LINCOLN, April 21 .- (Special.)-In the supreme court today an opinion is handed down in the case brought by the county treasurer by Judge Norval, the syllabus being as follows:

1. Under section 20, chapter xxviii, Compiled Statutes, 1897, in computing the amount of taxes collected by a county treasurer for the purpose of charging percentage, all sums collected for each fiscal year, from whatever funds derived, except school moneys, whether belonging to the state of county, or any of its subdivisions, must be included together, the fees to be allowed but once and charged pro rata to the different funds.

2. A county treasurer is not entitled to 10 per cent commissions on the first $3,000 of state taxes and a like percentage on the first $3,000 of county moneys collected by him for each fiscal year, but a fee of 10 per cent alone is chargeable on the first $3,000 from whatever source derived, without regard to the year the taxes were levied, except school moneys, and such fees or commissions are to be apportioned prorate among the various funds on account of which the collections were made.

3. The fiscal year of a county is the calendar year.

3. The fiscal year of a county is the calendar year.

4. The words "fiscal year" as employed in said section 20, chapter xxviii, compiled statutes, mean the fiscal year during which the taxes are collected, and not the year in which they were levied or imposed.

5. Where the legislature re-enacts a law of the state it thereby adopts the judicial construction which had been placed thereon by the highest court of such state.

6. The auditor of public accounts is powerless to draw a warrant upon the treasury for commissions due a county treasurer for commissions due a county treasurer upon moneys collected by him for the state and paid into the treasury, unless a specific appropriation has been made for the purpose by the legislature. CATTLE STEALING A FELONY.

Another case of state importance passed upon was that of William Ream, who sought to secure a release from the penitentiary by habeas corpus proceedings. Ream was sent up for stealing a bunch of cuttle. The claim made by his attorneys in the habeas corpus was that the law declaring cattle are that there will be a large amount of milk stealing a felony was improperly passed by received there this summer. FIRE AT HOSPITAL FOR INSANE. Chapel and Kitchen of Norfolk Institution Destroyed. NORFOLK, Neb., April 21.—(Special Telegram.)—Fire broke out at the State Hospital for the Insane near midnight last night and it was only by the heroic efforts of the attendants essisted by the Norfolk fire department that serious consequences were avoided. The fire started in a woodhouse adjoining the building, used for a chapel and kitchen, but this was soon subdued by the attendants and the attendants retired to bed. Soon, however, fire broke out in the chapel and kitchen and burned flercely, as it was fanned by a strong wind. Three separate alarms were turned in and the entire Norfolk fire department and over 100 citizens besides responded. The water supply at the hospital is quite limited and the burning building could not be saved, though the fire was kept from spreading to the main building in which the pa-tients were confined and also kept from the other buildings. Everything was done in an orderly manner to remove the patients, in case it should become necessary, the only trouble being among the parole patients.

The more violent ones were easily controlled.

There are practically no cooking facilities this morning and some temporary provision will have to be made in order that the in-mates can be fed. The loss is estimated at about $5,000, with no insurance. Prosperity at Friend. FRIEND, Neb., April 21 .- (Special.)-Friend has the largest number of farmers come to town on Saturday afternoons of any town in the state. They come for twenty miles and over. Every house is filled and business is booming. The First National bank of this city on April 20, 1897, had $31,000 in deposits; on April 20, 1898, the deposits are $84,000 and the most of it is left with them

McKey Brothers Discharged. FALLS CITY, Neb., April 21 .- (Special.)-The preliminary hearing of Thomas and James McKey for the alleged murder of Oliwer S. Jones, near Arago, on the 9th inst., was held before County Judge Cagnon

Wednesday afternoon. The only evidence brought against the McKey brothers was that on the day of the murder they had passed the house of Jones in going from their home to their father's, and ctopped at one of Jones' hearest neighbors about the time the act was committed. Over a year ago the McKey boys and Jones had a few words over the foading of a gue. It was loaded heavy and Jones accused the younger brother of loading it to blow his (Jones') head off. The boys had been living with Jones and left him about that time. The judge thought the evidence was not strong enough to bind them over and o'scharged them.

Horse Thief Apprehended. ASHLAND, Neb., April 21 .- (Special Telegram.)-This forenoon a stranger giving his name as E. J. Morgan rode into Ashland from Lincoln upon a brown horse. He was here only a few minutes, until he struck up a trade with Joseph Eggert, the livery-man, exchanging the horse for a watch. Be-fore he could get out of the city he was spotted by Deputy Sheriff G. W. Daly of Douglas county, and arrested as a horse thief. The man is thought to be a deserter from Fort Ogalalla, Neb., and the horse he rode stolen property. The theory that he is a deserter from the army is tenable from the fact that he signed the title of: "Second Lieutenant, Company H. Twenty-first Infantry," on the bill of sale to Joseph Eggert. Deputy Sheriff Daly took the man to Omaha this evening

Opening Game of the Western League Season Very Close.

Omaha is not so awfully worse after all. In the opening game of the season, with a team which has never played together and has barely had practice, the Babes went up against what is reputed to be the strongest batting team of the league and certainly one of the best; and instead of being eaten up alive, as was expected, they gave the Saints the scare of their lives. By only one little tiny run did Commy pull out a victory and that was not settled until the very last of our men was out in the very last inning.

