Citisens of the Lone Star State Will Have a Display.

OUST THE DO-NOTHING COMMISSIONERS

Combination of Citizens Takes Hold of the Exposition Work and Provides for a Proper Representation.

The latest reports from Texas indicate that the people of that state who are determined that the Lone Star state shall be represented at the exposition have taken matters in their own bands and bave ousted the board of commissioners, which has been doing little but wasting time since it was appointed, and have appointed a new commission which they say is composed of men who are interested in seeing the state well represented and will make an exhibit of the resources of the state which will be a credit to the largest state in the union.

This new move is the direct result of the combination of the Houston Business League with the San Antonio & Araneas Pass Rallway Immigration association which was effected a few weeks ago. These organizations have assumed the entire burden of making a Texas exhibit and have raised the money with which to meet all the expenses, so that a good exhibit is assured from this state.

The new organization has communicated these facts to the exposition management and has asked that a new Texas Exposition commission to be named in place of the old commission which is pronounced officially dead. The followis pronounced officially dead. The following members of the new commission are recommended by the Texas "wideawakes" and will undoubtedly be appointed by the exposition management: C. S. Penfield, Houston, chairman of the executive committee; Rufus Cage, Houston, secretary of executive committee; M. G. Ranney Yos. of executive committee; M. G. Ranney, Yoa-kum; W. A. Childress, Houston; O. M. Peter-son, Normania; G. F. Lupton, San Antonio; R. M. Johnston, Houston; Charles Peterson, Rock Island; R. W. Andrews, San Antonio; W. D. Cleveland, Houston; T. J. Skaggs Rock Island; Charles Dillingham, Houston Cyrus Thompson, Lockhart; F. A. R. Reichardt, Houston; B. B. Cole, Corpus Christi; B. A. Reisser, Houston; R. T. Krehot, Hallettsville; B. R. Warner, Houston; F. R. Graves Kansas City; T. W. House, Houston; J. C. Haverion, Cuero; E. C. Crawford, Houston; John Wellacy, Portland. Vice President S. J. T. Johnson, who has been working with might and main to bring about a condition of affairs which would re-suit in a display being made, will still hold his position as vice president for the state. ARRANGING GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT.

Officials Come to Put the Display in Place in the Building.

A party of government officials and em ployes has arrived in the city to begin active work on the preparation of the exhibits in the Government building on the exposition grounds. This party comprises W. V. Cox, secretary of the Board of Management of the Government building; Prof. Charles Richards Dodge, chief of the Bureau of Fibre Investigations of the Department of Agriculture; J. A. Wilson, son of the secretary of Agriculture; Harry Brigham, son of the assistant secretary of agriculture; James L. Farmer, stanographer for Secre-

Cox is the executive officer of the Board of Management and will also be custodian of the Government building, the latter appointment having just been made by the secretary of the treesury. He will re-main in Omaha until the exposition is closed and the material comprising the exhibits taken care

The books are not transferable. They may be obtained by application to Secretary Wakefield by mail or in person. These tickets are lesued to supply the demand for books with less than 100 admissions and will not be on sale after May 20.

Women's Committee Incomplete. The executive committee of the Bureau of Entertainment field a session yesterday for the purpose of selecting the forty women, who, with the ten constituting the executive committee, will form the bureau. The work proceeded slowly and an adjournment was taken before it was completed. The date of the next meeting was not fixed.

Exposition Notes. The Western Union Telegraph company will place two clocks in each of the main buildings. The clocks will be connected by telegraph with the Washington observator; and will be strictly correct at all times. Governor Holcomb has notified President Wattles that within a few days he will issue his proclamation making June 1 public holiday in the state of Nebraska. Secretary A. T. Macdonald of the Colorado Exposition commission writes to the Department of Publicity and Promotion that the prospects for an excellent display from that state are becoming more flatter-ing every day, and it is now assured that the fondest hopes of the most enthusiastic exposition advocate will be more than re-alized by the Centennial state. All departments are working most energetically and everything will be ready on time.

Tries to Catch on Trucks and Gets

Serious Injuries. James H. Rossiter received injuries that will probably result fatally last night in trying to board a freight train at Fort Calhoun, Neb. He left this city yesterday on a Chieago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha freight train and rode on the trucks as far as Fort Calhoun, where he was ordered off by the train crew. The ecuductor had told him to leave the train at the previous station, but Rossiter had regained his place while the train was in motion in what was commented on as a very skillful manner.

As the train pulled out of Calhoun Rossiter once more endeavored to swing him-self underneath a car by means of a supporting brace. He chose the rear truck, however, and his foot was caught by the wheel, dragging him underneath. He was dragged some distance before the train could be stopped. Several witnesses carried Rossiter to the depot where a surgeon found that both legs were broken, as well as the right arm and several ribs. The injured man was brought to this city and taken to St. Joseph's hos-pital where it was found that the amputation of both legs would be necessary. The outcome of the operation is in doubt. Rossiter says that no blame is attached to the train crew for his accident and lays it entirely to his own carelessness

The first action taken by Secretary Cox after his arrival was to telegraph to Washington for more assistance and the work of installation will be pushed vizo ous y. Nearly every department now has a representative on the ground and the active work of installation has been commenced. In order to insure harmony in the general appearance of the interior of the building a committee on installation and decoration has been appointed to supervise the colors used by the different departments and oversee the general arrangement of the exhibits. This committee consists of Prof. F. W. Clarke of the Interior department, G. E. Kemper, assistant supervising architect, and Colonel J. B. Brownlow of the Postoffice department. This committee will arrive within a very few days.

