

Particularly Tempting Offerings in a few before Easter novelties.

Tailor Made Suits—Our fine, ready to wear suits are really tailor made, and cost no more than the common kind sold everywhere.

Domestics—Toile du Nord is the Gingham newness of the year. Beautiful for dresses and wonderfully for little boys' suits—25 inches at 10c per yard.

Handkerchiefs—A telling of these lots means a quick good-bye. Folks with handkerchiefs well hung to dry in the sun seldom do good.

Silk Ruffling—Silk ruffling for dress trimming. Also the ruffling made of black Brussels net and trimmed with fine flutings of liberty silk.

Notions—Our Notion department never lags in the race for novelty. While sharp with is always kept on the point of the pen.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

McCall's Bazar Patterns We give you the best pattern made at the popular prices of 10c and 15c.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

Corsets—Cresco corset, the corset that cannot break at the waist line. The Cresco combines all the good features of other good corsets.

MASON DECLARES FOR WAR

Illinois is Ready to Have the Hostilities Begin. Mason declares for war against Spain, and Illinois is ready to have the hostilities begin.

TALE OF CUBAN SUFFERING AN OLD STORY. Says He Will Oppose Any Plan for Peace Which Does Not Include Independence for Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Interest in the Cuban situation—the interest which almost reached a climax in the proceedings of the senate today.

As on previous days of discussion of the Cuban question thousands of people flocked to the capitol, only a portion of whom could gain admission to the galleries.

Within five minutes after the senate convened Mr. Allen offered a resolution recognizing the independence of the Cubans.

This was followed by a resolution proposed by Mr. Rawlins (Utah), declaring war against the kingdom of Spain.

Mr. Foraker then introduced a resolution declaring for such intervention in the Cuban war as would bring about the independence of the Cubans.

Following this came a resolution by Mr. Frye demanding that Cuba be made free. The resolutions followed one another so rapidly as almost to stun the auditors.

The galleries were in commotion and the people were prepared for anything. This was the condition when the vice president recognized Mr. Mason of Illinois for his announced speech on the present situation.

More than two years ago the plan of the Spanish government to starve the women and children and non-combatants was announced. Every intelligent man, woman and child was informed of it through the ordinary channels.

When the gentleman and newspaper, who had preceded, at least, to discredit those statements in this body, began to talk about it now, it was a new discovery.

When nearly a year ago I called attention to the situation, as given at that time, since that time I have been called upon by my colleagues upon this floor from personal observation.

For two years the process of imprisonment of the reconcentrados and their starvation, and the death of thousands of them, has been a constant feature of the news.

When the order of concentration came they were crowded into the reconcentrados and refused to allow them to go out and earn a legitimate livelihood.

Mr. Mason then turned his attention to the reconcentrados, and said that he had seen them in the reconcentrados, and that he had seen them in the reconcentrados.

NEW YORK, March 29.—When it sails tomorrow, the steamship Saratoga of the Ward line will carry for San Francisco, 38,342 kilos of cornmeal, condensed milk, bacon, groceries and quinine.

Little boy Ralph, then seven years old, was very sick and for several days it seemed as if he would never be any better. After a while he began to improve and in a few weeks was able to go out, although weak and miserable.

All Strength in His Limbs gave out. The physicians told us it was paralysis, which sometimes follows an attack of diphtheria. We did everything for him, but he grew worse until he was in a pitiful condition.

"We like to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for us. Our four children had diphtheria. From the very first our

MASON DECLARES FOR WAR

Illinois is Ready to Have the Hostilities Begin. Mason declares for war against Spain, and Illinois is ready to have the hostilities begin.

TALE OF CUBAN SUFFERING AN OLD STORY. Says He Will Oppose Any Plan for Peace Which Does Not Include Independence for Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Interest in the Cuban situation—the interest which almost reached a climax in the proceedings of the senate today.

As on previous days of discussion of the Cuban question thousands of people flocked to the capitol, only a portion of whom could gain admission to the galleries.

Within five minutes after the senate convened Mr. Allen offered a resolution recognizing the independence of the Cubans.

This was followed by a resolution proposed by Mr. Rawlins (Utah), declaring war against the kingdom of Spain.

