WHY THE CITY SHOULD PAY UP

Petition in the Mandamus Case Filed in the District Court.

ASKING CASH FOR CURRENT WARRANTS

Move to Secure an Interpretation of the New State Law as Applied to the Administration of Municipal Finance.

The papers in the mandamus suit to compel the city treasurer to pay a freshly drawn warrant were filed in the district court yesterday morning and the entire day was spent in hearing the arguments before Judge Smith.

That since the beginning of the said fiscal year and during the month of April, 1898, the said city purchased necessary supplies for the use of the city during the said fiscal year beginning with April, 1898, in the amount of $6.24, which said amount was out of the revenues of said city during the said fiscal year.

That your petitioner presented said warrant to defendant, W. B. Reed, city treasurer of said city, and demanded payment thereof out of the revenues of said city during the said fiscal year.

That said defendant had at the time of the presentation of said warrant in his hands funds arising from the revenue of the city during the said fiscal year beginning with April, 1898, which had been duly presented for payment and endorsed as provided by law.

That said defendant refused to pay the same, giving as his reasons therefor that there are other warrants of said city upon the general fund legally issued more than a year prior to the fiscal year beginning with April, 1898, which had been duly presented for payment and endorsed as provided by law.

That said defendant had at the time of the presentation of said warrant in his hands funds arising from the revenue of the city during the said fiscal year beginning with April, 1898, which had been duly presented for payment and endorsed as provided by law.

That said defendant refused to pay the same, giving as his reasons therefor that there are other warrants of said city upon the general fund legally issued more than a year prior to the fiscal year beginning with April, 1898, which had been duly presented for payment and endorsed as provided by law.

There has occasioned a loss to the team of two athletes whose prowess on the cinder path was relied upon to win many points at the state meet which the Keokuk team secured. Their places will be difficult to fill, but an unusually large number of boys have been hard at work on the track during the last few weeks, and the '98 team promises to be superior in point of athletic ability to any of its predecessors. The events will be hotly contested and it is expected that several records will be broken if the weather favors. Saunders in the sprints, Weah in the weights, Butts in the bicycle races and Barnard in the hurdles are the men who are expected to make the new figures. In addition to the track events there will be a competitive drill by the crack drill team of the cadets. The entries for the '98 team are as follows: Almsworth, Ayles, Abdul Ball, Ball, Bin, Barnard, A. Barnard, W. Butts, Boardley, Bone, Crane, Childs, Dalley, Dietrich, DeKay, DeWitt, Egan, Graham, Hess, Hanchett, Kynett, Miller, Peterson, Rutherford, F. Richmond, Reynolds, Saunders, H. Saunders, W. Sulhoff, Wahlgren, Walker, Welch, trainer.

The hall to be given by the Modern Woodmen of America for the Keokuk post month Light Guards will be held in Masonic temple hall, instead of their own hall, Thursday evening, May 7. The admission will be 25 cents per couple and 10 cents for extra women.