An "Old Maids' Convention" of largely original composition was given in Creighton hall last night by the women of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The parts were taken by eighteen women, all arrayed after a fashion a half century old, and the convention proceeded to business with reports from committees and other special parts, which gave an opportunity for local coloring and were all well done. Mrs. F. G. Patrick presided over the assembly in a bright red gown and poke bonnet, assisted by Mrs. C. W. Cox as secretary. Mrs. E. V. Lewis, gowned in a striking blue silk, sang the official love song of the organization in a very effective way. Other notable characters were Mrs. G. W. Shields as Biddy Maloney and Mrs. C. E. #### CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Debate on a Few of the Things Presented Becomes forewhat Animated.

GARBAGE ORDINANCE GOES THROUGH

tuht and Lobeck Oppose the Measure but Mercer Engineers it Safely_ Thirty-Second Avenue Paying Knocked Out.

The new garbage ordinance was passed by the city council last night after the first really extended debate that has occurred in the council during this administration. Stuht made his longest speech on record in opposition to the ordinance and won the applause of the garbage men, who helped to ill the lobby.

The discussion occurred on the report of the judiciary committee, which recommended that the ordinance pass after it had seen amended to permit property owners to haul their own stable manure without using water tight box. Stuht was the first man on the floor and he declared that the proposal to pass the ordinance was an unqualified outrage. He said that it had been drawn up by interested outside parties and was designed to close up every toophole that the courts had created in the garbage contract.

Mercer defended the committee report. He said that it was not the fault of the present contract that the MacDonald contract had been executed, but since it existed the city had no choice but to enforce it. He in-sisted that if the ordinance was amended as suggested by the committee no one's rights would be endangered. Stuht and Lobeck then made a couple of speeches aplece in opposition and Stuht moved that the ordinance be recomitted. of the Masons and Odd Fellows. SENDS IN SOME VETOES. Mayor Moores vetoed the resolution author-izing the comptroller to have 500 copies of the 1897 annual reports printed on the ground that the proposed volume was not in keeping with the dignity of the city. He insisted that this was a false economy at this time, but the council took a different view and passed the resolution over the veto. The ordinance ordering the paving of Thirty-second avenue south of Center street was also returned without the executive approval. The mayor called attention to the fact that under the rulings of the supreme court the cost of this pavement must be paid from the intersection fund. The entire amount that would accrue to this fund would be used in districts for which petitions were already on file. If Thirty second avenue were paved it would use up this food and work already contemplated could not be carried on. He was unwilling to approve a measure that proposed to stop all improve-mento for the benefit of a single district The veto was unanimously sustained. Another executive communication called attention to the death of General Charles C. Wolcutt of Columbus, O., which occurred it this city Monday. The mayor spoke highly of General Wolcutt's record as a soldier and a citizen and the memorial was ordered spread on the journal. The mayor also suggested that some action should be taken to regulate the numerous restaurants that had aprung up in anticipa-tion of the exposition. He called attention to the fact that these establishments were very careless in their disposal of garbage and were likely to become a nuisance during the hot weather. He recommended that an ordinance be possed placing them under strict regulation by the license inspector, and the idea was referred to the committee on fire, water and police. COST OF FITTING UP JAIL.

The Board of Public Works reported that the cost of fitting up the Dodge school building for a city jail would be $6,650, according to the plans agreed on. The matter was referred to public property and buildings and the council will meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon to consider it. The Missouri Pacific had been awarded the contract on Saturday by the state. On Monday the government held that the contract let by the state was void, as Uncle Sam was to pay for the movement, and ordered new bids from the railroads. The Missouri Pacific secured the contract from the state on a bid of 821/2 cents per man, but this wasn' near low enough for the bidding on Monday and the Burlington was awarded the con tract at a bid of 25 cents per man, including his baggage. On Saturday the Missouri Pa cific laughed at the Burlington. On Mon the review of the state troops on that date by Governor Holcomb might travel at a cheap rate, though not nearly at such a cheap rate as had been offered the soldiers.

The Department of Missouri, U. S. A., has received no further information than conveyed in the telegram from the War department on Monday at midnight. So for as the department now knows the state troops will be mustered in at Lincoln. Lieutenant George Williamson of the Eighth cavalry, A., came in from Fort Meade, S. D. during the morning. He has just come from his famous regiment of troopers, and his browned appearance indicates that he has seen considerable campaigning for a young officer. He has been appointed quartermsster for the Nebraska troops by the War depart-ment, and during the afternoon went to Lincoln to assume charge of the commissary desertment there. He was accompanied by Lieutenant Eager of the First regiment, Nebraska National Guard, who is acting co quertermaster of the state troops until they are mustered into the service of the United States.

There isn't a house in all America that will sell you a worsted suit as cheap as The Nebraska will today. Worsteds are high. Nearly a year ago they commenced to advance and they haven't got through advancing yet. They will be higher before they are lower. Notwithstanding this we are selling today suits of pure worsted for $6.50, $7.00, $8.00, $8.75, $9.00, $11.00 and $12.00 a suit for fine goods. Amongst them are some of the best styles of the best makers in the country and some of the handsomest patterns ever shown. When you come to think that worsteds have advanced almost 30 per cent since a year ago and that some of these prices are lower than last year you will probably wonder how we got them and why we are selling them so cheap. Well, we don't blame you for wondering, but say, the Spaniards wondered how Dewey got past the batteries at Manila, and they'll probably be wondering one of those days what else your Uncle Samuel has got up his sleeve. In meantime we want you to look at the great worsted suits at ten dollars and the marvelous ones at six dollars and
