MEMBERS REPORT ON THEIR SUCCESS

Encouraging Announcements Mad at the Hegular Quarterly Meeting-Funds Raised by the Different Women.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Woman's Board of Managers of the Bureau of Education was held yesterday morning in the directors' room at exposition beadquarters. Twenty members of the board were present. The doings of the executive committee since the last meeting of the board were reported by Chairman Harford and Secretary Ford, who related briefly what had been done and several of the matters in prospect, all of which has been made public from time to time in the newspapers. Reports were called for from the individual members of the board, and some of these were of particular interest. The report of Mrs. Reed on the work accomplished in Council Bluffs was the most encouraging of all, from a financial standpoint, and drew forth a wave of subdued applause by way of approbation. Mrs. Reed said the contribution to the Girls' and Boys' building from the women's edition of the Nonpareli amounted to $142.75, with several good accounts still uncollected, which will increase the amount several dollars. In addition to this substantial assistance, Mrs. Reed resported that the pupils of the Council Bluffs High school had contributed $22 by subscriptions, and thad given an entertainment which had netted $64.50, making a total contribution from the school of $84.50.

Mrs. Towle of South Omaha reported that she had collected $90 by visiting the schools and selling copies of the Hatchet.

Mrs. Field of Lincoln said 1,000 copies of the hatchet had been soid in that city.

Mrs. Johnson of Crete reported a marked of approbation. Mrs. Reed said the contri-

Mrs. Johnson of Crete reported a marked increase in interest among the people of her district, with small returns up to date, in the way of substantial assistance.

Miss Fyfic of Hastings said the president of the Board of Education, the superintendent of schools and the principal of the High school had thrown cold water on her efforts to interest the schools in the matter of contributing to the fund for the Girls' and Boys' building, and little had been secured from building, and little had been secured from

Mrs. Kimball reported that she was about to send 100 copies of the Hatchet to London to be placed in a bazaar there for sale by the Dovey children, two Nebraska girls whose portraits appear in the paper with a short article regarding them. A vote of thanks was voted by the board to Mesdames Marple, Tilden, Draper Smith and Hunter for their efforts in connection with the publishing of the Hatchet.

The balance of the time of the session was devoted to an informal discussion, during which the members of the board plied the executive committee with questions regard-ing various matters of detail with reference to the displaying of exhibits.

Before adjourning it was amounted that the time in which entries may be made in the individual competition instituted by the board would be extended to May 1. It was stated that the pressure brought upon the schools once had been so great that the children had had no time in which to prepare work for the individual competition.

NEW MEXICO MINERALS AND RELICS Commissioner Leeson Tells of the Display He is Preparing. Commissioner J. J. Leeson, representative of the New Mexico Exposition commission, is in the city to make final arrangements for the installation of the New Mexico exhibit. He reports a great increase in the interest of the people of this section in the exposition and says he must have more space in which to display the resources of the territory. .Mr. Lecson says the people of New Mexico are going to visit the exposition in large num-bers, and their exhibit will be on a scale which will not give them any cause to be achamed of it.

All the details of the exhibit have been placed in Mr. Leeson's hands by his colleagues, on the commission, and he now has thirty tons of minerals collected and ready for shipment. Three cars have already been foaded and will be shipped within a few days. The mineral exhibit will be most elaborate and will consist of gold, sliver, coper, lead and several varieties of building elaborate and will consist of gold, silver, copper, lead and several varieties of building stone. Mr. Leeson is a most enthusiastic mineralogist and has a very large private sollection, which will form a part of the state exhibit, and in addition to this he says he has a magnificent collection of all the varieties of minerals found in the territory.

The prehistoric exhibit from New Mexico will include speckness found among ancient rukes, together with a most interesting collection of relics of the ancient Azieco.

wattles, visited the exposition grounds yesterday morning for the purpose of selecting a desirable location for a suite of rooms to be fitted up as a place for extending to distinguished visitors to the exposition such courtesies as may be desirable on the exposition grounds.

After visiting various places on the grounds which were suggested, the committee decided that the most desirable place seemed to be the northeast corner of the gallery of the Mines building. This gallery is thirty-three feet in width and the portion favored by the committee includes the pavillon at the northeast corner of the building, extending from that point westward about 100 feet. The corner pavillon is in such form that it will lend itself readily to a pretty scheme for decoration, and the to a pretty scheme for decoration, and the portion extending along the north side of the building has long windows opening on the broad balcony, from which is afforded a full view of the beautiful grand court. Money in One Mail. A good Illustration of the manner in which money is being received by the Department of Exhibits in payment for space in the exposition buildings was afforded by the morning mail received by that department today. This mall contained checks, drafts, etc., aggregating $2,413.20. When it is considered that there are five or six deliveries of mail every day and that the inflow of checks, etc., is almost continuous, an idea may be formed of the income from this source.

Funeral of Mrs. Idvingston.
The funeral services of Mrs. Lulu B. Livingston, wife of Richard B. Livingston of New York, and only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wearne of this city, were held at the residence of her father, 843 South Nineteenth street, at 2 p. m. on Easter Sunday. The beautiful and impressive service of the Episcopal courch was read by Rev. Howard, after which Rev. Savidge spoke of the kind, noble character of the deceased.

Mrs. Lulu Wearne Livingston was well known in Omaha, having resided here since 1881. She was born January 16, 1871, at Mineral Point, Wis., where she lived until she came to this city. She attended the public schools, from which she graduated in 1892. For four years she was teaching, most of the time at Lincoln school. On September 26, 1897, she was united in marriage to Richard B. Livingston of Brooklyn, N. Y. She was a general favorite and loved by all who knew her, and the many beautiful floral offerings were a token of the vast number of friends who mourn her loss.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. Taylor, Redileid, Bartlett, Shelleross, Gramlich and Dr. Pinto. New York, and only daughter of Mr. and

A number of inquiries have been made re garding the payment of terminal charges on exhibits for the exposition by various citisens of the state. Unless other arrangements be made the exposition terminal charges and the transfer charges for less than carload shipments must be paid by the shipper. The exposition terminal charge is 6 cents per 100 pounds, and is to be prepaid at point of 6 cents per 100 pounds, with a minimum charge of $1 for any single shipment from ne consignor to one consignee. This transfer charge on less then carioad consignments is for hauling goods between the local freight depots in Omaha and the exposition warehouse, and will apply in both directions. For further information exhibitors and other shippors should see the rules and regulations issued by the Department of Transportation of the exposition under the date of April 1.

WRESTLING WITH THE RATES.

Western Passenger Association Still Discusses the Problem. The Western Passenger association is still wrestling with the problem of reduced rates for the big conventions that are to be held in western territory this summer. Uniform action will be taken with regard to the various conventions, the rates differing acvarious conventions, the rates differing according to the attendance at the last meeting of the respective organizations. It is probable that organizations that had at their their last meeting 1,000 persons or more will receive rates of one fare plug $2 for the round trip. Where the attendance averages about 500 the rate for the round trip will probably be fare and a third. As over fifty meetings are scheduled for Omaha during the summer there should be a succession of dates on which cheap rates are available throughon which cheap rates are available through-out in addition to the rates granted for the exposition itself. About a dozen of the conventions that are announced for Omaha during the summer, it is believed, can secure the advantage of a round trip rate of one fare

In addition to the schedule of rates pre-viously announced for the exposition it it seen by the circulars just issued by the Western Passenger association that the round trip rates to Omaha from all territory of this rates to Omaha from all territory of this association will be one and a third fare during the exposition.
