

FROM THE FAIRHART WEST

WOMAN TO FOUND A CITY

Will Carry Advanced Ideas of Co-operation Into Alaska Territory.

EXPEDITION TO COPPER RIVER

Company Headed by a New Jersey Woman—Steamship Line to Run to the New City of the North.

TACOMA, Wash., March 29.—(Special.)—Miss M. V. Bounds, a lawyer of Metuchen, N. J., is at the head of a party of fifty or more people who will found a city near the mouth of the Copper River. With seven of her party Miss Bounds arrived Sunday and will return to New York in a day or two after sending the first expedition north. She will return to Tacoma about the middle of April with the rest of the colony.

The town which Miss Bounds proposes to found will be conducted on advanced ideas and will be so situated that it must become one of the principal towns near the Copper River gold fields. Her selection of a site will be one which will provide a good harbor and will be most likely reached by railroad lines to the interior or steamers plying up and down the river to the sound. Miss Bounds proposes to operate a line of sound-copper river steamers hereafter.

BASE OF SUPPLIES.

"The snow is too deep to do any prospecting now," said Miss Bounds. "It is not advisable to start with the rest of the colony until I shall return to New York in a few days and bring them out with me when I return. We shall leave Tacoma supplied for a year, and the party will move westward in a party of nurses and a chaplain. I expect to use the town as a base of supplies, so that prospectors need not carry all their supplies to the interior. They will return when they run out of supplies and secure more. Thus they will be able to explore the interior and do better work. It is our intention as soon as possible to put a steamer on the run between Tacoma and our city and as soon as matters become more settled to establish a line of regular principal settlements. I realize that this is the proper year to go to Alaska. Next year it will have been shown where the permanent settlements are to be, and the ground can first take advantage of this information.

COPPER RIVER FAVORED.

"I began to advocate the Copper River a year ago and people in the east would not pay any attention to me," she said. "I posted myself on the country there and from my experience in mining matters I knew that wherever copper was found there was also gold. It is the only territory in the world where the attention of the public and the people of New York all want to go to that country. I think that Copper River will prove to be even richer than Dawson and that we will catch much of the overflow from the Yukon.

Buffalo fork of the Snake river. Hids are also taken for the surveys in the Brush creek district along the Medicine Bow range of mountains in southern Wyoming. The surveys will require the expenditure of $25,000.

WOULD BE GOVERNOR OF LINCOLN.

Ambitious Plans of Former Park Packman from Sioux City in Alaska. SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—A letter to the Call from Fort Yukon says: Judge J. E. Booge of Sioux City, Ia., is for the time being in charge of the North American Trading company's business here because of being stranded. His destination also was Dawson. He disposed Fred Gash in charge. Mr. Booge is circulating a petition for the division of the district of Alaska and the making of a new territory out of the northern portion, embracing the Yukon river district, the name to be Lincoln and the capital to be located at the mouth of the Tanana, the name of the city to be Weare, after the name of the president of the North American Trading and Transportation company.

It is an open secret here that Mr. Booge anticipates the division of the territory and that his coming here was a part of a plan to that end laid by influential stockholders and officers of the trading company. The trading company has large influence with the administration. Secretary Gage himself being one of the principal stockholders.

The plan to divide the territory comes as news to the people here. At the place designated for the capital, at the mouth of the Tanana, there are four logs laid across the river, the mistake as to its whereabouts may be made.

Mr. Booge, the prospective governor, came here at the instance of P. B. Weare of Chicago, who with a few others had been freed to come, and he had retired from business. His mission, he says, was just to look things over and see what was going on. He is staying at the hotel here, and is well isolated place, the refuge this winter of the especially unfortunate, he is still glad he came to this country. He was formerly engaged in the business of pork packing in Sioux City and at one time, he declares with some pride, "killed as many as 529,000 hogs a year."

The purpose of both the Alaska Commercial and the North American Trading and Transportation companies to develop the Tanana country this year. Boats will be sent up that river and trading posts built, and the town or post of Weare will be established whether it be the capital of Lincoln or not.

WYOMING WOOL GROWERS.

NEWCASTLE, Wyo., March 29.—(Special.)—An association of sheepmen of eastern Wyoming and western Dakota was organized here during the last week. The object of the association is to build up and protect the interests of wool growers whose interests are common in this portion of the country. The following officers were elected for the present: A. L. Banta, president; J. W. Webster, secretary; C. S. D. vice president; B. A. Deakin, Newcastle; secretary, John Berry, Newcastle. A large number of the leading sheepmen of the trading posts in North Dakota have joined the association.

GETTING SETTLED IN IDAHO.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho, March 29.—(Special.)—The men who arrived here this week with their families from the east have been very busy getting settled. They came in a special car from Omaha. These new settlers are mostly from Iowa and bought their land in the winter. They are now building houses on their land and will commence farming this season.

TWO DIED OF THEIR INJURIES.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 29.—(Special Telegram.)—Matt Vampae and Henry Matson, coal miners of Rock Springs, died in the Wyoming hospital at that place today. They were injured while working on the bridge Sunday evening, in some unknown manner fell off, receiving injuries which resulted in their deaths. Matson was injured by falling rock in the Blair mine last Wednesday.

WYOMING NEWS NOTES.

An $8,000 hotel will be built this year at Grand Encampment. The Board of Land Control has selected 30,000 acres of lieu lands in Uintah county. Gold was recently found among the debris in a potato cellar in Evanston, having been washed from the dirt that stuck to the potatoes when they were dug.

Barzella Sylvester, aged 79, one of the pioneers of Crook county, died last week at his home in Summit. He had resided in Wyoming twenty-five years.

