the Chinese are much flattered by the concession. The conditions generally are cleverly designed to conciliate the trading nations, while Russia will consolidate its power and strengthen its base prior to the absorption of Manchuria. Russia has notified China that Japan has withdrawn objection, in consideration of Russia's withdrawal from Corea.

PEKIN, March 25.—The tsung li yamen, it is reported, has notified M. Pavloff, the Russian charge d'affaires, that China virtually accedes to the Russian demands.

Several important modifications have been made, it is said, in the original proposals, but the Russians and the tsung li yamen are keeping profound secrecy on the subject for the present.

Prince Kung has retired from the presidency of the tsung li yamen and has received ten days' sick leave. The sickness is probably diplomatic and due to his dissatisfaction with the trend of events.

VIOLENT STORMS IN ENGLAND.

Trains Blockaded and Many Disasters Along the Coast.

LONDON, March 25.—The storms continue throughout the United Kingdom. Railroad trains are imbedded in heavy snowdrifts, telegraph wires are down in many parts of the country, people have been frozen to death while traversing the moors, a hurricane has swept all the coast and terrific seas have been running. Channel service has been suspended. There have been numberless wrecks of small croft, the lifeboats and the rocket service have been busy, many people have been rescued from drowning and the shipping is everywhere seeking shelter. Much damage has been done at the harbors, piers have been swept away and the high tides are flooding the streets. A Swedish brig went ashore near Grimsby this morning. Its crew perished before assistance could reach them.

The greatest anxiety is felt for the safety of the fishing fleets.

Victoria Salmon Pack.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 25.—Statistics of the Victoria salmon pack for last season, just compiled by Messrs. R. P. Rithet & Co., gives the following totals: Fraser river pack, 880,459 cases; Skeena river, 65,905; rivers inlet, 40,305; Naas river, 20,800; Lowe inlet, 10,666; Namu harbor, 4,355; Alert bay, 8,602; West Coast Vancouver island, 4,434; total pack for the season, 1,015,477 cases, compared with 601,570 cases the previous season. Shipments made during the season were as follows: By sea to England, 733,704 cases; overland, 43,330; to eastern Canada, 130,815; to Australia, 28,579; to other destinations, 226. Four thousand, eight hundred and twenty-three cases were sold locally, and salmon dealers have stock, amounting in all to 74,000 cases, yet on hand.

Steamer China a Total Wreck.

PERIM, Island of Perim, March 25.—It develops that the steering gear of the Peninsula and Oriental steamer, China, Captain De Horn ashore on Azalea Point, has been carried away and that its double bottom has been pierced forward. The company's steamer Carthage, and the government steamers Orlando and Mayo have left Aden to assist the stranded vessel. The mails, baggage, specie and the 402 passengers on the China have been landed here. It is full of water, and Lloyds' agent says it will probably be a total wreck. The China sailed from Melbourne on March 2, for London. It was built in 1896 at Belfast, its hailing port. It is of 7,899 registered tonnage, and of 4,165 net tonnage. It is built of steel and has ten compartments.

Raiding Chinese Villages.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 25.—The Chinese colony here has received advices that the "hakas" are again raiding in the three districts of Sun Ning, Ying Ping and Hoi Ping, they having already raided the town of Hong Mai and massacred all its inhabitants. "Haka" is explained as a synonym for "stranger" applied by the inhabitants of the Chinese coast districts (the bonda) to the barbarous people of the hills, with whose customs they have for centuries been in antagonism. The "hakas" are said to be armed with American magazine rifles and are reported to be marching on to the large city of Foo Sak, the peaceful Chinese flying in terror before them.

Gives Employment to Workmen.

ROME, March 25.—In the Chamber of Deputies today Admiral Brin, the minister of marine, replying to questions, declared that the sale of certain Italian war ships to foreign governments would be favorable to the country, and give employment to workmen in building fresh ships. Several deputies opposed the sale.

Government Is in Ignorance.

