SEVERAL EXCURSION TRAINS WILL RUN

Everybody is Anxious to Visit the State Militia in Camp at Des Moines _ Big Time Anticipated.

DES MOINES, April 30.-(Special.)-An immense crowd of visitors is expected in the city Sunday. The railroads are all going to bring in several excursion trains each for the purpose of bringing sight-seers to McKinley, where the National Guard is mobilized. 'The Great Western will bring in four special trains, the Rock Island three, the Des Moines, Northern & Western three, the Chicago & Northwestern three and the other roads one or two each. It is expected that at least 10,000 visitors will flock into the city.

Camp McKinley will be open to visitors Sunday, but the regular drills will be disall that is good, lows furnishes the best. pensed with, and the only drill will be a dress parade at 6 o'clock in the evening. The Rock Island will run special trains between the city and the camp every fifteen minutes during the day and the street railway company will run twenty-four cars on its branch line leading to the camp grounds. Including Des Moines people, it is expected that there will be a crowd of 30,000 on the grounds during the day.

Captain J. A. Olmsted, Ninth United States cavalry, at present an attache on the adjutant general's staff, expects to receive orders from Washington today ordering him to muster in the lows troops. Captain Olmsted says the work will probably be started on Monday. A thorough physical examination will be made of each man by the surgeons detailed by the government, and the men that are passed will be turned over for mustering into the service. The men will be sworn in by companies, and Captain Olmsted says that after the physical examinations are finished all the men can be mustered in within two days.

Colonel H. J. yet was the maneuver which was gone through with near the grounds Friday morn-ing. A battalion from each regiment marched out of the grounds and formed what in war fare would have been an advance guard. A battalion from the First regiment went out Dean avenue. Another battalion from the Second regiment took the Altoona road for a two-mile march. Men from the Third regiment went north from the camp two miles on the Berwick road. The Fourth regiment men went out on North street. The men were deployed into skirmish lines and ments of the advance guard of an army were taken up.

Ordered to Leave Town. CHEROKEE, Ia., April 30 .- (Special.)-Lou

Bensley, a member of the Cherokee famous "Dalton gang" which gained local notoriety here last term of court, came to grief this morning. The young man had just finished a jail sentence for breaking into freight cars, but before getting out tried to appropriate some clothing left by other members of the gang who are now doing time in the penitentiary for the same offense for which he was confined. The sheriff, however, noticed the property had been disturbed and proceeded to get the guilty party in the sweat box and extracted a full confession torney was called to the matter and on ac-count of the smallness of the value of the property it was decided to give Mr. Bensley a chance to leave town permanently, with the injunction that if he ever returned he would likely have the opportunity of joining the other members of the gang at Anamosa.

South Dakota is Prosperous. ABERDEEN, S. D., April 30 .- (Special.) -L. S. Pearson, a leading land agent, has just closed the sale of three quarter-sections of land, lying five miles west of Verdon, to Joseph Schultz, an extensive land owner of that region. The consideration was $4,800, a very good figure in view of the fact that the farms have only very ordinary im-provements. Mr. Pearson has gone to St Lawrence, Hand county, in the vicioity of which he will locate three families of Swedes who are coming from Illinois to become permanent residents. Each man w'll buy a halfsection. In his travels about the state Mr. Pearson has been strongly impressed with the improved conditions to be everywhere seen, and the hopeful and settled feeling o ones he has ever known here.
