JUDGE SLABAUGH RULES ON ONE POINT

Hase Case and Holds that Policemen and Firemen Should Ride Free.

The court has held that Henry P. Haze, captain of the police force, did not violate any city ordinance or state law when he accepted a pass entitling him to free rides upon the lines of the Omeha Street Railway

At the last session of the legislature a law was passed regulating the pass question and decreeing that city officials should not accert passes and be allowed to ride free. Some of the policemen had their own ideas concerning the constitutionality of the law. Haze is one of these men and to test the law, some time ago he accepted a pass and then had himself arrested. The case was called in the district court, Haze being arraigned on an information that charged him with the violation of a state law. His attorney demurred to the information, allegationally demurred to the information, allegations are stated as a sufficient to specially sales on ladies' tailor made suits. stitute a cause of action. In arguing the demurrer all of the questions were raised and it was upon the matters brought out and it was upon the matters brought out in argument that Judge Slabaugh passed.

In sustaining the demurrer, Judge Slabaugh says that according to his view of the law, there is a great difference between the term "city officials" and "officials of the city." The former means parties who are clothed entirely matches, 12 boxes for 10c, or (3 pkgs.) 7,200 matches for 25c. Fancy new sugar corn, per can, 5c. 10 pounds white navy beans for 25c. 10 pounds corn meal for 10c. Fresh roasted Rio coffee, lb., 10c. Golden Santos coffee, lb., 12½c. Java and Mocha (high grade), 20c. Tomato catsup, large bottle, 8½c. 3-lb. cans table fruits, plums, 10c. Beat Minnesota XXXX flour, esck, $1.25. Choice butter, 12½c and 14c; good table butter, 16c; creamery, 18c, 20c. Finest with authority derived from ordinances of the city, while officials of the city might be those who have authority to act, not only under city, but under the provisions of the state

Careful research of authorities show that they are unanimous in holding that po-lice officers are officers of the state, and not solely of the municipality where they serve," says Judge Slabaugh. "Under the provisions of the statutes of most states, Nebraska included, they are clothed with the same powe cers. No person will argue that because a sheriff is elected by the voters of one par ticular county , that he is not a peace office for the entire state. This being true, an duties of policemen being similar to thos authority to act should be limited to the city wherein they walk their beats. Their duty is general, and it is to maintain the peace of state and suppress crime."

LETTER AND SPIRIT OF LAW. Going farther into the authorities, Judge Slabaugh holds that while the supreme court has not passed squarely upon the police question it has passed upon a question of a like nature, one that involves firemen, and in that case it hald that firemen are officers of the state. is held that firemen are officers of the state in this that while they are regarded as servants of the city, they derive their power and authority from the state law and not from any special legislation as applied to the government of the affairs of municipali-

Regarding the spirit of the law, the court says that in his judgment it is not the in-tention of the legislators to make it apply to officers of a city, but instead they intended that it should apply to city officials; mer who had favors that they might give in return for such courtesies as free passes In many respects it is an injustice to compel policemen and firemen to pay their fare, go they are men whose whole business is to protect public as well as private interests. Policemen cannot be expected to own horses and ride them over their beats, nor can they be expected to jump on a car and pay their fare every time they receive a call to report at some remote part of the city.

In order to test the law and secure a final decision, it is probable that an appeal to the supreme court will be taken. The police en want a final decision, and so de the street rallway people. The former want it in order that they may know how far their rights extend in the premises, and the street railway people want it that they may know just what city officers are entitled to re-ceive passess in the event that they are of-

PRESIDENT MURPHY SURPRISED. President Frank Murphy of the Street Railway company, hos just returned from New York, and when asked at noon what action the company would take in reference to the decision of Judge Slabaugh that the anti-pass law does not hold in the case of police officers, Mr. Murphy expressed surprise and ould it was the first he had heard of the decision. As yet there had been no con-ference of the officers of the company in re-gard to the matter and no decision has been made as to what course will be pursued.

In Judge Fawcett's court Warren M. Fleck and a dozen other garbage haulers have wor a victory over Alexander MacDonald, the man who holds the garbage contract with

Last year, when Judge Keysor was upon the equity bench, through the instrumentality of MacDonald, Fleck and the other garbage haulers of the city were arrested, charged with hauling without a permit. Then an injunction was secured, restraining them from carrying on their work. They continued to haul, and they were called in to answer to the charge of contempt of court, it being alleged that they had violated an order of the court. In the change of dockets lazt January, this particular case came to Judge January, this particular case came to Judge Fawcett, where it has been argued during the last few days. In passing upon the case, Judge Fawcett ordered the release of the defendants, holding that the proof did not show but that the parties charged had the consent of MacDonaid to carry on their work.

Fawcett criticised the grabage system contending that it was a vicious monopoly, run in the interest of one man.

