

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

DODGE LIGHT GUARDS PACK

Local Company Gets Ready to Go to War at Once.

PRIDE OF COUNCIL BLUFFS ENLISTS

Adjutant General Byers Orders Captain Pryor to Get His Command in Condition for Call at Short Notice.

The crowd around the Dodge Light Guards armory were so great throughout the entire day yesterday as to almost interfere with the work of preparation going on for travel. Thousands of people hung around the Masonic temple and filled the large armory of the guards. In the crowd were many women, mothers, sisters and sweethearts of the young men, who took a feverish interest in the work. Early in the day the following letter was received from Adjutant General W. H. Byers, from Des Moines:

Captain W. O. Pryor: Be prepared to come to Des Moines on receipt of information by wire, for you and all of the state's property and camp equipment and full dress uniforms, packed separately and well marked. Bring only those who desire to go to the front and who can pass the medical examination. Bring no new recruits unless well drilled. These arrangements as much as possible.

This order was promptly complied with. Dr. Hanson, the company's surgeon, was held at the armory all day examining the young soldiers already members of the company, and the numerous new men who applied to be taken into the company. The order was to be taken into the company at the armory. Nearly a dozen of the old guard were dropped out, and many of the new recruits were refused the necessary certificate of physical ability to resist the hardships that are expected to be borne by the soldiers in Cuba. The eagerness to enlist was the feature of the day. Many of those who were rejected could not restrain their feelings and gave way to violent fits of crying. It was explained to each member of the company that enlistment was not compulsory, and any of the old members who desired to could leave the ranks. Not a man left. If they had been needed and could have been received not less than 1,000 new men would have enrolled themselves under the flag for any service the nation may have for them.

The boys were fully prepared to leave the armory at any moment after the middle of the day and so great was their anxiety to get away that a number of them stayed around the telegraph office ready to carry at double-quick the excited message that would call them to Des Moines. Boxes were packed, strapped and labeled before noon, after every bit of excitement was out into the best possible condition. When the time came for the departure of the evening train for Des Moines without bringing the expected order, the members of the company were visibly disappointed. All of the arrangements for camp life were completed and two colored men were enlisted as cooks.

Following is the complete roster of the company, showing its present full fighting strength:

Captain, W. O. Pryor; first lieutenant, John L. Moore; first sergeant, M. A. Tinley; sergeants, E. E. Cook, P. I. V. Ouder, J. C. Anderson, P. J. Millard; corporals, P. J. Rode, W. A. Bolin, J. H. Winkles, E. E. Anderson; musicians, G. L. Judson, C. R. Jamison; privates, Bracore, Culon, W. Bailey, R. Bailey, Draney, Plaharty, Fuller, Grail, Goss, Grout, Green, Hall, Hotel, Halliday, Harkness, Jarvis, Johnson, Kirkland, Morgan, McManan, Motz, McCoy, McGraw, Meacham, Nims, Peterson, Patterson, Pettit, T. Rutherford, R. Rutherford, Ruffcorn, Russ, Sackett, Stoldmister, Sawyer, York, Williams, Weaver, Young, Kie-sill, Tucker, Evans, Mather, Loe, Catterland, Plammont, Cooks, Nealey, Tracer.

It was considered scarcely probable that the order to move would come before morning, but the guards remained at their armory all night and enforced military discipline.

The company is composed of a fine body of representative young men of the city.

Lets Kennedy Out.
Fred Wroth and George Kennedy were given a hearing by Justice Vlen yesterday.

upon a charge of stealing a wagonload of hides from McDanel & Co.'s warehouse on the night of March 15. The evidence was conclusive against Wroth, and he was held to the grand jury. The testimony showed that the only connection that Kennedy had with the deal was to loan a wagon to Wroth which was used in hauling away the stolen property. He was discharged.

The Mammoth Store.

Have you visited the mammoth store of Peterson & Schoening since their removal to the Merriam block, on South Main street?

Their store is now the largest one of its kind in the city. It combines both hardware and furniture. You can fit your house in five shape without leaving the building. Their goods are all new and they allow no one to undersell them. They have on display one of the neatest lines of baby carriages ever displayed in Council Bluffs, and a complete line of iron bedsteads that will suit any one's fancy. The women of Council Bluffs and vicinity are especially invited to call and inspect their goods. Do not forget the new location and hereafter look for Peterson & Schoening in the Merriam block, occupying four big rooms.

Hoffmeyer's fancy patent flour makes the best and most bread. Ask your grocer for it.

For Sale—Open buggy, single harness, good saddle, cheap; cash or time, at Bourcius' Music House, 325 Broadway, where the organ stands on the building.

Adams Saves His Lunch.

George W. Adams, a Wabash hostler, had to put up a strong fight yesterday to retain his dinner pail and the lunch it contained.

He was on his way to his work in the round-house and at the Burlington crossing he was met by a couple of tramps. One was a negro and the other a white man. The negro asked Adams to share his lunch with them and when this was refused both men made a dash to secure it by force. Adams attempted to escape, but had only run a short distance until he found a stone that was of the proper dimensions. He hurled it and struck the negro on the head, knocking him down. The white man then abandoned the attack and Adams saved his dinner.

The Grand Rush.

There will be a grand rush when the exposition opens and Council Bluffs should be looking her best. Put your house in shape by giving it a fresh coat of paint. Select your colors and then come to us and get your paints and oils. The material you buy at our house is the best to be had. Our paints will last, so that you need not waste money every year or so by repainting, as will be the case if you use poor material.

We have the most extensive paint house in the city and you are sure to be suited.