Mr. Foraker then introduced a resolution declaring for such intervention in the Cuban war as would bring about the independence of the Cubans.

Following this came a resolution by Mr. Frye demanding that Cuba be made free. The resolutions followed one another so rapidly as almost to stun the auditors.

The galleries were in commotion and the people were prepared for anything. This was the condition when the vice president recognized Mr. Mason of Illinois for his announced speech on the present situation.

More than two years ago the plan of the Spanish government to starve the women and children and non-combatants was announced. Every intelligent man, woman and child was informed of it through the ordinary channels.

When the gentleman and newspaper, who had preceded, at least, to discredit those statements in this body, began to talk about it now, it was a new discovery.

When nearly a year ago I called attention to the situation, as given at that time, since that time I have been called upon by my colleagues upon this floor from personal observation.

For two years the process of imprisonment of the reconcentrados and their starvation, and the death of thousands of them, has been a constant feature of the news.

When the order of concentration came they were crowded into the reconcentrados and refused to allow them to go out and earn a legitimate livelihood.

Mr. Mason then turned his attention to the reconcentrados, and said that he had seen them in the reconcentrados, and that he had seen them in the reconcentrados.

NEW YORK, March 29.—When it sails tomorrow, the steamship Saratoga of the Ward line will carry for San Francisco, 38,342 kilos of cornmeal, condensed milk, bacon, groceries and quinine.

Little boy Ralph, then seven years old, was very sick and for several days it seemed as if he would never be any better. After a while he began to improve and in a few weeks was able to go out, although weak and miserable.

All Strength in His Limbs gave out. The physicians told us it was paralysis, which sometimes follows an attack of diphtheria. We did everything for him, but he grew worse until he was in a pitiful condition.

"We like to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for us. Our four children had diphtheria. From the very first our

MASON DECLARES FOR WAR

Illinois is Ready to Have the Hostilities Begin. Mason declares for war against Spain, and Illinois is ready to have the hostilities begin.

TALE OF CUBAN SUFFERING AN OLD STORY. Says He Will Oppose Any Plan for Peace Which Does Not Include Independence for Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Interest in the Cuban situation—the interest which almost reached a climax in the proceedings of the senate today.

As on previous days of discussion of the Cuban question thousands of people flocked to the capitol, only a portion of whom could gain admission to the galleries.

Within five minutes after the senate convened Mr. Allen offered a resolution recognizing the independence of the Cubans.

This was followed by a resolution proposed by Mr. Rawlins (Utah), declaring war against the kingdom of Spain.

Mr. Foraker then introduced a resolution declaring for such intervention in the Cuban war as would bring about the independence of the Cubans.

Following this came a resolution by Mr. Frye demanding that Cuba be made free. The resolutions followed one another so rapidly as almost to stun the auditors.

The galleries were in commotion and the people were prepared for anything. This was the condition when the vice president recognized Mr. Mason of Illinois for his announced speech on the present situation.

More than two years ago the plan of the Spanish government to starve the women and children and non-combatants was announced. Every intelligent man, woman and child was informed of it through the ordinary channels.

When the gentleman and newspaper, who had preceded, at least, to discredit those statements in this body, began to talk about it now, it was a new discovery.

When nearly a year ago I called attention to the situation, as given at that time, since that time I have been called upon by my colleagues upon this floor from personal observation.

For two years the process of imprisonment of the reconcentrados and their starvation, and the death of thousands of them, has been a constant feature of the news.

When the order of concentration came they were crowded into the reconcentrados and refused to allow them to go out and earn a legitimate livelihood.

Mr. Mason then turned his attention to the reconcentrados, and said that he had seen them in the reconcentrados, and that he had seen them in the reconcentrados.

NEW YORK, March 29.—When it sails tomorrow, the steamship Saratoga of the Ward line will carry for San Francisco, 38,342 kilos of cornmeal, condensed milk, bacon, groceries and quinine.

Little boy Ralph, then seven years old, was very sick and for several days it seemed as if he would never be any better. After a while he began to improve and in a few weeks was able to go out, although weak and miserable.