The score was 7 to 6. And at that the game ought to have been ours and would have been ours had Joe Cantillon been a wee bit "wid us," instead of "ag in us." If it had not been for this and "ag in us." If it had not been for this and that the Babes were a little off when it came to base running, the Saints could not have carried off the game farther than "Dusty" Miller can throw a box car. Captain Fatter and his cohorts were in the finest kind of trim and ginger. If they keep it up Omaha will be landed in the winning division without a doubt.

There was a goodly throng on hand to witness the opening game of the league city of Omaha. In spite of the fact that the skins were very threatening and promised rain, fully 2,500 red-hot fans were on tiand the crackeriack of a game that was being unraveled before their eyes, they began to unpack their whoops with as much vigor as in the good old times. It was mighty con-forting to hear the old cry of "kill 'im." The season was opened in proper style with a parade before the game. Early in the afternoon the players of the two teams climbed into carriage and headed by a band and a couple of tallyhos rode through the principal streets of the city. One of the coaches was engineered by Buck Keith and the other was crowded with letter carriers. The parade reached the grounds shortly before 3 o'clock.

START AT THE GROUNDS.

The program at the grounds was opened up with a little concert by the band and then Mayo. Moores got in his work. He made a nice little speech, in which he congratulated the fens on their opportunity to see the great American game and also gave the Babes some good adults and the game. The bases were full, but Roat failed to find the ball. Then Lyons crawled a little farther into Omaha's affections by rapping out a three-bagger, that came within five feet a threee-bagger, that came within five fee of being a homer. Umpire Cantillo de clared that Fisher interfered with Spies in his attempt to stop Danny and ordered the latter out. Three big, juicy scores were strung up, however, and the fans nearly raised the roof of the grandstand. This sort of frightened Eustace and he fained.

The fourth, fifth and sixth were fruitless for both sides and the Saints' seventh was of the same character. It looked like the old lucky seventh for us, however. Lawler got a life on Shugart's error and McCauley rapped out a single and Lawler scored. Fisher struck out, but in the meantime McCauley stole the only base in the game. Griffin knocked out a corking two-bagger, bringing McCauley. bringing McCauley in. Burnett fanned and Roat was put out at first, but the score was 6 to 5 in our favor. In the next the Saints tied the score. Roat fumbled Miller's hit and Glenalvin made a pretty sacrifice. Glascock was hit and took his base. Shugart knocked a long out to Lawler and before the leather came back Miller dashed across the rubber. The Babes did nothing in their inning, but the Saints got the winning run in the ninth. Spies banged out a two-sacker and a single by Preston and an error by McKinney brought

GAMES OF THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Klobedans Fools the Orioles and Bostons Pound Hoffer Victoraly. BALTIMORE, April 21.-The Oriole batsmen could not connect with the ball today when hits were needed, and went down before the prowess of Fitcher Klobedanz. In five innings he retired the side without semblance of a hit, and only in the second were the home players able to solve his curves consecutively, when they three runs off force singles. The fielding of the home team was not up to the standard and their errors belped swell Boston's run column. A high, cold wind blew over the ball park and made it uncomfortable for spectators and players. Attendance

Eleven Innings at Washington. Eleven Innings at Washington.
WASHINGTON, April 21.—Eleven innings were required by the Senators to win to-day's game. As on yesterday, although the visitors made more hits, the Senators won by bunching and because of errors by the Brooklyn men. The feature of the game was the catch of a long fly by Selbach. He fell in making connection with the ball, but did not let it escape him. Attendance 1,800. Score:

A New Serial Story.

"Ashes of Empire"

By Robert W. Chambers

Author of "The Red Republic," "The Mystery of Choice," "Lorraine," etc. will appear in The Omaha Sunday Bee, Beginning April 24.

The New York Sun says of Mr. Chambers:-"He never draws a weak or uninteresting character. They are all fascinating." Richard H. Stoddard writes: "Whoever has read him will see the hand of the master story-teller." The Literary World (London) says: "Mr Chambers is a past master in the art of sending the blood coursing in purest sympathy with the fortunes or exploits of his puppets."

"Ashes of Empire" is a story of the same qualities as "Lorraine," which drew from the critics the high praise above

Its opening chapter describes the flight of the Empress Eugenie from Paris after the disaster of Sedan (1879). Two young Frenchwomen, sisters-Yolette and Hilde-are incidentally introduced. Two young English war correspondents-Burke and Harewood-also appear, as accessories to the escape of the Empress. Around these four leading characters Mr. Chambers has woven a romantic love story-or rather two love stories in one.

The siege of Paris serves as the background and many of its most stirring scenes are described with a dramatic power that recalls Victor Hugo's famous pen-pictures of older battlefields. The chapter which gives an account of one of the great sorties made by the garrison of the besieged city and the battle of Le Bourget, which followed, will quicken the pulse of every reader.

The two young war correspondents become separated in the pursuit of their respective duties; and the house in which Yolette and Hilde have their home is sacked by the Germans; and one of the two sisters is carried off by Speyer, a German spy, Harewood is wounded in the battle and is carried to the Nanterre fort. A professional criminal known as "The Mouse" and his pals, "Bibi" and "Mon Oncle," play minor but interesting parts in the complications that follow, and their characters are portrayed with the skill which Mr. Chambers acquired by his long residence in Paris and his close study of Parisian types. The story is brought to a pleasant conclusion with the reunion of the two war correspondents, and their marriage to Yolette and Hilde.

Each installment of "Ashes of Empire" will be effectively illustrated by competent artists. It will be one of the great serial stories of the year.
