Henry Rishton Celebrates a Birthday with the Aid of Friends. Henry Rishton celebrated on Thursday evening his sixtleth birthday at his home on Harmony street. A large number of his friends were present to extend their congratulations and a very pleasant social evening was passed by all. The event was of considerably more than ordinary local interest, for the reason that nearly half a century of his life has been spent in Council Bluffs and the immediate vicinity. Mr. Rishton was born near Monchester, England, and came to this country with his parents when he was a very small boy. He recalls some exciting experiences on the long voyage across the ocean in a sailing vessel, and at one time had a narrow escape from being swept overboard by a big wave that was carrying him through a scuttle hole when he was seized by a sailor. The family came to Council Bluffs in 1850. Mr. Rishton's father bought Bluffs in 1850. Mr. Rishton's father bought a claim near Poney creek, and in a oneroom log house with a dirt-covered roof he lived for several years with his wife and family of six children. They reached here thorized by the Territory.

The first coining mint established on the Pacific coast is claimed for Oregon City. A few of the Beaver coins, the product of this mint, are in existence and prized very highly by their owners. While there is nothing pretentions in the appearance of the building, says the Portland Telegram, yet the historical interest that attaches to it be its four wails was ceined, as near as can be ascertained, $58,500 in gold. This mint-age included some of the first gold discovered in California. The mint was the result of necessity. Upon the return of the Ore gonland from the gold fields of Chilfornia they brought back with them a large quantity of gold dust, which at once became i circulating medium. The only way its value could be approximated was by weighing, but as much of the gold was mixed with back seed and other impurities frequent disputed areas between the buyer and seller based upon a difference of opinion as to its finences. It was to obviate this that the idea of establishing a mint was conceived. Its credit for this conception belongs to William H.