LONDON, March 25.—In the House of Commons today George N. Curzon, the parliamentary secretary of the foreign office, said the government had no confirmation of the news contained in a Peking dispatch to the London Times published today to the effect that China has agreed to all the Russian demands.

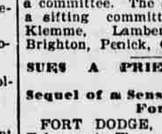
Pneumonia



This dreaded disease is often the result of a simple cold, which being neglected, rapidly develops into pneumonia. It is especially prevalent at this time of the year and should be guarded against by wearing a BENSON'S Plaster over the chest. In all Throat and Lung affections, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, etc., BENSON'S Plasters afford immediate relief. Accept no substitute; serious results may occur by wearing a plaster which the druggist claims (falsely), is just as good. BENSON'S CURES—Substitutes do not. Price, 25 cents.

"Painless and Delightful Catarrh Remedy" is the good word which John MacInnes, Wathaback Bridge, N. S., has to say of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder, after having suffered from Catarrhal Deafness for years. In 10 minutes from the first application he had relief and after using but one bottle his hearing was restored in all its natural acuteness. Not an excuse for despairing of a cure with such a remedy within reach of you. Kuhn & Co., 15th and Douglas Sts. Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., 1513 Dodge St.

Intelligent people in this day and age almost without exception, protect themselves against smallpox, by vaccination. Consumption kills in a year more people than smallpox, cholera, yellow fever and all known plagues kill in fifty. Tens of thousands of intelligent people recognize that they are threatened by this deadly disease, but take no precautions against it.

Consumption approaches its victim step by step. First there is a little "out of sorts" feeling, the digestion isn't just right, the appetite falls off, the liver is inactive, the assimilation of the life giving elements of the food is imperfect, the blood gets impure and the body is improperly nourished. These conditions get worse and worse. The heart through the arterial system is pumping thin, poisonous blood into every organ of the body. The organs that are inherently weakest break down first. Ordinarily the lungs. As the last straw that breaks the camel's back comes a cold, however slight. This, with the accompanying cough, completes the work and an invasion of the germs of consumption follows. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. It corrects the conditions that lead up to it. It is the greatest blood-maker and flesh-builder known.

K. C. McLin, Esq., of Kempsville, Princess Anne Co., Va., writes: "When I commenced taking your 'Discovery' I was very low with a cough, and at times spit up much blood. I was not able to do the least work, but most of the time was in bed. I was all run-down, very weak, my head was dizzy, and I was extremely despondent. The first bottle I took did not seem to do me much good, but I had faith in it and continued using it until I had taken fifteen bottles, and now I do not look nor feel like the same man I was one year ago. People are astonished, and say, 'well, last year this time I would not have thought that you would be living now.' I can thankfully say I am entirely cured of a disease which, but for your wonderful 'Discovery,' would have resulted in my death."

MEN CALL WOMAN A MYSTERY.

So She is to Them—Not so to a Woman.

A Woman's Knowledge Saves Mrs. Ebbert From an Operation.

A woman understands women as a man never can hope to. For this reason Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., now known all over the English-speaking world, set to work to help her sex.

After long and patient investigation, Mrs. Pinkham confirmed her own conclusions, namely: that seven-eighths of the sufferings of women are due to disorders of the uterine system. Reasoning on this line, she saw that the only preventive of early breaking down, was a specific medicine which would act alone on the female organism.

This was why she prepared her excellent Vegetable Compound, which has been such a boon to thousands and thousands of women. If you have headaches chiefly at the top of the head, and are troubled by painful menstruation, dizziness, sleeplessness, backache, and that bearing-down feeling, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will tone up your whole system. MRS. CHAS. D. EBBERT, 330 Wood St., Reading, Pa., testifies to the great power of the Compound.

"Mrs. Pinkham—I can say that your medicine has cured me of the pains and troubles which I had. My case was a very bad one, and puzzled the doctor. My womb had fallen and I had terrible pains in my back and hips. I could hardly walk. My husband went to our family doctor, and he prescribed medicine for me, but I found no relief, and grew worse instead of better. The doctor examined me and wanted to perform an operation, but my husband would not consent. Seeing the advertisement
