Dark Hint of Something to Be Given Out in the Future.

PACIFIC EXPRESS CASE GETS INTERESTING

Ex-Clerk at Liberty, but Finds the Society of a Pinkerton Detective Congenial.

Developments in Pacific Express company matters have taken a turn that promises a real sensation within a short time.

Andrew J. Hunt, who succeeded T. K. Suborough as chief clerk of the express company's auditing department and who held that position for a few days, is nominally at liberty, but being hand-cuffed to the detectives or behind the prison bars.

But to all intents and purposes he is still a captive of the company, all of his trips about town being on the "personality conducted" order.

In regard to the hastily issued warrant for Hunt's arrest, Judge Irving P. Baxter says he signed the warrant about supper time on Thursday evening.

HUNT MAKES A STATEMENT

Mr. Hunt was seen by a reporter yesterday morning in his room at the Hennessy hotel. Detective Chapin, who has figured so prominently in the case, was also present.
