Quite a number of the boys are suffering from colds, and there are about a dozen in the hospital, but no serious cases.

There was great rejoicing in the camp when the news of the navel battle was brought in, and a number express themselves as believing that the war will end in a few

The news that the troops were not to go to Omaha at once first came from a telegram sent by Brad Slaughter, manager of the Lincoln street railway, who had gone to Washington to labor with Meiklejohn in favor of Lincoln. His telegram was:

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Troops ordered to be mustered by army officers at Lincoln according to the request of Governor Holcomb. This will consume not less than seven days. Upon completion of muster the Guard will be taken immediately to Fort Omaha for rendezvous, unless ordered to the front for service.

PREPARING TO MOVE. No official news was received at headquarters of any change, and the preparations for the move went right along. At 4 o'clock Lieutenant Stolsenberg received a telegram from Quartermoster Jones of Omaha cancel-ing the order for cars over the Missouri Pacific, and saying: "Have arranged for transportation over the B. & M. First train will be ready to move at noon tomorrow."

This indicated not only that no change had been made in the plan to concentrate the troops at Omaha, but it also indicated that the government had taken the matter of transportation in charge and had made a contract with the B. & M. The following official order for the move tomorrow was accordingly issued:

plauded.

Two teams, chosen from among the young women, played a close and exciting game of indoor base ball. The game lasted for only three innings, but interest did not lag at all during those three innings. The girls jumped around the indoor diamond as lively as any male player ever did, while their fielding and batting, if somewhat peculiar, showed that they possessed an elementary knowledge of the game. The team cantained by Miss. the game. The team captained by Miss Laura Stratton defeated that which was led by Miss Minnie Guile, the score belog 12 to 11.

SPORTING NOTES.

That was something like a ball game up in Millertown Sunday. It was unquestionably the prettiest contest, as it was the first game over nine innings played in the Western League this year. According to the account of the game, both teams put up a brilliant fielding game, but the errors that were made were of a costly nature. Roat came in for his usual quota, and the usually reliable Denny Lyons and McCauley each dropped one. This looks as if the boys were commencing to get into the game as far as fielding goes.

Captaid Chauncey Fisher was something of the hero of the game, for despite the fact that the run that tiel the score was made possible by Reilly's error, his was the his that brought it in. He cracked out another besides that and accepted two chances out it right garden. Eustace was also very much in it at third bag, scooping to nine chances without an error. Hollingsworth did nicely with six chances and two hits, one of them a double. Hagerman pitched a mighty game and besides that lined out two hits himself, one of them being for two sacks. All in all the local fans will be perfectly satisfied with the way the Babes played the great national game resterday. The fielding has taken a decidedly upward trend and the hit column indicates that the boys are improving in stick work. Captain Fisher has written that he intends to have at least one out of the series, so that the telegraphic reports will undoubtedly tell us of a victory tonight.

Millertown, however, was not the only Western League city that saw a good game Sunday, for the other two scheduled were fully up to the standard. Kansas City was shut out in a contest that came mighty near being a tie in the ninth inning, the Saints scratching out a run at the last moment by a hit and several bunts. The game was a pitcher's battle, both Phyle and Meredith being in the finest of shape and letting their opponents down with four hits apiece. The opponents down with four hits apiece. The Brewers have finally rounded to and pulled out a victory over the Senators in an almost perfect fielding game, the former winning by bunching their hits. By this defeat the Senators drop down a peg to third place, while the Saints have hopped up to second.

The results of these games shows that the Western played better ball than the big league did. The Colonels, however, put up a surprising game at Chicago, winning in the teeth inning by one run. The corn fed Ne-braskan, Fred Clarke, is credited with turning the trick. Cincinnati lost an easy one to the Pirates, the great Breitenstein being touched up for fourteen cice, juicy hits dur-ing the game. By this defeat the Reds tied themselves again with the Orioles for first place, while the Pirates jumpel ahead of the Trolley Dodgers. These were the only games in the major league and the attendance at both was tremendous, 14,000 being out at Cincincati and 11,000 at Chicago.

The sporting editor has received a letter from Manager Fisher, in which he says that Munroe, the new pitcher, has arrived at Minneapolis and is in good shape. He also declares that he is after two hard hitting outfleiders and hopes to get at least one of hem before the team returns to play Kansan City in this city next Sunday. "We are not hitting hard just now," continued Fisher, "but I think that we will pretty soon. We are putting up fairly good team work and it is getting better all the time."

Unattached pitchers will soon be plentiful in the Western league. Columbus has re-leased McDermott, Houghton and Dinsmore and Pitcher Pappalau has been sent off by Milwaukee. The latter has been picked up by Toronto of the Eastern league.

Pitcher Michael J. Sullivan, who is said to have been secured by the Blues from New York, was admitted to the bar in Boston and s expected to report for duty at once. Tom Loftus is trying to sell Dan Lally to Minneapolis under disguise as a first base-man. Lally is still out of condition and limps around like a spavined horse,

The wrestling match between the "Ter-rible Turk" and Roeber in New York last Saturday night ended again in something saturday hight ended again in something like a free-for-all fight. Yousouf has ap-parently not tumbled to civilized wrestling rules yet, for although he was unable to throw the American off the platform this time because the ropes were too high and strong he tried to start a rough and tumble scrap. From this distance it looks as if the bout should have been given to Roeber on a foul, but maybe the referee was all right in calling it a draw. At any rate the Mohammedan should be given to understand that he must abide by the rules or wrestlers ought to refuse to meet him.

Licher Karl picked up another at Memphis Licber Karl picked up another at Memphis last Saturday in the Peabody Hotel handicap, making five big winnings so far this season. The colt is being hailed as another Henry of Navarre. He ran the Kentucky derby distance, a mile and a quarter, in 2:08 4-5, making the track record a second and a quarter faster. The old track record has stood for ten years. With this winning the colt will be nearer the favorities to the colt will be nearer the favorite in the Kentucky Derby.