While drilling a test well for oil on the Brenning tract near Douglas the Wyoming Oil company sank a test well of water, which gushes in a six-inch stream to a height of sixteen feet above the mouth of the well. The water was struck at a depth of 600 feet and is almost as valuable a find as oil would have been. It will enable large tracts of land in that part of the state to be irrigated if a strong artesian flow of water is found to be general.

The Grand Encampment region placers are attracting considerable attention. At the mouth of the Grand Encampment river, Chatterton, Bennett & Co. have three miles of placer ground, the gravel having a maximum depth of ten feet and averaging 1/2 to 1 cent per pan. Hydraulic machinery for working this placer bed will be put in during this season at a cost of $5,000. On Grand Encampment river there are extensive placers which have been located but not worked.

The officials of Sweetwater county are making an effort to control the outside sheep owners who have been ranging their sheep on the winter ranges of the county. Heretofore no effort has been made to collect taxes on the basis of stock, and the owners have many instances of tax evasion in the state. The present law in reference to the matter provides that owners not notifying the proper officials of the occupancy of the range by their stock are liable to fine or imprisonment. The sheepmen will contest this law and take the matter into the courts.

IDAHO NEWS NOTES.

The Grand Army of the Republic hall has been completed and is occupied at Hatley. An opera house company has been organized at Preston with a capital of $10,000 to put up an opera house in that town.

A general court-martial has been in progress here for several days. It is the trial of a private charged with selling his blankets.

There was lively competition for leasing of school lands at Moscow, $4.50 an acre for five years. The average price was about $1.25 to $2.

The increased acreage and betterment in condition of farmers around Kendrick has caused a demand for work horses, and ranchers are importing from other parts of the west.

Two ranchmen of Caldwell will drive 1,000 head of cattle to the Klondike and expect to realize a profit, although it may cost them $150 a head to get the cattle to market.

A large number of men are now working placers along the banks of Snake river and are making a good thing out of it, although it is a difficult matter to save the gold.

The Montana company that lately purchased a large tract of placer ground at Placerville will soon ship in dredging machinery and will begin work at once to extract for the hauling of 1,000,000 pounds from the railroad depot at Boise to the ground.

CALIFORNIA NEWS NOTES.

The University of California has just celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of the granting of its charter.

Plans are being prepared for a splendid new opera house to be built in San Francisco, the total outlay to be not less than $500,000.

Two officers in uniform have been stationed at each of the down town pool rooms in San Francisco to take the names of women who place bets on the horse races.

Lake county has bonded and will at once start up the Mackay mine at West. The San Diego Water company has begun suit against the city, alleging the rates for use of water fixed by the city council of San Diego are such that they will not permit the company to earn any profit.

The register of the land office at Stockton, in view of the dry season, reminds cattlemen that under an order issued in 1894 the government allows the pasturing of any stock except swine in its state on the public reservations, including parks. There are about 5,000,000 acres of land in these reservations in California.

In San Bernardino county a ledge of gold quartz running 325 feet long and carrying copper and iron has been found on the Mojave desert, near Bagdad. Several good strikes are reported from the copper camp north of Vanderbilt and a good deal of ore is ready for shipment which covers over $50 per ton in copper, gold and silver.

Development on the Mammoth mines near Kenett, Shasta county, shows sulphate ore that carries 5 per cent in copper and good values in both gold and silver. The ore-body is from 100 to 200 feet wide. The ore is easily mined and where development is just beginning, shows a good per cent of copper. The London Transportation company is developing property near Muleton and a deposit of a leading ore which carries gold and copper.

The Gate City mine in the name of a new paper started at Wallawalla. W. E. Lees expects to start a paper in Ontario, Malheur county, about April 1. J. D. McKennon has just shipped from La Grande ten carloads of potatoes to eastern markets.

Eight hundred acres of wheat land near Milton, in Umatilla county, have just been sold for $30,000. A colony of about fifty immigrants from Minnesota passed through Corvallis recently, on the way to Lincoln county, where farms will be purchased.

Maud Miller, daughter of Joaquin Miller, will reside with her uncle in Coos county, and is expected to do some work and attract much attention throughout the United States.

There is always someone ready to start out in search of the Blue Rock mines. This time it is A. L. Banta of Crook county, who expects to look for these mines as soon as the snow is off the mountains.

Joseph Schwarz, a successful sheep grower of Butler creek in Umatilla county, has sold his last land on the Snake river. He will leave in a few days for his old home in Portugal. Mr. Schwarz has been engaged in sheep raising in Umatilla county eighteen years and has amassed $100,000.

NEVADA NEWS NOTES.

Dayton ranchers are receiving $12 a ton for potatoes on the ground by California buyers. A carload of new machinery for the Ball Mountain company arrived at Elko last week and was sent over the mountain.

A newspaper war at Elko has resulted in the arrest of E. H. Snyder of the Argonaut on charges of criminal libel, approved by Editor Bohner of the Independent.

Douglas county instituted suit against Lyon county last week to recover the sum of $28,841; the suit was filed up at there is a dispute between the assessors of two counties in relation to Smith valley, which heretofore has always been conceded to Douglas county.

SEVERAL OF THE OLD ROKERIES OF CHINATOWN IN VIRGINIA CITY WERE BURNED LAST WEEK.

The United States government is indebted to the state of Nevada to the amount of $100,000, and interest, expended in organizing troops for the suppression of Indian wars.

Elko county still holds the banner for low taxation in Nevada, the rate of $1.95 per acre being the lowest levy so far reported.