End of February Term. Unless the plans miscarry, the February term of the district court will adjourn tomorrow afternoon. All of the judges are through with their dockets, and they feel that there is no necessity of continuing the term into next week. The jury was discharged last week. The next term of court will begin on May 2, or two weeks from next Monday.

ska Holiday that Changes Priaries to Basky Della. Next Friday the school children and not a few of the olded people of Nebraska will celebrate Arbor Day, and in nearly every school in the state the children are now preparing some program of special bservance to mark the occasion. State Superintendent Jackson has issued a very handsome pamphlet that serves the double purpose of affording all necessary informa-tion in regard to the day and its purposes and furoishing the schools with a sufficien amount of material from which to select appropriate programs for the occasion. The book is particularly creditable from an artisic standpoint, in view of the beautifully tic standpoint, in view of the beautifully colored engravings which ornament the covers. Those are really works of art and deserve preservation. The title cover is occupied by a picture of a passenger pigeon and the delicate colors of his breast and neck are depicted with startling accuracy. The back cover shows an equally well executed engraving of Bob White, and the position of the bird is so naturally taken that one almost listens to hear his ringing whistle as he stants with one foot uplifted on a patch of greensward. The superinon a patch of greensward. The superintendent also suggests that Bird day be celerated together with Arbor day, and Nebraska has more distinct species of birds han any other state in the union, this offers an unlimited opportunity for instructive ex-

The celebration of Arkor Day has becom one of the most interesting fetaures of the Omaha schools, and nearly every piece of school property in the city hears numerous handsome trees, which represent the efforts of the teachers and pupils to beautify their surroundings. During the last few years from fifteen to fifty trees have been planted around each schoolbouse and a result of the Arbor day celebrations, and in many cases the improvement that has resulted is strik-ing. The Lake and Walnut Hill schools have his apprehension to deny that he was im-plicated in this sort of luwlessness; on the other hand, he made a clean breast of the with handsome shade trees. The also marked in a number of the sur burban schools, where the pupils have been ab's to secure trees by virtue of their acquaintance with the farmers' children of the adjacent country. Quite a number of the farmers out in the county have taken an interest in the efforts of the children, and several of them take especial pains to have pretty tree ready to bring in for the Arbor lay celebrations of the children.

This year it is likely that fewer trees will be planted than usual. This is pactially because extra preparations for the local educa-tional exhibit at the exposition, and also on account of the large number of trees that have been donated by the Board of Park Commissioners and planted around the various buildings earlier in the season. Dibbern, M. Dollard, L. Godola, A. H. Burr, S. Q. Hoff and J. C. Luke discharging them from the police force forthwith under the recent decision of the supreme court. The order of dismissal was made by the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners on September 29, last, under the pretext of re-trenchment necessitated by a shortage of $3,400 in the city fund for maintaining the department, and in addition to the officers named above it included Sergeants F. D. Mitchell and R. W. Chamberlain, both of whom have since resigned, and Chief of Detectives E. H. Heming, dismissed.

Following this batch of orders the chief of pulles well instructions to all detectives to police sent instructions to all detectives to get in readiness to assume the duties of ordinary patrolmen, under the rule adopted at Thursday night's session of the commissioners, and ordering them to hereafter report direct to the captain in command for duty and assignments. Twenty-two of the new patrolmen who are about to go on duty repatrolmers who are about to go on duty reported at the city jail for their first drill yesterday, and Officer Flynn took them in charge. As fast as the new policemen present themselves after the approval of their bond by the board they are swore into duty as officers. Their uniforms will be received within three days, and then they will be assigned to beats. For about sixty days the new recruits will be put through a drill every morning for about an hour. a drill every morning for about an hour. The officers who are let out of their post tions are consuiting their attorneys in rela-tion to the legality of the latest order for their dismissal, and the impression is that he commissioners will be compelled to de-end their action in another law suit similar to the one that resulted in a court order for the reinstatement of discharged policemen. The contention is that the dismissals were made before on the pretext of lack of funds since which time another levy has been made for police purposes, and consequently the shortage has been wiped out.

DARING DIP OF A SMOOTH THIEF.

Picks a Focket and Slips Through .
Flock of Detectives. A clever bit of thievery took place or Union Pacific train No. 3 just as it was ready to pull out of the Union depot. An elderly woman, who was going to Fullerton, boarded the train and immediately behind her was a young fellow who is described as being about 22 or 23 years old. The young fellow followed the woman into the car and came out in a short 'ime. The brakeman saw him coming out and asked him what he was doing in the car. The reply was that he had doing in the car. The reply was that he had helped his mother into the car. In a short time the woman rushed to the platform of the car and told the police her pocket had been picked. By this time the young thief had disappeared on the south side of Atrain and no trace could be found of him. A purse containing $7.15 was all that was a state of the containing $7.15 was all that was missing. At the time of the theft five detectives were standing on the platform, but none of them noticed anything suspi and the brakemun gave such an indefinite description of the pickpocket that the task of hunting him up was a hopeless one.

D YEARS THE STANDARD. A Good Thing.

One of the new things in our Underwear Garden is a fine Fancy Balbriggan in a brown random stripesame quality goods we sold last year for 45 cents a garment. This year it will be 35 cents. By buying almost double and ordering early we got the reduction and we give you the benefit so that you can go over to our sockwear counter and spend it for a pair of the good substantial sox we are selling for 10 cts. The shirts of these garments are faced with best gros grain watered silk and the sleeves have Jersey finished cuffs so as to give some stores an excuse for asking 75 cents a garment for the same thing. As we told you yesterday we are going to do the underwear business of the Great West this season because we can't help doing it with our goods and our prices, for nowhere can you get so much underwear for your money as you can right here. Tonight, when you are around lookin' just look at the shirts and drawers we are selling this season for 25 cents. Or the grand two thread Maco yarn garments in old gold, salmon or azure for 50 cents. Yes, 50 cents. It's another store that asks 98 cents.