All Strength in His Limbs gave out. The physicians told us it was paralysis, which sometimes follows an attack of diphtheria. We did everything for him, but he grew worse until he was in a pitiful condition.

"We like to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for us. Our four children had diphtheria. From the very first our

MASON DECLARES FOR WAR

Illinois is Ready to Have the Hostilities Begin. Mason declares for war against Spain, and Illinois is ready to have the hostilities begin.

TALE OF CUBAN SUFFERING AN OLD STORY. Says He Will Oppose Any Plan for Peace Which Does Not Include Independence for Cuba.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Interest in the Cuban situation—the interest which almost reached a climax in the proceedings of the senate today.

As on previous days of discussion of the Cuban question thousands of people flocked to the capitol, only a portion of whom could gain admission to the galleries.

Within five minutes after the senate convened Mr. Allen offered a resolution recognizing the independence of the Cubans.

This was followed by a resolution proposed by Mr. Rawlins (Utah), declaring war against the kingdom of Spain.

Mr. Foraker then introduced a resolution declaring for such intervention in the Cuban war as would bring about the independence of the Cubans.

Following this came a resolution by Mr. Frye demanding that Cuba be made free. The resolutions followed one another so rapidly as almost to stun the auditors.

The galleries were in commotion and the people were prepared for anything. This was the condition when the vice president recognized Mr. Mason of Illinois for his announced speech on the present situation.

More than two years ago the plan of the Spanish government to starve the women and children and non-combatants was announced. Every intelligent man, woman and child was informed of it through the ordinary channels.

When the gentleman and newspaper, who had preceded, at least, to discredit those statements in this body, began to talk about it now, it was a new discovery.

When nearly a year ago I called attention to the situation, as given at that time, since that time I have been called upon by my colleagues upon this floor from personal observation.

For two years the process of imprisonment of the reconcentrados and their starvation, and the death of thousands of them, has been a constant feature of the news.

When the order of concentration came they were crowded into the reconcentrados and refused to allow them to go out and earn a legitimate livelihood.

Mr. Mason then turned his attention to the reconcentrados, and said that he had seen them in the reconcentrados, and that he had seen them in the reconcentrados.

NEW YORK, March 29.—When it sails tomorrow, the steamship Saratoga of the Ward line will carry for San Francisco, 38,342 kilos of cornmeal, condensed milk, bacon, groceries and quinine.

Little boy Ralph, then seven years old, was very sick and for several days it seemed as if he would never be any better. After a while he began to improve and in a few weeks was able to go out, although weak and miserable.

All Strength in His Limbs gave out. The physicians told us it was paralysis, which sometimes follows an attack of diphtheria. We did everything for him, but he grew worse until he was in a pitiful condition.

"We like to tell what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for us. Our four children had diphtheria. From the very first our

PASSENGER TRAIN DERAILED

Coaches Then Roll Down an Eight-Foot Embankment. Twenty-seven people are injured.

Peoria & Eastern Train Has the Worst Wreck in Its History at a Ravine Near Bloomington, Illinois.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 29.—Train No. 12, eastbound on the Peoria & Eastern, was wrecked three and one-half miles east of Bloomington, Ill., shortly after 3 o'clock this morning.

The train was the fast express due in this city at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. As it left Bloomington it had just gotten at full speed and was at the foot of Red Wine hill, where there is a small creek.

The train struck this trestle the engine and the first coach was tipped over and the trestle sank and was derailed. This threw the baggage car and the passenger cars in the rear over the rails.

When the opposite side of the creek had been crossed the coaches as they were on an eight-foot embankment. The engine held the train.

General Manager Barnard received a report from the company's surgeon at about 4 o'clock this afternoon. The report gives the names of twenty-seven people who were injured in any manner.

The information of the officials is that none of the injuries to the passengers will prove fatal. General Manager Barnard says that the cause of the accident, as near as can be ascertained, was the sinking of the track.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 29.—A relief train with surgeons was sent from here, and the injured were brought to this city. Those most seriously hurt are Edward Rhodes, Bloomington, skull fractured, jaw broken; will probably die.

Whereas, the existence and prolongation of the war has imposed heavy financial expenditures and burdensome official labors upon the government of the United States, and the prolongation of its neutrality laws; and

Whereas, the congress of the United States and other imperial and competent observers have reported that the Spanish government has lost control of much of the greater portion of the island; that it is powerless to restore its authority and bring about peace and order in the island; and that the war has no other effect than to increase the horror, misery and starvation which now prevail in the island; and that the congress of the United States has declared that it will support the independence of the people of Cuba; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

PASSENGER TRAIN DERAILED

Coaches Then Roll Down an Eight-Foot Embankment. Twenty-seven people are injured.

Peoria & Eastern Train Has the Worst Wreck in Its History at a Ravine Near Bloomington, Illinois.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 29.—Train No. 12, eastbound on the Peoria & Eastern, was wrecked three and one-half miles east of Bloomington, Ill., shortly after 3 o'clock this morning.

The train was the fast express due in this city at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. As it left Bloomington it had just gotten at full speed and was at the foot of Red Wine hill, where there is a small creek.

The train struck this trestle the engine and the first coach was tipped over and the trestle sank and was derailed. This threw the baggage car and the passenger cars in the rear over the rails.

When the opposite side of the creek had been crossed the coaches as they were on an eight-foot embankment. The engine held the train.

General Manager Barnard received a report from the company's surgeon at about 4 o'clock this afternoon. The report gives the names of twenty-seven people who were injured in any manner.

The information of the officials is that none of the injuries to the passengers will prove fatal. General Manager Barnard says that the cause of the accident, as near as can be ascertained, was the sinking of the track.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 29.—A relief train with surgeons was sent from here, and the injured were brought to this city. Those most seriously hurt are Edward Rhodes, Bloomington, skull fractured, jaw broken; will probably die.

Whereas, the existence and prolongation of the war has imposed heavy financial expenditures and burdensome official labors upon the government of the United States, and the prolongation of its neutrality laws; and

Whereas, the congress of the United States and other imperial and competent observers have reported that the Spanish government has lost control of much of the greater portion of the island; that it is powerless to restore its authority and bring about peace and order in the island; and that the war has no other effect than to increase the horror, misery and starvation which now prevail in the island; and that the congress of the United States has declared that it will support the independence of the people of Cuba; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

PASSENGER TRAIN DERAILED

Coaches Then Roll Down an Eight-Foot Embankment. Twenty-seven people are injured.

Peoria & Eastern Train Has the Worst Wreck in Its History at a Ravine Near Bloomington, Illinois.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 29.—Train No. 12, eastbound on the Peoria & Eastern, was wrecked three and one-half miles east of Bloomington, Ill., shortly after 3 o'clock this morning.

The train was the fast express due in this city at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. As it left Bloomington it had just gotten at full speed and was at the foot of Red Wine hill, where there is a small creek.

The train struck this trestle the engine and the first coach was tipped over and the trestle sank and was derailed. This threw the baggage car and the passenger cars in the rear over the rails.

When the opposite side of the creek had been crossed the coaches as they were on an eight-foot embankment. The engine held the train.

General Manager Barnard received a report from the company's surgeon at about 4 o'clock this afternoon. The report gives the names of twenty-seven people who were injured in any manner.

The information of the officials is that none of the injuries to the passengers will prove fatal. General Manager Barnard says that the cause of the accident, as near as can be ascertained, was the sinking of the track.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., March 29.—A relief train with surgeons was sent from here, and the injured were brought to this city. Those most seriously hurt are Edward Rhodes, Bloomington, skull fractured, jaw broken; will probably die.

Whereas, the existence and prolongation of the war has imposed heavy financial expenditures and burdensome official labors upon the government of the United States, and the prolongation of its neutrality laws; and

Whereas, the congress of the United States and other imperial and competent observers have reported that the Spanish government has lost control of much of the greater portion of the island; that it is powerless to restore its authority and bring about peace and order in the island; and that the war has no other effect than to increase the horror, misery and starvation which now prevail in the island; and that the congress of the United States has declared that it will support the independence of the people of Cuba; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and

Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the president of the United States be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective steps as, in his discretion, may be necessary to bring about peace and order in the island; and that the president be and he is hereby authorized and empowered to take such effective